—2 Agents Nearly Killed—

Giant Dope Ring Uncovered In N.Y.

$30 Million-A-Year Business Is Cracked With Arrests Of 14 'Vice Presidents'

NEW YORK (INS)—A giant nationwide wholesale dope distribution syndicate which did a better than $30,000,000-a-year business was uncovered in New York Thursday by federal agents who arrested 14 "vice presidents."

Two agents were nearly killed in attempting to arrest one of the top wholesalers shortly after he passed 2 2/10 pounds of pure heroin worth $100,000 on the retail market to another dealer.

James C. Ryan, district supervisor of the Bureau of Narcotics said two of the 14 annually handled an average of 600 pounds of pure heroin worth $26,000,000 on the retail market. He said he could not estimate how much the 12 others handled because some of the supply came from the pair.

Federal narcotics agents said the 14 handled enough heroin in one year for 23,400,000 "snots"

Ryan said the smugglers "supplied the greater portion of dope peddlers in the United States from outlets in Mexico City, Italy, France and Canada."

The roundup is continuing, Ryan said.

Undercover Agent

Ryan disclosed that a brave young undercover agent who wormed his way into the confidence of the two top leaders of the syndicate was responsible for the widespread arrests.

Agents fired two shots into the car of Peter Beddia, 47, of White Plains, N. Y., when he tried to run them down as they approached his car on a Bronx street. He continued his flight until he rammed into a federal narcotics agent's car.

Ryan said the man who received the dope from Beddia was Sebastiano Bellanco, 50, of Fort Lee, N. J. He also was arrested.

He said Bellanca, who lists his occupation as a truck "laborer", lives in a palatial $75,000 home which has at least $25,000 worth of furnishings.

A raid on his home uncovered four guns and 500 rounds of ammunition.

The 14 were held on charges of violating the federal narcotics laws.

The unidentified undercover agent, Ryan said, purchased about $25,000 worth of heroin as evidence" during his "dangerous assignment" the past 11 months.

'Great Danger'

Without giving any details the chief nartotics agent said his undercover man was "in great personal danger Wednesday night" before the two were seized.

The Beddia-Bellanca "transaction" was set up by the agent who was supposed to buy the lot from Bellanca.

Ryan said the two men alone handled on the average 11 pounds of pure heroin each week with a wholesale value of $50,000 and a retail value of $500,000 when cut for individual doses.

Eleven persons, including four young women, were arrested in Atlantic City, N. J., in a series of all-night dope raids by federal, state and local authorities.

Confiscated were some 65 marijuana cigarets and seven bags of heroin worth $35, police said.

Among those arrested were three male musicians employed at resort night spots: a bartender, two hotel bellhops, a cook, waitress, a girl photographer, a cashier and a housewife.

Pure Heroin

The raiding agents in New York also seized 4½ pounds of pure heroin worth $450,000 in the retail market which was still in their original wrappers.

Ryan said "this indicates how close to the source we are."

Hungary Okays U.S. Food Offer

Red Satelite 2nd To Accept

WASHINGTON (INS)—Communist Hungary Thursday joined Red East Germany in accepting President Eisenhower's offer of surplus U.S. food for relief of Danube River flood victims.

Announcement that a second Iron Curtain government has accepted the U.S. mercy offer came shortly after Mr. Eisenhower directed that four million dollars worth of food be made available for the European relief project.

Hungary, one of Russia's most rigid satellites, expressed its "warm thanks" to the president and the American people, echoing the sentiments expressed by East German Leader Otto Grotewohl.

FOA Program

Mr. Eisenhower directed Secretary of State John Foster Dulles to arrange bilateral agreements with governments concerned in the relief program, which will be carried out under the supervision of the Foreign Operations Administration.

Western diplomats hailed the president's offer and its acceptance by the two Red governments as a significant psychological victory for the free world.

The offer was made to three Iron Curtain states—Hungary, East Germany and Czechoslovakia, and to Austria. West Germany, and Communist but anti-Soviet Yugoslavia.

The Czechs so far have not replied. The other countries have indicated that they will accept as soon as they have estimated their requirements.

Propaganda Barrage

The East German acceptance came last week despite a continuing Communist propaganda barrage, which charged, among other things, that the U.S. was making the food available to make up for crops destroyed as a result of American H-bomb tests, which were blamed by the Reds for the floods.

In making the food offer July 29, Mr. Eisenhower acted under authority given him by Congress to provide U.S. aid to disaster-hit nations without regard to the friendliness of the governments involved.

Mrs. Miller Hurt In Two-Car Crash

A 23-year-old pregnant woman, Mrs. Betty Miller of Hawkins' Trailer Court, was reported in "good condition" at St. Elizabeth's Hospital after suffering possible internal injuries in a two-car accident at 9th and O Streets.

She was riding in a car driven by her husband, William Miller, that was traveling south on 9th Street.

Fan Dancer Sally Rand Marries

SALLY RAND, 'OVER 21,' WEDS THIRD HUSBAND IN VEGAS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS)—Fan dancer Sally Rand, who found fame between a pair of ostrich feathers, was married Thursday to a plastering contractor whose first wife named her in a divorce action.

Sally, who coyly gave her age as "over 21" although she is said to be in the neighborhood of 52 slipped out between shows at the Silver Slipper nightclub in Las Vegas to wed her third husband, Fred Lalla, 35.

Lalla cleared the way for the marriage by divorcing his first wife, Mae, in Las Vegas Wednesday. A few hours after his marriage to Miss Rand, it was disclosed that Mrs. Lalla had divorced him in Los Angeles last July 8 on charges of mental cruelty.

Mrs. Lalla, 27, testified in obtaining the interlocutory decree that her husband was living with the fan dancer in Las Vegas, but Lalla denied the accusation.

Since Mrs. Lalla's divorce will not become final for one year, California law does not recognize Lalla's divorce and remarriage in Nevada as legal.

Lalla and his first wife, who were married for 10 years, have three children, Sharon Sue, 9; Michael, 7, and Stephen, 2. They were placed in their mother's custody.

Sally put aside her fans in favor of a simple dress for the brief marriage ceremony in the Little Church of the West at the Last Frontier Hotel, but when the knot was tied, she slipped back between her famous ostrich feathers for the next early morning show.

The happy newlyweds flew to Los Angeles later in the day.

The wedding ceremony was witnessed by her six-year-old adopted son, Sean. The dancer obtained the marriage license under her real name, Helen Gould Beck.

Her previous husbands were her former manager, Harry Finklestein, and cowboy performer Thurkel Greenough.

Sally said her romance with Lalla began over a turkey dinner after she met him in Chicago last Christmas Day and:

"We found we had attended the same Kansas City high school—at slightly different times."

Paper Says Joe Owes, McCarthy Replies, 'Libel'

. . . $25,000 In Taxes Involved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Evening Star reported Thursday that the Internal Revenue Service will soon present Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) with a claim for about $25,000 in income taxes and interest.

McCarthy called the newspaper story "a complete and vicious libel."

In a statement recorded later for television, the Wisconsin senator added: "There is no indication from any one in Internal Revenue that I owe them one cent. There is the indication that they owe me a rebate for what I was overcharged by the old Truman administration."

In Madison, Wis., Herbert D. Kuentz director of the Income Tax Division of the State Tax Department, said appropriate action would be taken on the state level if it were found that McCarthy owed additional federal income taxes.

18-Months Probe

The Star said the claim resulted from an 18-months investigation and that revenue agents would place their evidence before McCarthy and ask him to explain data they do not understand.

It added that at least part of the money involved represented contributions "ranging from thousands of dollars down to pennies."

Asked to comment on the report, the Internal Revenue Service declined.

'No Fraud'

"The tax agents do not contend that Sen. McCarthy acted with fraudulent intent," the Star said.

"Instead, they assert the Wisconsin legislator erroneously classified as nontaxable some of the money he received and on which he should have paid taxes."

The case was described as covering the tax years of 1946-1952, inclusive.

McCarthy told reporters that late in 1952 he had personally requested the Revenue Service to make a "full field investigation" of his tax returns, and that as a result of that investigation he had paid some additional income taxes.

'Not Public Kind'

He said he couldn't remember how much, but that the issue involved was whether certain interest payments should be reported in the year the payments were made or the year they became due.

The Star reported the McCarthy case was of the type which is not made public if the taxpayer pays up.

"A taxpayer in these circumstances can clear himself by simply paying back taxes plus 6 per cent interest," the newspaper said.

"If the taxpayer pays up, the Revenue Service does not make the case public. Thus Sen. McCarthy's federal tax returns again could escape public scrutiny — unless some congressional committee were to subpoena them."

Senate Approves, By 85-0 Vote, Action To Outlaw Communists

Administration Opposition Snubbed; Fate Of Plan In House Uncertain

18 Demos, Morse Sponsor Move

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate unanimously approved and and sent to the House Thursday a bill to outlaw in the United States the Communist party and any other organization seeking overthrow of the American government.

The measure, passed by a vote of 85 to 0, sets a penalty of five years in jail and $10,000 fine for anyone who becomes or remains a member of the Communist Party and commits any act to carry out its aims.

The legislation also would ban bargaining rights to any Red-dominated labor union or business, and would prohibit any Communist from holding office or employment in a labor organization.

Both of Nebraska's senators, Eva Bowring and Sam Reynolds, Republicans, voted Thursday for the bill.

Across the Capitol, Rep. Harrison A. Williams Jr., (D-N.J.), announced that he will offer a bill to outlaw the Communist Party when the House reconvenes on Monday. He said it will duplicate the original Senate version without the amendments.

The action to outlaw the party was taken in the face of previous opposition by Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., who has contended such a step would drive the Reds underground.

The fate of the legislation in the House is uncertain. A House judiciary subcommittee has approved a separate bill to outlaw the party but it has been bottled up in the full judiciary committee.

Red Unions

Eighteen Democrats and Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore), joined in sponsoring the bill to outlaw the party as a substitute for the original administration proposal aimed at Red-tinged unions.

Its approval was virtually assured when Senate GOP floor leader William F. Knowland of California agreed to support outlawing of the party if the administration measure aimed at unions was included.

On the first key vote, the Senate adopted, 85 to 1, an amendment by Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex), writing the union provision into the Democratic substitute. The Senate then quickly approved the substitute 84 to 0, and passed the bill itself, 85 to 0.

The measure states that any person who "knowingly, wilfully and intentionally becomes or remains" a member of the Communist Party or any other organization seeking overthrow of the government shall be subject upon conviction to the $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

'Brought To Ruin'

It also puts Congress on record as declaring that the Communist Party "is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government."

Furthermore, the bill states that the Communist Party is dedicated "to the proposition that the present constitutional government of the United States utimately must be brought to ruin by any available means, including resort to force and violence." The measure added:

"Holding that doctrine, its role as the agency of a hostile foreign power renders its existence a continuing threat to the security of the United States."

Knowland noted that Daniel had included a so-called "separability clause" in his proposal that would allow the union provision to stand up even if the Supreme Court should rule the outlawing of the party to be unconsitiutional.

"Won't Mean a Thing"

Sen. William Jenner (R-Ind), chairman of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, attacked the Democratic proposal to outlaw the party as "no way to legislate." He argued that outlawing the party "won't mean a thing" because members have gone underground and extensive hearings should be held on such a proposal.

The Senate's proposal poised a threat to the administration measure aimed at Communist-infiltrated unions which won easily on its first test vote earlier in the day.

By a vote of 57 to 31, the Senate defeated an attempt to kill the bill and provide instead for a 12-man commission to study Communist infiltration in the labor-management field

Nebraska's Republican senators Bowring and Reynolds voted with the majority in this action.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn), introduced the measure to outlaw the Communist Party on behalf of himself and 18 other senators.

Other sponsors were: Sens. John F. Kennedy, Mass.; Mike Mansfield, Mont.; George Smathers, Fla.; John O. Pastore, R.I.; James E. Murray, Mont.; Olin Johnston, S.C.; Burnet R. Maybank, S.C.; Clinton P. Anderson, N.M.; W. Stuart Symington, Mo.; Henry M. Jackson, Wash.; Warren G. Magnuson, Wash.; John C. Stennis, Miss.; Herbert H. Lehman, N.Y.; Edwin C. Johnson, Colo.; A. S. Mike Monroney, Okla.; Lister Hill, Ala.; Robert S. Kerr, Okla., all Democrats, and Wayne Morse, Independent, Oregon.

DR. SMALL COMMITTED TO HOSPITAL

IONIA, Mich. (AP) — Dr. Kenneth B. Small, acquitted on grounds of temporary insanity in the slaying of his wife's playboy pal, was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane Thursday.

It was a fate the 31-year-old Detroit dentist fought all the way. Even as he entered the hospital, his lawyer was in Lansing seeking a Supreme Court stay. Dr. Small told a deputy sheriff: "I'm very sorry I have to come to this place."

Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith ruled Thursday at Allegan, the trial scene, that Michigan law made Small's commitment mandatory "for the rest of his natural life" or until he is declared sane by the State Mental Health Commission. The judge then ordered immediate commitment.

Small won acquittal July 17 in the slaying of Jules Lack, 45-year-old New York playboy-industrialist. He claimed Lack stole the love of his 30-year-old, independently wealthy wife, Edith, and this drove him out of his mind. A jury agreed.

Claiming Small now is sane, Defense Atty. Leo Hoffman asked a writ of habeas corpus under which the state would have had to prove Small insane now or give him immediate freedom. After a 10-day study, Judge Smith denied it Thursday.

Dodge GI Holds Both Post, Brass

CAMP RIPLEY, Minn. (AP)—Pfc. Raymond Ortmeier, 20, of Dodge, Neb., had orders to block a road near a demolition area here and he stuck to those orders despite three colonels and a brigadier general.

Ortmeier stopped a convoy containing top brass of the Iowa-Nebraska National Guard 34th infantry division when it attempted to pass through the area. After a lieutenant colonel and two colonels failed to move him, Brig. Gen. Warren Wood, of Gering, assistant division commander, landed his helicopter and tried to budge the soldier. But even he failed.

Finally someone located the sentry's platoon lieutenant and the lieutenant ordered Ortmeier to allow the brass to pass.

Despite the delay, Gen. Wood said, "He did just right."

Ritchie Plans 'Unity' Meet For Aug. 30

Democratic nominee for governor William Ritchie of Omaha was in Lincoln Thursday laying plans for an Aug. 31 "party unification" meeting here.

The late August meeting will be an invitation to all Democratic candidates who were not nominated at the Aug. 10 primary election.

"The purpose of this meeting," Ritchie said, "will be to work for the unification of party efforts to elect state and national candidates and to plan for co-operation of the state committee with other agencies carrying out the party program."

It is hoped, Ritchie said, that a unified party position can be obtained before the state convention early in September.

Of particular importance, Ritchie said, is the selection of a state chairman to succeed William Meier of Minden who has been nominated for the U.S. Senate short term. Ritchie stated that Meier will not be a candidate for the state chairmanship.

"I find," Ritchie said, "a very strong sentiment among Democratic leaders for the selection of a Democratic state chairman outside of both Omaha and Lincoln. This is a very definite demand on the part of out-state workers."

Total Lincoln Property Tax Up 8.46 Mills

Lincoln property owners, real and personal, will pay $8.46 more per $1,000 of assessed valuation this year for taxation purposes than they paid last year.

With only the city's mill levy yet to be given official final approval, the total levy for all governmental sub-divisions is 61.27 mills or $61.27 tax on each $1,000 of valuation. The total of all five sub-divisions was 52.81 for the 1953-54 fiscal year.

The individual levies for 1954-55 and the preceding year are:

State	7.033	8.432
County	3.997	3.968
School Dist.	26.98	33.77
City	12.80	13.10
Sanitary Dist.	2.00	2.00
Totals	52.810	61.270

A levy of one mill would mean a tax of $1 on every $1,000 of valuation.

Search On For Money Thieves

The Safety Patrol, the sheriff's office and Lincoln Police are searching for a woman and man who apparently stole $51.50 and gave an attendant the price for a fan belt at Van's Texaco at 1225 Cornhusker Highway.

Police said that the couple drove up in an old model Buick and asked to have a fan belt changed. While the attendant was working under the hood of the car, the woman walked into the station and apparently took money from the cash register and a lady's handbag.

'Biggest And Best' Cattle Rustling Ring Is Broken

MARTIN, S.D. (AP)—South Dakota authorities have cracked down on what they call one of the biggest and best organized cattle rustling rings operating in recent years.

Three sheriffs, two deputy sheriffs, two highway patrolmen, three state agents and an assistant state attorney general worked on the investigation sanctioned by Gov. Sigurd Anderson.

Four arrests have been made, and authorities estimate another 17 persons will be involved.

The thieves worked systematically in a seven-county area.

Two officials working as undercover men made 21 "buys" over an eight-month period. Average price paid for the 45 head of live cattle and two butchered cattle was $30. The maximum price paid was $50 for an animal valued at $200.

Three of the four arrested have been arraigned on grand larceny charges. Woodrow Peterson, Harrington, S.D., is being held on $7,500 bond and Albert Six Feathers and Herman Arapahoe were bound over to district court at Martin, S.D., under $2,500 bond each.

Ten Connery Jr., is being held at Winner, S.D., on embezzlement charges in connection with one of the cases.

Authorities said the rustling operation was on such a big scale the thieves had difficulty finding outlets for their beef.

Cattlemen in the area who had been losing animals aided in and contributed financially to the investigation.

Fan Dancer Sally Rand Marries

SALLY RAND, 'OVER 21,' WEDS THIRD HUSBAND IN VEGAS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (INS)—Fan dancer Sally Rand, who found fame between a pair of ostrich feathers, was married Thursday to a plastering contractor whose first wife named her in a divorce action.

Sally, who coyly gave her age as "over 21" although she is said to be in the neighborhood of 52 slipped out between shows at the Silver Slipper nightclub in Las Vegas to wed her third husband, Fred Lalla, 35.

Lalla cleared the way for the marriage by divorcing his first wife, Mae, in Las Vegas Wednesday. A few hours after his marriage to Miss Rand, it was disclosed that Mrs. Lalla had divorced him in Los Angeles last July 8 on charges of mental cruelty.

Mrs. Lalla, 27, testified in obtaining the interlocutory decree that her husband was living with the fan dancer in Las Vegas, but Lalla denied the accusation.

Since Mrs. Lalla's divorce will not become final for one year, California law does not recognize Lalla's divorce and remarriage in Nevada as legal.

Lalla and his first wife, who were married for 10 years, have three children, Sharon Sue, 9; Michael, 7, and Stephen, 2. They were placed in their mother's custody.

Sally put aside her fans in favor of a simple dress for the brief marriage ceremony in the Little Church of the West at the Last Frontier Hotel, but when the knot was tied, she slipped back between her famous ostrich feathers for the next early morning show.

The happy newlyweds flew to Los Angeles later in the day.

The wedding ceremony was witnessed by her six-year old adopted son, Sean. The dancer obtained the marriage license under her real name, Helen Gould Beck.

Her previous husbands were her former manager, Harry Finklestein, and cowboy performer Thurkel Greenough.

Sally said her romance with Lalla began over a turkey dinner after she met him in Chicago last Christmas Day and:

"We found we had attended the same Kansas City high school—at slightly different times."

Paper Says Joe Owes, McCarthy Replies, 'Libel'

. . . $25,000 In Taxes Involved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Evening Star reported Thursday that the Internal Revenue Service will soon present Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) with a claim for about $25,000 in income taxes and interest.

McCarthy called the newspaper story "a complete and vicious libel."

In a statement recorded later for television, the Wisconsin senator added: "There is no indication from any one in Internal Revenue that I owe them one cent. There is the indication that they owe me a rebate for what I was overcharged by the old Truman administration."

In Madison, Wis., Herbert D. Kuentz director of the Income Tax Division of the State Tax Department, said appropriate action would be taken on the state level if it were found that McCarthy owed additional federal income taxes.

18-Months Probe

The Star said the claim resulted from an 18-months investigation and that revenue agents would place their evidence before McCarthy and ask him to explain data they do not understand.

It added that at least part of the money involved represented contributions "ranging from thousands of dollars down to pennies."

Asked to comment on the report, the Internal Revenue Service declined.

'No Fraud'

"The tax agents do not contend that Sen. McCarthy acted with fraudulent intent," the Star said.

"Instead, they assert the Wisconsin legislator erroneously classified as nontaxable some of the money he received and on which he should have paid taxes."

The case was described as covering the tax years of 1946-1952, inclusive.

McCarthy told reporters that late in 1952 he had personally requested the Revenue Service to make a "full field investigation" of his tax returns, and that as a result of that investigation he had paid some additional income taxes.

'Not Public Kind'

He said he couldn't remember how much, but that the issue involved was whether certain interest payments should be reported in the year the payments were made or the year they became due.

The Star reported the McCarthy case was of the type which is not made public if the taxpayer pays up.

"A taxpayer in these circumstances can clear himself by simply paying back taxes plus 6 per cent interest," the newspaper said.

"If the taxpayer pays up, the Revenue Service does not make the case public. Thus Sen. McCarthy's federal tax returns again could escape public scrutiny — unless some congressional committee were to subpoena them."

Senate Approves, By 85-0 Vote, Action To Outlaw Communists

18 Demos, Morse Sponsor Move

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate unanimously approved and and sent to the House Thursday a bill to outlaw in the United States the Communist party and any other organization seeking overthrow of the American government.

The measure, passed by a vote of 85 to 0, sets a penalty of five years in jail and $10,000 fine for anyone who becomes or remains a member of the Communist Party and commits any act to carry out its aims.

The legislation also would ban bargaining rights to any Red-dominated labor union or business, and would prohibit any Communist from holding office or employment in a labor organization.

Both of Nebraska's senators, Eva Bowring and Sam Reynolds, Republicans, voted Thursday for the bill.

Across the Capitol, Rep. Harrison A. Williams Jr., (D-N.J.), announced that he will offer a bill to outlaw the Communist Party when the House reconvenes on Monday. He said it will duplicate the original Senate version without the amendments.

The action to outlaw the party was taken in the face of previous opposition by Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., who has contended such a step would drive the Reds underground.

The fate of the legislation in the House is uncertain. A House judiciary subcommittee has approved a separate bill to outlaw the party but it has been bottled up in the full judiciary committee.

Red Unions

Eighteen Democrats and Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore), joined in sponsoring the bill to outlaw the party as a substitute for the original administration proposal aimed at Red-tinged unions.

Its approval was virtually assured when Senate GOP floor leader William F. Knowland of California agreed to support outlawing of the party if the administration measure aimed at unions was included.

On the first key vote, the Senate adopted, 85 to 1, an amendment by Sen. Price Daniel (D-Tex), writing the union provision into the Democratic substitute. The Senate then quickly approved the substitute 84 to 0, and passed the bill itself, 85 to 0.

The measure states that any person who "knowingly, wilfully and intentionally becomes or remains" a member of the Communist Party or any other organization seeking overthrow of the government shall be subject upon conviction to the $10,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

'Brought To Ruin'

It also puts Congress on record as declaring that the Communist Party "is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government."

Furthermore, the bill states that the Communist Party is dedicated "to the proposition that the present constitutional government of the United States utimately must be brought to ruin by any available means, including resort to force and violence." The measure added:

"Holding that doctrine, its role as the agency of a hostile foreign power renders its existence a continuing threat to the security of the United States."

Knowland noted that Daniel had included a so-called "separability clause" in his proposal that would allow the union provision to stand up even if the Supreme Court should rule the outlawing of the party to be unconsitiutional.

"Won't Mean a Thing"

Sen. William Jenner (R-Ind), chairman of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, attacked the Democratic proposal to outlaw the party as "no way to legislate." He argued that outlawing the party "won't mean a thing" because members have gone underground and extensive hearings should be held on such a proposal.

The Senate's proposal poised a threat to the administration measure aimed at Communist-infiltrated unions which won easily on its first test vote earlier in the day.

By a vote of 57 to 31, the Senate defeated an attempt to kill the bill and provide instead for a 12-man commission to study Communist infiltration in the labor-management field.

Nebraska's Republican senators Bowring and Reynolds voted with the majority in this action.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn), introduced the measure to outlaw the Communist Party on behalf of himself and 18 other senators.

Other sponsors were: Sens. John F. Kennedy, Mass.; Mike Mansfield, Mont., George Smathers, Fla.; John O. Pastore, R.I.; James E. Murray, Mont.; Olin Johnston, S.C.; Burnet R. Maybank, S.C.; Clinton P. Anderson, N.M.; W. Stuart Symington, Mo.; Henry M. Jackson, Wash.; Warren G. Magnuson, Wash.; John C. Stennis, Miss.; Herbert H. Lehman, N.Y.; Edwin C. Johnson, Colo.; A. S. Mike Monroney, Okla.; Lister Hill, Ala.; Robert S. Kerr, Okla., all Democrats, and Wayne Morse, Independent, Oregon.

DR. SMALL COMMITTED TO HOSPITAL

IONIA, Mich. (AP) — Dr. Kenneth B. Small, acquitted on grounds of temporary insanity in the slaying of his wife's playboy pal, was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane Thursday.

It was a fate the 31-year-old Detroit dentist fought all the way. Even as he entered the hospital, his lawyer was in Lansing seeking a Supreme Court stay. Dr. Small told a deputy sheriff: "I'm very sorry I have to come to this place."

Circuit Judge Raymond L. Smith ruled Thursday at Allegan, the trial scene, that Michigan law made Small's commitment mandatory "for the rest of his natural life" or until he is declared sane by the State Mental Health Commission. The judge then ordered immediate commitment.

Small won acquittal July 17 in the slaying of Jules Lack, 45-year-old New York playboy-industrialist. He claimed Lack stole the love of his 30-year-old, independently wealthy wife, Edith, and this drove him out of his mind. A jury agreed.

Claiming Small now is sane, Defense Atty. Leo Hoffman asked a writ of habeas corpus under which the state would have had to prove Small insane now or give him immediate freedom. After a 10-day study, Judge Smith denied it Thursday.

Dodge GI Holds Both Post, Brass

CAMP RIPLEY, Minn. (AP)—Pfc. Raymond Ortmeier, 20, of Dodge, Neb., had orders to block a road near a demolition area here and he stuck to those orders despite three colonels and a brigadier general.

Ortmeier stopped a convoy containing top brass of the Iowa-Nebraska National Guard 34th infantry division when it attempted to pass through the area. After a lieutenant colonel and two colonels failed to move him, Brig. Gen. Warren Wood, of Gering, assistant division commander, landed his helicopter and tried to budge the soldier. But even he failed.

Finally someone located the sentry's platoon lieutenant and the lieutenant ordered Ortmeier to allow the brass to pass.

Despite the delay, Gen. Wood said, "He did just right."

Ritchie Plans 'Unity' Meet For Aug. 30

Democratic nominee for governor William Ritchie of Omaha was in Lincoln Thursday laying plans for an Aug. 31 "party unification" meeting here.

The late August meeting will be an invitation to all Democratic candidates who were not nominated at the Aug. 10 primary election.

"The purpose of this meeting," Ritchie said, "will be to work for the unification of party efforts to elect state and national candidates and to plan for co-operation of the state committee with other agencies carrying out the party program."

It is hoped, Ritchie said, that a unified party position can be obtained before the state convention early in September.

Of particular importance, Ritchie said, is the selection of a state chairman to succeed William Meier of Minden who has been nominated for the U.S. Senate short term. Ritchie stated that Meier will not be a candidate for the state chairmanship.

"I find," Ritchie said, "a very strong sentiment among Democratic leaders for the selection of a Democratic state chairman outside of both Omaha and Lincoln. This is a very definite demand on the part of out-state workers."

Total Lincoln Property Tax Up 8.46 Mills

Lincoln property owners, real and personal, will pay $8.46 more per $1,000 of assessed valuation this year for taxation purposes than they paid last year.

With only the city's mill levy yet to be given official final approval, the total levy for all governmental sub-divisions is 61.27 mills or $61.27 tax on each $1,000 of valuation. The total of all five sub-divisions was 52.81 for the 1953-54 fiscal year.

The individual levies for 1954-55 and the preceding year are:

State	7.033	8.432
County	3.997	3.968
School Dist.	26.98	33.77
City	12.80	13.10
Sanitary Dist.	2.00	2.00
Totals	52.810	61.270

A levy of one mill would mean a tax of $1 on every $1,000 of valuation.

Search On For Money Thieves

The Safety Patrol, the sheriff's office and Lincoln Police are searching for a woman and man who apparently stole $51.50 and gave an attendant the price for a fan belt at Van's Texaco at 1225 Cornhusker Highway.

Police said that the couple drove up in an old model Buick and asked to have a fan belt changed. While the attendant was working under the hood of the car, the woman walked into the station and apparently took money from the cash register and a lady's handbag.

'Biggest And Best' Cattle Rustling Ring Is Broken

MARTIN, S.D. (AP)—South Dakota authorities have cracked down on what they call one of the biggest and best organized cattle rustling rings operating in recent years.

Three sheriffs, two deputy sheriffs, two highway patrolmen, three state agents and an assistant state attorney general worked on the investigation sanctioned by Gov. Sigurd Anderson.

Four arrests have been made, and authorities estimate another 17 persons will be involved.

The thieves worked systematically in a seven-county area.

Two officials working as undercover men made 21 "buys" over an eight-month period. Average price paid for the 45 head of live cattle and two butchered cattle was $30. The maximum price paid was $50 for an animal valued at $200.

Three of the four arrested have been arraigned on grand larceny charges. Woodrow Peterson, Harrington, S.D., is being held on $7,500 bond and Albert Six Feathers and Herman Arapahoe were bound over to district court at Martin, S.D., under $2,500 bond each.

Ten Connery Jr., is being held at Winner, S.D., on embezzlement charges in connection with one of the cases.

Authorities said the rustling operation was on such a big scale the thieves had difficulty finding outlets for their beef.

Cattlemen in the area who had been losing animals aided in and contributed financially to the investigation.

Studebaker Union Votes Pay Slash

. . . Move Taken To Avert Shutdown

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Studebaker workers decided Thursday, by an overwhelming vote of better than eight to one, to take a pay cut rather than face a possible shutdown of the 102-year-old firm's huge plant.

The final, official count showed that members of the CIO United Automobile Workers Local voted 5,371 to 626 in favor of accepting the wage reduction, estimated to average 14 per cent of the payroll.

Thursday's vote, by secret ballot, reversed last week's election when the workers rejected the pay cut proposal. The vote then, by show of hands, was termed "very close."

Two days later the company gave notice that it would end its contract with the union in 60 days and indicated the plant would close down.

The pay cut plan was worked out by union officials in long negotiations with the company.

Studebaker executives and leaders of the union met at the plant within an hour after the voting to initial the agreement.

As the vote meeting got under way on a high school football field there was scattered evidence of opposition to the pay cut proposal.

All the speeches made before the voting approved the proposal.

It even received a cautious endorsement from William Ogden, former vice president of the local who led the opposition when it was prevously rejected.

Officials Happy

Union officials who watched the opening of the voting machines on which the members balloted expressed extreme satisfaction with the result.

A firm of certified public accountants checked the machines.

Some of the workers carried placards bearing the slogan "We Want No Package Deals."

Opponents of the pay cut plan contended it included too much; that, in addition to the wag reductions, the company sought changes in work rules which would be detrimental to the workers.

A goup seated in the bleachers shouted impatiently: "Let's get this giveaway show started."

An official of the Studebaker local opened the meeting with an explanation of negotiations that led to it

He said Studebaker officials told the union three months ago it could not remain in business unless production costs were cut.

Part of these costs, he said, were attributed by the firm to its wage scales. Company officials have said the pay rates are more than 30 cents an hour above the pattern for the automotive industry.

The union official said meetings then were held with Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO-UAW and other national officers. Out of these came the recommendations to accept reductions in hourly pay.

'52 Centennial

The Studebaker Corp. observed its centennial in 1952. After 50 years of making wagons, buggies and carriages, it sold its first horseless carriage—an electric runabout—four days before its 50th anniversary.

Studebaker is one of South Bend's two largest industries. The other is the Bendix Products Division of the Bendix Aviation Corp., which has about 10,000 employes, approximately the same number as Studebaker has been working in recent months.

A year ago Studebaker had 23,000 workers on the payroll.

The proposed 14 per cent pay cut would range from a minimum of $12 to a maximum of $20 a week for workers, a union spokesman said

The company said it now is paying an average hourly wage of $2.39, compared with $2.03 by its main competitors. Studebaker recently reported a net loss of nearly nine million dollars for the first half of this year.

Last April executives accepted salary reductions ranging from 20 to 30 per cent on all pay over $20,000 a year.

EUB Women Open Annual Summer Meet

Lincoln Star Special

MILFORD, Neb. — Dr. H. E Hiller of Minneapolis, Minn., superintendent of the Minnesota Evangelical United Brethren conference, delivered the communion message Thursday night at the opening session of the Women's Society of World Service.

The state women's group is meeting in conjunction with the annual summer conference of the Nebraska EUB at Riverside Park near Milford. A two-day convention is slated for the women.

Dr. Vernon Farnham, formerly a missionary in China and now traveling under the EUB board, addressed the adult assembly Thursday afternoon on "Our EUB Church in China." He will also speak at the women's convention.

Dr. Paul E. Rademacher, professor in the EUB Theological Seminary at Naperville, Ill., speaking to the ministers on "The Church as the Body of Christ" said he believes the "purpose of the church is to be a sacrifical fellowship that works for repentance." He also stated he feels that when one member in the church is hurt the fellowship of the church should unite to help heal the hurt.

Personnel of the vacation Bible school leadership is as follows: Mrs. John Eversole of Alma, kindergarten, assisted by Gloria Burson of Ord and Roma Berger of Woodruff, Kan.; Glee Soper of Broken Bow, primary; Mrs. Frank Schroeder of St. Francis, Kan., assisted by Mrs Kenneth Koelling of Ord; Mrs. Marvin Herrick of Lincoln, music assisted by Mrs. Vernon Schroeder of Ralston. Mrs Harold O. Massie of Gibbon is directing the children's work.

The Rev. Paul Dick of Omaha is in charge of the adult assembly choir with Harold Williams of Norfolk, camp pianist.

Steps Taken To Solve Fairbury School Problems

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP)— The school board here has taken steps to solve its two most pressing problems—termites in one grade school and too many kindergarten enrollees in another.

The board voted to award a contract to the National Termite Control, Inc., of Wichita, Kan., for the eradication of termites in Park Grade School. The exterminators will treat the ground around the building, the foundation walls, basemet floors, interior walls and wooden surfaces.

The board members also gave the superintendent of schools the discretionary power to transfer any or all under age pupils at Central Grade School to a kindergarten class in another ward. Only Central faces an extra large beginning class.

Hamilton GOP Voting Percentage Increases

AURORA, Neb. (AP)—Election returns from Hamilton County show a developing shift from Democrat to Republican so far as primary voting is concerned. Although no registration is required, the Republican percentage has grown from 65 per cent in 1950 to 85 per cent this year. Hamilton County Democrats said however, the lack of local contests among Democrats occasioned the shift.

Dead Candidate Gets 173 Votes

FAIRBURY, Neb (AP)— Dwight B Young, who died after filing for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Jefferson County, but too late for his name to be removed from the ballot, received 173 votes in the primary election. Incumbent Deyo Hughes was nominated on the Republican ticket Mrs. R. Belle Robertson with 2,092 votes led incumbent County Supt. G. T. Boone, who got 1,031 in the non-political balloting for county superintendent.

Late Planted Wheat Best, Tests Reveal

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Two-year growing tests at Imperial conclusively prove that western Nebraska wheat planted later in the fall develops greater protein content than grain planted early.

That is the word from Leslie F. Sheffield, secretary of the Nebraska Grain Improvement Assn.

In a letter written to Cheyenne County Agent Ivan Liljegren, Sheffield reported that the tests indicate that protein content is much higher in wheat planted in mid or late September than that seeded in Mid-August.

For example, this year's crop planted on Aug. 15 had a yield of 13.4 bushels and a protein content of 11.30 Wheat planted on Oct 5 of last year yielded 24.8 bushels and showed a protein content of 16.20 per cent.

Delay Recommended

A greater yield was obtained from wheat planted Sept 15, 32.2 bushels, but the protein content was only 11.10 per cent.

Authorities have recommended a later planting date as a means of avoiding danger of Hessian fly, mosaic, root rot and other diseases. But farmers have been slow to delay planting, believing that early planting will guarantee a good growth for the wheat when it enters the cold winter months.

Sheffield quoted 1953 test figures which indicated that the greatest protein content was obtained in Sept 25 plantings, 13.7 per cent, and that the greatest yield also came from that planting, 35.9 bushels an acre.

His figures showed that, whereas yields were heavier last year, protein content was greater from all plantings this year.

NU Graduate Accepts Position In Hong Kong

YORK, Neb.—Elnora Ratnje, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rathje of York, has assumed new duties as head of the Foreign Operations Administration Escapee program in Hong Kong, China.

A York High School graduate, she received her degree from the University of Nebraska. She worked in Washington, D.C., before receiving her Far East appointment.

Ord Ballot Supply Exhausted Due To Heavy Ward Vote

Lincoln Star Special

ORD, Neb. — High interest in Valley County's District 3 county supervisor race brought out a heavy Ord vote in the August primary.

In Ord's third ward, part of District 3, the supply of ballots was exhausted an hour before the polls closed. All sample ballots were used and the necessary number needed to last till the polls closed were gathered up at the printing office.

Leonard Cronk won over the opponents, Emil Fafeta and Lowell Jones, in the District 3 supervisor contest.

In other contests in Valley County, Ralph Norman edged John Sullivan for the county attorney nomination, 270 to 218, on the Democratic ticket. There were no candidates on the Republican side.

For county sheriff, V. J. Beran won the nomination over his two opponents, E. Sorwied with 654 and W. DeHart, 236. Beran polled 835 votes.

Henry Stara won handily over D. E. Troyer for county assessor, 1,168 to 475

For county supervisor in the seventh district V. Hansen of Arcadia defeated P. Bossen and L. Hly. Sevenken won over Miska in the 1st district for county supervisor.

Wife Held In Fatal Shooting Of Husband

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha police are holding Mrs. Andrew Barring, 30, in connection with the shooting and death of her 31-year-old estranged husband.

Barring was pronounced dead at Douglas County Hospital Thursday.

Detectives said Barring was struck in the face by a 20 gauge shotgun blast as he sought to gain entrance to his wife's home through a second story window.

They found Barring half in and half out of a bathroom window. He died without regaining consciousness.

Detectives said Mrs. Barring related she was awakened by a noise in the bathroom, got the shotgun from her closet and then saw a man's figure outlined against the window.

Officers said that in one statement she said she talked with him before firing. Later she denied conversing with him before the shot was fired.

Herman Woman Picks Up Lead

OMAHA (AP)—Mrs. Edith James Skinner of Herman picked up 139 votes in a recheck of county by county totals in the third district board of education race.

When the original totals were struck Mrs. Skinner led Thomas A. Eason of North Bend by two votes, 5,520 to 5,527. But revised figures from the various counties added 139 votes to make Mrs Skinner's total 5,666 and Eason's 5,444.

The other nomination was clinched by Walter A. Steffen, manager of the Norfolk State Employment Service office, with a total of 15,156 votes.

Studebaker Union Votes Pay Slash

. . . Move Taken To Avert Shutdown

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Studebaker workers decided Thursday, by an overwhelming vote of better than eight to one, to take a pay cut rather than face a possible shutdown of the 102-year-old firm's huge plant.

The final, official count showed that members of the CIO United Automobile Workers Local voted 5,371 to 626 in favor of accepting the wage reduction, estimated to average 14 per cent of the payroll.

Thursday's vote, by secret ballot, reversed last week's election when the workers rejected the pay cut proposal. The vote then, by show of hands, was termed "very close."

Two days later the company gave notice that it would end its contract with the union in 60 days and indicated the plant would close down.

The pay cut plan was worked out by union officials in long negotiations with the company.

Studebaker executives and leaders of the union met at the plant within an hour after the voting to initial the agreement.

As the vote meeting got under way on a high school football field there was scattered evidence of opposition to the pay cut proposal.

All the speeches made before the voting approved the proposal.

It even received a cautious endorsement from William Ogden, former vice president of the local who led the opposition when it was prevously rejected.

Officials Happy

Union officials who watched the opening of the voting machines on which the members balloted expressed extreme satisfaction with the result.

A firm of certified public accountants checked the machines.

Some of the workers carried placards bearing the slogan "We Want No Package Deals."

Opponents of the pay cut plan contended it included too much; that, in addition to the wag reductions, the company sought changes in work rules which would be detrimental to the workers.

A goup seated in the bleachers shouted impatiently: "Let's get this giveaway show started."

An official of the Studebaker local opened the meeting with an explanation of negotiations that led to it.

He said Studebaker officials told the union three months ago it could not remain in business unless production costs were cut.

Part of these costs, he said, were attributed by the firm to its wage scales. Company officials have said the pay rates are more than 30 cents an hour above the pattern for the automotive industry.

The union official said meetings then were held with Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO-UAW and other national officers. Out of these came the recommendations to accept reductions in hourly pay.

'52 Centennial

The Studebaker Corp. observed its centennial in 1952. After 50 years of making wagons, buggies and carriages, it sold its first horseless carriage—an electric runabout—four days before its 50th anniversary.

Studebaker is one of South Bend's two largest industries. The other is the Bendix Products Division of the Bendix Aviation Corp., which has about 10,000 employes, approximately the same number as Studebaker has been working in recent months.

A year ago Studebaker had 23,000 workers on the payroll.

The proposed 14 per cent pay cut would range from a minimum of $12 to a maximum of $20 a week for workers, a union spokesman said.

The company said it now is paying an average hourly wage of $2.39, compared with $2.03 by its main competitors. Studebaker recently reported a net loss of nearly nine million dollars for the first half of this year.

Last April executives accepted salary reductions ranging from 20 to 30 per cent on all pay over $20,000 a year.

EUB Women Open Annual Summer Meet

Lincoln Star Special

MILFORD, Neb. — Dr. H. E. Hiller of Minneapolis, Minn., superintendent of the Minnesota Evangelical United Brethren conference, delivered the communion message Thursday night at the opening session of the Women's Society of World Service.

The state women's group is meeting in conjunction with the annual summer conference of the Nebraska EUB at Riverside Park near Milford. A two-day convention is slated for the women.

Dr. Vernon Farnham, formerly a missionary in China and now traveling under the EUB board, addressed the adult assembly Thursday afternoon on "Our EUB Church in China." He will also speak at the women's convention.

Dr. Paul E. Rademacher, professor in the EUB Theological Seminary at Naperville, Ill., speaking to the ministers on "The Church as the Body of Christ" said he believes the "purpose of the church is to be a sacrifical fellowship that works for repentance." He also stated he feels that when one member in the church is hurt the fellowship of the church should unite to help heal the hurt.

Personnel of the vacation Bible school leadership is as follows: Mrs. John Eversole of Alma, kindergarten, assisted by Gloria Burson of Ord and Roma Berger of Woodruff, Kan.; Glee Soper of Broken Bow, primary; Mrs. Frank Schroeder of St. Francis, Kan., assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Koelling of Ord; Mrs. Marvin Herrick of Lincoln, music assisted by Mrs. Vernon Schroeder of Ralston. Mrs. Harold O. Massie of Gibbon is directing the children's work.

The Rev. Paul Dick of Omaha is in charge of the adult assembly choir with Harold Williams of Norfolk, camp pianist.

Steps Taken To Solve Fairbury School Problems

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP) — The school board here has taken steps to solve its two most pressing problems—termites in one grade school and too many kindergarten enrollees in another.

The board voted to award a contract to the National Termite Control, Inc., of Wichita, Kan., for the eradication of termites in Park Grade School. The exterminators will treat the ground around the building, the foundation walls, basemet floors, interior walls and wooden surfaces.

The board members also gave the superintendent of schools the discretionary power to transfer any or all under age pupils at Central Grade School to a kindergarten class in another ward. Only Central faces an extra large beginning class.

Hamilton GOP Voting Percentage Increases

AURORA, Neb. (AP)—Election returns from Hamilton County show a developing shift from Democrat to Republican so far as primary voting is concerned. Although no registration is required, the Republican percentage has grown from 65 per cent in 1950 to 85 per cent this year. Hamilton County Democrats said however, the lack of local contests among Democrats occasioned the shift.

Dead Candidate Gets 173 Votes

FAIRBURY, Neb. (AP) — Dwight B. Young, who died after filing for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Jefferson County, but too late for his name to be removed from the ballot, received 173 votes in the primary election. Incumbent Deyo Hughes was nominated on the Republican ticket. Mrs. R. Belle Robertson with 2,092 votes led incumbent County Supt. G. T. Boone, who got 1,031 in the non-political balloting for county superintendent.

Late Planted Wheat Best, Tests Reveal

SIDNEY, Neb. (AP)—Two-year growing tests at Imperial conclusively prove that western Nebraska wheat planted later in the fall develops greater protein content than grain planted early.

That is the word from Leslie F. Sheffield, secretary of the Nebraska Grain Improvement Assn.

In a letter written to Cheyenne County Agent Ivan Liljegren, Sheffield reported that the tests indicate that protein content is much higher in wheat planted in mid or late September than that seeded in Mid-August.

For example, this year's crop planted on Aug. 15 had a yield of 13.4 bushels and a protein content of 11.30. Wheat planted on Oct. 5 of last year yielded 24.8 bushels and showed a protein content of 16.20 per cent.

Delay Recommended

A greater yield was obtained from wheat planted Sept. 15, 32.2 bushels, but the protein content was only 11.10 per cent.

Authorities have recommended a later planting date as a means of avoiding danger of Hessian fly, mosaic, root rot and other diseases. But farmers have been slow to delay planting, believing that early planting will guarantee a good growth for the wheat when it enters the cold winter months.

Sheffield quoted 1953 test figures which indicated that the greatest protein content was obtained in Sept. 25 plantings, 13.7 per cent, and that the greatest yield also came from that planting, 35.9 bushels an acre.

His figures showed that, whereas yields were heavier last year, protein content was greater from all plantings this year.

Ralph Wilson Rites Saturday; Retired Judge, Former Solon

Funeral services for Judge Ralph Parks Wilson, 63, will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at First-Plymouth Congregational Church. Burial will be in Wyuka.

Judge Wilson died in his sleep early Thursday morning at his home at 3017 Georgian Court. He had retired as Lancaster District Court judge on Jan. 26, 1952, because of ill health.

He was a native of Lincoln. His parents were Henry H. and Emma Parks Wilson, pioneer residents of the city. He was married to Calla Johnson of Holdrege on Aug. 14, 1919.

A graduate of Lincoln High School, he received his A. B. degree from the University of Nebraska in 1911 and his Bachelor of Laws degree from the University College of Law in 1913.

Following graduation, he practiced law in Lincoln and served as a professor of law at the University for 25 years.

He was appointed Lancaster County Judge in 1916. He was appointed district judge by Gov. Dwight Griswold in January, 1943, to fill the vacancy left when Judge E. B. Chappell was elected to the State Supreme Court. He was then elected for the two following terms.

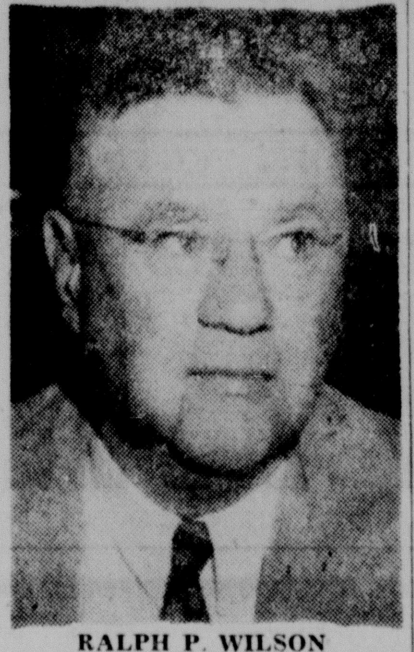
At the time of his retirement, he was handling equity and juvenile court work.

Judge Wilson, in 1953, was appointed by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell as a special assistant to the United States Department of Justice to hear appeals from Nebraska selective service boards in conscientious objector cases.

He served as a member of the Nebraska Legislature in 1923 but was not a candidate for re-election. In 1919 he was assistant attorney general.

Judge Wilson was the first city attorney under the seven-man council government serving from Sept. 1, 1937, until Dec. 7, 1938, when he resigned. He formerly was a member of the Council.

A World War I veteran, Judge Wilson served overseas with the 355th Regiment of the 89th Division.



RALPH P. WILSON

. . . retired District Judge who died of a heart attack. He had been a member of the University of Nebraska Law faculty for 25 years.

Pilot Dusts Bridge To Win Texas Girl's Love

But Helen Won't Talk; She's Mad

LONDON (AP) — Gene Thompson, the free-wheeling Texas pilot who turned from crop dusting to bridge dusting to win a blonde blue-eyed Texas bride, reported Thursday his romance has struck a bad down draft.

Thompson, 30-year-old Korean War veteran from Lubbock, Tex., told the London Daily Express by ship-to-shore telephone from the liner Atlantic on which he is returning home that his girl friend, lovely Helen Brown, "is mad as hell at me."

He said Helen, also from Lubbock, seems to be somewhat put out because he broke a luncheon date with her in order to fly a light plane under the Tower Bridge and London Bridge spanning the River Thames.

Thompson declared he found this somewhat confusing, since he thought she had agreed to marry him if he pulled the stunt.

Eiffel Tower Next?

"Maybe I'll fly under the Eiffel Tower if that'll turn the trick," he said.

"Right now, Helen isn't even speaking to me, but I hope to bring her around before we get to Quebec."

Thompson, 6-foot-3 pilot, met Helen on a student tour of Europe. They boarded the Atlantic at Southampton for the homeward voyage.

Thompson left behind for the Express a "confession" that he was the mystery pilot who thrilled — and scared — London lunch-time crowds with the daring skim under the ancient bridges.

In a radiogram from the ship, Thompson expressed gratitude to the Express for making his story public, especially the part about Helen.

"Thanks for interest in lovely Helen Brown," the message ran.

"Promised to marry me if I'd quit cussing, shave every day and fly under bridges.

'Very Beautiful'

"She's very beautiful and I'm so in love.

"If damn razor didn't hurt so bad I cud mulfill requirements.

"Really no sweat under bridges.

"Was sorty bumpy but no sweat at all for crop duster.

"If boats wuda backed, Ida dun more bridges.

"Man this Helen Brown is the Comstock Lode, just like finding a bird nest on the ground.

"Now going home. Had do something. Time grows short. Pleeze no offense intended. 'Twas very foolish deed. But I love Helen Brown."

Bridges Faces Trial

SAN FRANCISCO (INS)—Federal Judge O. D. Report Says Red Mass Great Fleet Of Navy Vessels

HONG KONG (INS) — The Hong Kong newspaper Kung Sheung claimed that Red China has massed "the largest number of naval craft ever assembled in the area of Port Yulin on Hainan Island in the South China sea.

It said more than 30 "Chinese Communist war vessels," of which 16 were "the modern type allotted the Chinese by the Soviet Far East Fleet" were assembled.

It added that Red Chinese vessels were constantly patrolling the area off the port.

Locusts Attack Eritrea, But It's OK With Natives

ROME (AP)—A wave of locusts five miles wide and three miles deep has invaded Eritrea, former Italian colony in East Africa, the news agency Ansa said.

In Asmara, the capital of the country, streets are piled deep with the flying grasshoppers, Ansa said.

Natives aren't entirely displeased. They consider locusts, lightly toasted, as delicacies.

The locusts were reported to have come from Ethiopia, with which Eritreat has been linked since World War II. British locust specialists are fighting them.

More Rain Hits China

TOKYO (Friday) (AP)—High winds and rain again beset central China where the Yangtze River once more rose to a new high in the tri-city area of Hankow, Hanyang and Wuchang. A Peiping broadcast said the river hit 96.98 feet as high winds whipped the waters.

2nd Man Held In $190,000 Bank Holdup

NEW YORK (AP)—A second suspect was arrested by the FBI Thursday in the $190,319 Long Island bank robbery of last August, believed the nation's biggest cash bank holdup.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Paul Windels Jr. said the new suspect, Ronald Everett Martin, 22, of Queens, N.Y., owned two Cadillacs, a Buick, two airplanes and a motorcycle.

Windels said a third person is being sought.

Martin was arrested as an accomplice on the heels of a federal indictment in Brooklyn against George P. McKinney, 27, who was taken into custody two days ago in Florida.

Lone Gunman

The actual robbery of the Floral Park branch of the Franklin National Bank was accomplished by a lone gunman who kidnaped branch Manager Eric Gronwall from in front of his home.

Gronwall was forced to drive to the bank before it opened for business and the gunman looted its vault.

McKinney was accused in the indictment on three counts of robbery and kidnaping.

Picked up in Jacksonville after a woman recognized his picture in a post office poster, McKinney has denied any knowledge of the robbery.

There has been no word since his arrest of what may have happened to the fortune taken from the bank. Looking for it Thursday, FBI agents opened a lock box in McKinney's name in a Jacksonville bank. They found a thumb tack.

Pilot Dusts Bridge To Win Texas Girl's Love

But Helen Won't Talk; She's Mad

LONDON (AP) — Gene Thompson, the free-wheeling Texas pilot who turned from crop dusting to bridge dusting to win a blonde blue-eyed Texas bride, reported Thursday his romance has struck a bad down draft.

Thompson, 30-year-old Korean War veteran from Lubbock, Tex., told the London Daily Express by ship-to-shore telephone from the liner Atlantic on which he is returning home that his girl friend, lovely Helen Brown, "is mad as hell at me."

He said Helen, also from Lubbock, seems to be somewhat put out because he broke a luncheon date with her in order to fly a light plane under the Tower Bridge and London Bridge spanning the River Thames.

Thompson declared he found this somewhat confusing, since he thought she had agreed to marry him if he pulled the stunt.

Long-Range Program

Bill Dobler reports that for the first time in years, Mayor Clark Jeary and his Council associates have earmarked a sizeable chunk of money, $50,000, for permanent improvements in Lincoln's park system. It is a step forward, we believe. The people of Lincoln have a good park system.

Pioneers Park in particular is one of the most attractive to be found anywhere in these midwestern states.

But what has not been understood and we doubt is understood at this time is that the park system in Lincoln very largely represents gifts of land by public-spirited individuals and the development of these tracts has been at a minimum of expense. There were a lot of PWA and WPA funds from the federal government which went into the development of Pioneers Park. And during those early years, the city of Lincoln was fortunate enough to have the services of the late Chet Ager, a genius when it came to stretching a dollar so that it frequently did the work of two or three.

The people of Lincoln get full dividends from their park system. Whatever has been spent on it has been well spent, and whatever may be spent in the future will represent a fine investment. Parks are important in this day and age in America. Not only are they important but few communities have a better foundation to build upon in the long-range expansion of park systems than the people of Lincoln.

Whose Ox Is Gored?

Washington dispatches state that President Eisenhower appears to be inching into a leading role in the battle for control of Congress despite his avowed plans to remain aloof from local political skirmishes.

It took 10 years for the howl of pain emitted by Republican leaders in 1918 to subside after the late Woodrow Wilson went before the American people and asked them to give him a Democratic Congress to complete his labors. "Them days," of course, were much in advance of any talk of rubber-stamp Congresses, and sech, it will be admitted.

But the position of the two major parties today, occupying reversed roles from those they filled in 1918, furnishes a reminder of the force of the old saw that it makes a difference whose ox is being gored.

Actually there is a lot of difference in the appeal voiced by the late Woodrow Wilson and Mr. Eisenhower's reputed plan to draw a hand in the approaching fall congressional campaign. Woodrow Wilson faced opposition at every point in the road from the Congress elected in the fall of 1918, a Republican Congress. He lost his battle in the field of foreign affairs. Now, throughout the 83rd Congress, time and again Mr. Eisenhower has been saved largely through the votes of Democratic members of the House and the Senate—by Democratic support—when the representatives of the President's own party refused to go along with him. It was Democrats who sustained Mr. Eisenhower in his first great clash with Congress—a plea to Congress by the President not to pass the so-called Bricker amendment. It has been Democrats who provided the President with the necessary votes for approval of his program with the lone exceptions of the farm bill and labor legislation. Mr. Eisenhower has gotten what he has gotten, except in the cases of recent fights over the farm bill and atomic energy legislation, through Democratic votes and not as a result of support of Republican members of Congress. Now, if the news dispatches are correct, Mr. Eisenhower is expressing his appreciation for that support by asking for a Republican Congress.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

You can't have it, coming and going, or can you? One of the chief hopes of the Republican National Committee in strengthening the party's control of the legislative branch of government (Congress) is President Eisenhower's widely-heralded popularity with the American voter. Here in Nebraska the President's reputed blessing had gone to Gov. Bob Crosby, while the late Sen. Hugh Butler's benediction rested upon the shoulders of Carl Curtis.

Those Confusing Undercurrents

Here is the way the Omaha World-Herald, which has become the bible of the most reactionary element within the Republican party, put it: ". . . Now Sen. Butler is gone but before he died, he let it be known that he was supporting conservative Rep. Carl T. Curtis for the Republican nomination for the six-year Senate term. Troughout the campaign his (Sen. Butler's) friends stayed loyally in line for Curtis. They are a very large company. Mr. Curtis' principal opponent, as it turned out, was Gov. Bob Crosby. Although he was handicapped to some degree by assessment troubles, the governor was supported generally by the pro-Eisenhower faction of 1952 and there were hints during the campaign that he had received the tacit blessing of the White House. Mr. Curtis's victory by 20,000 votes or thereabouts was quite convincing and quite illuminating."

★

It is too bad that the Herald editor ran out of breath at that point. There is no doubt that Mr. Curtis's victory over Mr. Crosby by 20,000 votes was convincing. But what was illuminating about it? The tax snarl which the Herald mentioned actually left the governor with a couple of strikes against him had he seen fit to run for renomination for governor. By deciding to run for the Senate, did Gov. Crosby and his friends anticipate that the two strikes already against him were expunged and he was up to bat without their handicap? Still worse, wherein did Gov. Crosby draw any distinction between his candidacy and the candidacy of Rep. Curtis? So far as the voters could discern, they were political twins, thinking the same thoughts, singing the same tunes, and speaking the same words.

Treading Lightly And Softly

Bob passed up one whale of an opportunity to center attention upon Curtis's amazing position with reference to social security. Mr. Curtis himself did not campaign on the basis that, elected to the Senate, it would be his constant effort through the next six years to shape the social security program along the lines he proposed as the chairman of a House subcommittee, a proposal that got nowhere and one which part of the Republican leaders dropped with the alacrity of getting rid of a hot potato. Mr. Crosby was kind — generous beyond words — with Rep. Curtis, and more amazingly the third "C" in this triangle—Terry Carpenter—was even more generous. If there is anything illuminating about Mr. Curtis's victory, its chief significance grows out of the fact he had a much smoother working organization, with ample funds to conduct an aggressive campaign, and the added help of a group of rivals either unwilling or unequipped to hit Curtis where it would really hurt. If the Herald meant to suggest that victory for Curtis was illuminating because the Eisenhower blessing may not be as potent as people make out, then the Herald would have been on much firmer ground by pointing to the recent primary experience of Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, to Estes Kefauver's whaling triumph in Tennessee, and to the results in Kentucky. In those three states the Eisenhower legend really took a licking.

★

They demonstrate, if they demonstrate anything, that some of the shine has worn off. Meanwhile, in Nebraska, the only question facing the people of this state is whether they want Carl Curtis representing them in the Senate for the next six years. Six years of Curtis "soft soap" is a pretty depressing prospect.

Ralph Wilson

Ralph Wilson, a capable lawyer and judge, whose death occurred Thursday, was rooted deeply in the life of Lincoln and of Nebraska. His father, the late H. H. Wilson, for years a member of the faculty of the Law College of the University of Nebraska and a prominent practicing attorney, took an active part in awakening Nebraskans to America's responsibility in the field of international affairs. His son was equally active in civic and political life in this community and in the state.

Ralph Wilson was a man of deep convictions and yet in the spirit of tolerance and understanding he had great respect for the conflicting opinions of his fellow men. In his associations, he was a delightful companion, always interesting, a thoughtful, scholarly observer, a hard worker, a man of energy and purpose. His retirement from the bench came about as a result of ill health. In all that he set out to do, he did with thoroughness, with fine application to the task at hand, a man of the highest integrity, a sense of humor, a forceful personality.

Body And Soul

Comes forward now one high in office with his analysis of an analysis. It is the firm and publicly stated conviction of Vice President Richard Nixon, contemplating the Asiatic situation, that those who speak unknowingly in their claim that a full rice bowl may prevent an unfortunate people from turning to the come-hither ideologies of Communism have made a "very superficial analysis." Conceding that economic well-being has a minor niche in the scheme of things, Mr. Nixon declared further that to say a better living can buy allegiance to our own philosophy is not only inaccurate but an insult to those he terms a proud people with a very great history.

World conflict today entails military conflict, yes, says Mr. Nixon, and economic strife—but also a struggle for the souls of men. We must recognize that factor or our cause is a hopeless one. Communism's greatest weakness is that it denies the individual spiritual dignity of man while we "recognize that spiritual dignity."

These are high-sounding words from an individual well-housed, well-clothed—and well-fed. Hunger and privation among the world's masses are probably the one biggest problem democracy and free men encounter today in their attempt to tilt the scales or even maintain an equal balance with the glib promises of a finer way of living under Iron Curtain treatment. The pangs of hunger gnawing at a man's ribs become a persuader to philosophies almost without rational argument.

It was more than a little curious to note almost side by side with the reports of the vice president's views another story, this one out of Berlin. Communist East Germany was "admitting" troublesome bread and cereal shortages there in the eastern zone.

Post - War Lobbying Now Grim Reminder

One backstage factor that helped put roadblocks in the path of the return-the-German property lobby was a reminder that the German lobby had spent several millions for the return of industrial property after World War I, only to use it against the United States in World War II.

One of those who reminded senators of the facts was Howard Ambruster, author of "Treason's Peace," who recalled the backstage bribery and underhanded lobbying after the first war, as follows:

Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian under Harding, was convicted of taking huge bribes from German agents to permit the return of German property.

Harry Dougherty, attorney general under Harding, was also charged with taking German bribes, but got off, thanks to a hung jury which voted eleven to one for conviction.

In 1922, Sen. William King of Utah introduced a resolution to investigate tha alleged lobby of the new American coal and tar dyes industry which was competing against the Germans. King urged that German property be returned.

Eight years later, a Senate committee brought out the fact that Sen. King had received $1,000 in cash as a campaign contribution from Dr. Eugene R. Pickrell, former govenment employee, then a lobbyist for German dye interests.

One of those working for the return of German property was former Congressman Herman Metz of New York, who stated publicly: "So much is made of this bribing of the dyers . . . The Germans are not doing it; it was their agents here."

During and after World War I various German documents were seized, showing how important a part bribery had played in influencing Washington. On Jan. 22, 1917, German ambassador Count von Berndorff sent a message to the Berlin foreign office asking for authority to pay out $50,000 "as on former occasions" to influence Congress.

Dr. Hugo Schweitzer, head of American Bayer Co., the first big German dye company, handled millions of German funds for bribery and even devised the plan to buy the New York Evening Mail as a German organ. Dr. Edward Rumley, a conspirator in buying the Mail, later went to jail, but is now one of the most active propagandists in the U.S. His method of operating today is through the committee for constitutional government.

Sen. Copeland of New York, also eloquent in pleading for the return of German property, was receiving sizable fees for the use of his name and voice in press and radio advertising for two of I.G. Farben's partners in the United States.

How much was spent by German-Swiss combines to influence Congress this time remains to be seen, but it was plenty.

Ex-Veep Expects To Regain Senate Seat

WASHINGTON—The Hon. Alben W. Barkley, sprucily attired in suit and shirt of television blue and a hard straw hat, blew into the capital for a few hours Tuesday to exhort Kentucky Democrats to hasten home and man the barricades with him. "We'll win," he told them.

The Kentucky primary vote lends support to the ex-veep's confidence that he can regain his Senate seat. Democrats gave him 150,000 votes as compared to about 50,000 rolled up by Republicans for incumbent John Sherman Cooper.

It is true that Cooper's two victories have been won not with Republican votes of which there aren't enough in Kentucky, but with support from Democrats. These apostates, Barkley feels sure, will not stray when the Barkley name appears in opposition to Cooper.

☆ ☆ ☆

The former vice president looked hale and cheerful when he met with his associates at a 7:30 breakfast. He was up, dressed and waiting impatiently when Sen. Earle Clements telephoned his Connecticut Avenue apartment shortly before seven to arouse him.

Barkley is 76 years old—the age factor which led to his rejection for the Democratic nomination for President in 1952. It is not a factor which daunts that party locally.

Their Senate campaign this fall will feature two octogenarians—Senators Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island, 86, and Matt Neely of West Virginia, 80—and two other septuagenarians—Senators James Murray of Montana, 78, and Guy Gillette of Iowa, 75.

A Democratic challenger in Wyoming, former Sen. Joseph O'Mahoney, who is trying to regain his old seat, will cross the 70-mark a few days after election.

The interesting thing is that the party only wishes all its candidates had as good a chance to win.

☆ ☆ ☆

Sen. Green is a liberal aristocrat who successfully achieved an alliance of unusual durability with the products of city machine whose strength is largely among working people. J. Howard McGrath, former attorney general, was formerly his junior in the Senate. Now it is John Pastore, whose Italian descent reflects the growing political power of the group in New England.

Sen. Neely, whose flowery, quotation-studded oratory is one of the features of the Senate when he is in form, is a rarely beaten, lifelong politician. His state is normally Democratic.

Sen. Murray, another wealthy liberal, usually has to defend himself against a well-organized conservative drive and was jittery early this year, but feels that the trend now in the farms and mines of Montana is Democratic.

Sen. Gillette, like Cooper, gets elected in a state normally committed to the other party because he has a big appeal to opposition voters. He expects farm-labor trends to win for him again in Iowa.

Sen. O'Mahoney is canvassing the small towns of Wyoming and he is likewise optimistic, though it is probable that the state situation has not yet jelled.

Berlin An Emblem Of Current History

BERLIN—Europe this summer is crawling with tourists of every kind and description, from Boy Scouts hiking with their rucksacks to Texas millionaires in their private planes. This, however, is perhaps the most exciting city in the world.

It is in the first place a miracle that it exists at all, an island in the Communist sea with a narrow avenue of access to the West. But that it should reconstruct itself, its industries exporting goods to every part of the world with deliveries almost 100 per cent on schedule, is truly amazing. Much of the impetus came from one man—the late Mayor Ernest Reuter, who worked with great courage and intelligence through the dark days of the blockade to save Berlin as a free city.

There are many things that make Berlin a unique city, but first and foremost is its division between East and West. Here you can pass from one world into another, and the contrast could not be sharper. Fifteen minutes from your hotel in West Berlin and you have gone behind the Iron Curtain in East Berlin.

There the pretentiousness of the big blocks of apartment houses along Stalin Allee (Avenue) somehow underscores the grim atmosphere of what the Communists put forward as a showpiece.

While some visitors seem to have the idea that it is dangerous, actually a tour around East Berlin is a lot safer, statistically speaking, than driving on a crowded highway in America on a holiday week end.

This tour is a bargain, too. In West Berlin you change 20 West German marks—a little less than $5—into 93 East German marks. This will cover dinner with quite large amounts of real Russian caviar, German or Soviet champagne and the opera or a variety show afterward. The cost of a car and English-speaking driver for the evening provided by the hotel in West Berlin is $12.

The real drama today lies, of course, in the demonstration of the courage of the human spirit that defies the past and seeks to rebuild around such symbols as the free university and the freedom bell, which was a gift from the United States in tribute to the stalwart resistance of Berlin to the Comunist blockade.

The balance between the horrors of the past and the promise of tomorow is still unresolved, as it is in a sense unresolved in the German character and in the struggle still going on. Berlin is a fascinating battleground every now and then illuminated by such an episode as the case of Otto John.

As to the plain, garden variety of tourist attractions, Berlin has those, too. The collection of paintings now in the Dahlem Museum not far from American headquarters is one of the finest in the world.

If you want a beach, you can go to the nearby Lake of Wannsee. Berlin has night clubs and excellent restaurants. The zoo still in process of reconstruction, is a study of both animal and human nature.

Even at present, when the Communists are playing it coy and cozy, about 10,000 refugees a month cross over into West Berlin, which is a measure of the attraction that the West and this city in particular exert. While many of these refugees go on to West Germany, a number remain and it makes a problem for the city.

Despite the influx, unemployment is for the first time under 200,000 and the curve of production is going steadily up.

The Communists would like nothing better than to have the West forget this city and what it means, just as they seem now bent on having us ignore or forget the long-term objective of Communist imperialism. But to see Berlin is to understand more clearly the history of our time.

Mumps Could Interfere With Fair Plans

By MONA B. PARKER

With county fair and rodeo time near at hand, "Granpappy Sixswallers" reminds those of the Bertrand community that now would be a good time to select their garden exhibits. "This part of the fair is the one Ol' Granpappy likes the best. Maybe it's because I like to eat so well."

There is so much to do yet before county fair that Mom shudders to think of a 4-H'er taking time out. Sister has to work out her club calf, make her school outfit, line up her demonstration, complete record books before pre-fair days. A week out for mumps, and she'd really be rushed."

He then explained the philosophy and value of the "Hoosier Schoolmaster's" doctrine of the "extra lick."

However, with the little woman gone, he's already tired of his own cooking and cafe food, "the house seems to get dirtier by the minute, my socks are getting holes in them, I'm way behind on my laundry and the house is as empty as the inside of the Sandy Point bell buoy." He has company of a sort, but "Spike, the intrepid springer spaniel, makes a poor dinner companion. Keeps spilling his food over his chops and conversation with him is at a very minimum."

Another Job

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This is not intended to be a bouquet but simply a statement of fact. I have been a lifelong reader of The Star, in fact would not be without it. Why? Many reasons, and one of them is the great pleasure and profit I get from the editorial page. May I add that I am not alone in this. I have heard hundreds so express themselves.

I will always give you credit for the defeat of Edward R. Burke years ago. You kept at it day after day until the deed was done.

Your article of Monday, August 9, was fine. And now there is another job for you. Carl Curtis is out in front, but just wait until you lay open the facts—"call 'em as you see 'em." I have watched eagerly to see what Curtis had to say about his ideas on social security, etc. Let us hope more people will vote in November, and that Mr. Curtis may find he will not have the walk-away he envisions.

Just Promises

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Our congressmen go up and down the state and tell the people they are for the President's program and that they want to help balance the budget and cut government expenditures. But when it comes to the pork barrel and handouts, they vote 100 per cent. How can the budget be balanced when Congress authorizes more expenditures? Their promises to the people are not worth one iota, so why return them to Congress?

The postal employees asked for a five per cent raise, and our men were so generous that they voted 100 per cent for a seven per cent raise. Let's put someone in Congress whose word counts for something.

Chinese Students

New York City, N. Y.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: We are a group of Chinese students and have written to President Eisenhower petitioning him to revoke the order forbidding Chinese students in the field of technical sciences to leave the United States.

We have been engaged in the study of engineering, medical or natural sciences for various lengths of time in this country. After the completion of certain stages of academic studies, some of us have applied for exit permits and invariably have been refused. In the seeking of knowledge and wisdom, some of us have had to leave beloved families behind for separations that have already lasted seven years. In these years of absence from home, all of us have suffered an ever-increasing agony that verges on despair, since no immediate return can be foreseen.

Having been well received by those we have met in the United States, and having observed first-hand a democracy at work, under which human rights are held sacred, we feel all the more that preventing us from leaving this country can at best be attributed to a temporary expediency, especially when those concerned are guilty of no crime and the sole reason for restraining their departure is their acquisition of technical training — a training which involves no codes of secrecy.

Recently we have learned from the newspapers that 15 Chinese students are to be released, and we sincerely hope President Eisenhower will make it possible for any Chinese student to be allowed to leave when he so chooses, and we have petitioned the President to revoke the restraining order. We believe a firmer bond of friendship and understanding will thus be established between our two peoples.

Smiles returned we'll surely see.
Since good will we bargain for,
Good of will we have to be.
If we speak the cheerful word,
Cheerful speech will then be heard.

We are imitators all.
Frowns with frowns are promptly met.
Wheresoe'er we go to call
We take with us what we'll get.
Speak in anger and we'll be
Answered just as angrily.

University Tests Prove Glass Jars Ideal for Use in Home and Locker Freezing

3-Year Study Reveals Important Advantages of Home Canning Jars in Freezing Fruits, Vegetables, Meat and Poultry

What may come as a surprise and amount to a new discovery to many people, is seen in the striking advantages of glass jars for the home freezing of foods, as established by recent findings at the University of Massachusetts (Massachusetts Agricultural Experiment Station, Bulletin No. 465, June, 1952).*

While glass jars have long been familiar to home canners the country over, and have been used in the freezing of foods for several years, the fact that they are equally well suited for the latter purpose has not been widely known. These findings establish a number of essential characteristics and properties for a satisfactory package for home and locker frozen foods, all of which are afforded by regular home canning glass jars.

Glass containers have the advantage of being moisture-vapor-proof, which prevents freezer burn or the drying of foods. They are likewise leak-proof, preventing dripping of syrup. Glass containers have the further value of protecting foods from absorbing and giving off flavors and odors. They do not impart flavor or odor to the food, nor do they absorb grease, oil or water. Still another advantage of glass containers is that they are durable and may be re-used many times as they generally are in home canning. Then, too, unlike other types of containers and packaging, glass is always clean, never messy, does not stick to foods and contents are easily identified even without a label. All these advantages add up to a perfect container for the freezing of foods in home freezer cabinets, freezer lockers and in the freezer compartments of refrigerators.

NO BREAKAGE

Some people have questioned the use of glass jars for freezing because of a supposed tendency to break at low temperatures. Not so, says the University's Bulletin: "Technically speaking, there is no available evidence to the effect that the brittleness of such containers is increased at freezing temperatures."

Economy and convenience are other advantages to be realized by the use of glass containers for freezing foods. This is particularly true, it is pointed out, of home canners who are beginning to employ freezing as a means of food preservation, either entirely or as a supplementary method.

ATLAS JARS

ATLAS Jars have been used for more than fifty years by home canners. These have all the advantages noted by the University Bulletin.

In addition, ATLAS Jars are double tested for strength and individually inspected for clearness and perfect workmanship. They come in all sizes and, with ATLAS Arc-Lids, make a perfect package for freezing as well as canning.

Long-Range Program

Bill Dobler reports that for the first time in years, Mayor Clark Jeary and his Council associates have earmarked a sizeable chunk of money, $50,000, for permanent improvements in Lincoln's park system. It is a step forward, we believe. The people of Lincoln have a good park system.

Pioneers Park in particular is one of the most attractive to be found anywhere in these midwestern states.

But what has not been understood and we doubt is understood at this time is that the park system in Lincoln very largely represents gifts of land by public-spirited individuals and the development of these tracts has been at a minimum of expense. There were a lot of PWA and WPA funds from the federal government which went into the development of Pioneers Park. And during those early years, the city of Lincoln was fortunate enough to have the services of the late Chet Ager, a genius when it came to stretching a dollar so that it frequently did the work of two or three.

The people of Lincoln get full dividends from their park system. Whatever has been spent on it has been well spent, and whatever may be spent in the future will represent a fine investment. Parks are important in this day and age in America. Not only are they important but few communities have a better foundation to build upon in the long-range expansion of park systems than the people of Lincoln.

Whose Ox Is Gored?

Washington dispatches state that President Eisenhower appears to be inching into a leading role in the battle for control of Congress despite his avowed plans to remain aloof from local political skirmishes.

It took 10 years for the howl of pain emitted by Republican leaders in 1918 to subside after the late Woodrow Wilson went before the American people and asked them to give him a Democratic Congress to complete his labors. "Them days," of course, were much in advance of any talk of rubber-stamp Congresses, and sech, it will be admitted.

But the position of the two major parties today, occupying reversed roles from those they filled in 1918, furnishes a reminder of the force of the old saw that it makes a difference whose ox is being gored.

Actually there is a lot of difference in the appeal voiced by the late Woodrow Wilson and Mr. Eisenhower's reputed plan to draw a hand in the approaching fall congressional campaign. Woodrow Wilson faced opposition at every point in the road from the Congress elected in the fall of 1918, a Republican Congress. He lost his battle in the field of foreign affairs. Now, throughout the 83rd Congress, time and again Mr. Eisenhower has been saved largely through the votes of Democratic members of the House and the Senate—by Democratic support—when the representatives of the President's own party refused to go along with him. It was Democrats who sustained Mr. Eisenhower in his first great clash with Congress—a plea to Congress by the President not to pass the so-called Bricker amendment. It has been Democrats who provided the President with the necessary votes for approval of his program with the lone exceptions of the farm bill and labor legislation. Mr. Eisenhower has gotten what he has gotten, except in the cases of recent fights over the farm bill and atomic energy legislation, through Democratic votes and not as a result of support of Republican members of Congress. Now, if the news dispatches are correct, Mr. Eisenhower is expressing his appreciation for that support by asking for a Republican Congress.

Of Men And Things

By J. E. LAWRENCE

You can't have it, coming and going, or can you? One of the chief hopes of the Republican National Committee in strengthening the party's control of the legislative branch of government (Congress) is President Eisenhower's widely-heralded popularity with the American voter. Here in Nebraska the President's reputed blessing had gone to Gov. Bob Crosby, while the late Sen. Hugh Butler's benediction rested upon the shoulders of Carl Curtis.

Those Confusing Undercurrents

Here is the way the Omaha World-Herald, which has become the bible of the most reactionary element within the Republican party, put it: ". . . Now Sen. Butler is gone but before he died, he let it be known that he was supporting conservative Rep. Carl T. Curtis for the Republican nomination for the six-year Senate term. Troughout the campaign his (Sen. Butler's) friends stayed loyally in line for Curtis. They are a very large company. Mr. Curtis' principal opponent, as it turned out, was Gov. Bob Crosby. Although he was handicapped to some degree by assessment troubles, the governor was supported generally by the pro-Eisenhower faction of 1952 and there were hints during the campaign that he had received the tacit blessing of the White House. Mr. Curtis's victory by 20,000 votes or thereabouts was quite convincing and quite illuminating."

★

It is too bad that the Herald editor ran out of breath at that point. There is no doubt that Mr. Curtis's victory over Mr. Crosby by 20,000 votes was convincing. But what was illuminating about it? The tax snarl which the Herald mentioned actually left the governor with a couple of strikes against him had he seen fit to run for renomination for governor. By deciding to run for the Senate, did Gov. Crosby and his friends anticipate that the two strikes already against him were expunged and he was up to bat without their handicap? Still worse, wherein did Gov. Crosby draw any distinction between his candidacy and the candidacy of Rep. Curtis? So far as the voters could discern, they were political twins, thinking the same thoughts, singing the same tunes, and speaking the same words.

Treading Lightly And Softly

Bob passed up one whale of an opportunity to center attention upon Curtis's amazing position with reference to social security. Mr. Curtis himself did not campaign on the basis that, elected to the Senate, it would be his constant effort through the next six years to shape the social security program along the lines he proposed as the chairman of a House subcommittee, a proposal that got nowhere and one which part of the Republican leaders dropped with the alacrity of getting rid of a hot potato. Mr. Crosby was kind — generous beyond words — with Rep. Curtis, and more amazingly the third "C" in this triangle—Terry Carpenter—was even more generous. If there is anything illuminating about Mr. Curtis's victory, its chief significance grows out of the fact he had a much smoother working organization, with ample funds to conduct an aggressive campaign, and the added help of a group of rivals either unwilling or unequipped to hit Curtis where it would really hurt. If the Herald meant to suggest that victory for Curtis was illuminating because the Eisenhower blessing may not be as potent as people make out, then the Herald would have been on much firmer ground by pointing to the recent primary experience of Gov. Allan Shivers of Texas, to Estes Kefauver's whaling triumph in Tennessee, and to the results in Kentucky. In those three states the Eisenhower legend really took a licking.

★

They demonstrate, if they demonstrate anything, that some of the shine has worn off. Meanwhile, in Nebraska, the only question facing the people of this state is whether they want Carl Curtis representing them in the Senate for the next six years. Six years of Curtis "soft soap" is a pretty depressing prospect.

Ralph Wilson

Ralph Wilson, a capable lawyer and judge, whose death occurred Thursday, was rooted deeply in the life of Lincoln and of Nebraska. His father, the late H. H. Wilson, for years a member of the faculty of the Law College of the University of Nebraska and a prominent practicing attorney, took an active part in awakening Nebraskans to America's responsibility in the field of international affairs. His son was equally active in civic and political life in this community and in the state.

Ralph Wilson was a man of deep convictions and yet in the spirit of tolerance and understanding he had great respect for the conflicting opinions of his fellow men. In his associations, he was a delightful companion, always interesting, a thoughtful, scholarly observer, a hard worker, a man of energy and purpose. His retirement from the bench came about as a result of ill health. In all that he set out to do, he did with thoroughness, with fine application to the task at hand, a man of the highest integrity, a sense of humor, a forceful personality.

Body And Soul

Comes forward now one high in office with his analysis of an analysis. It is the firm and publicly stated conviction of Vice President Richard Nixon, contemplating the Asiatic situation, that those who speak unknowingly in their claim that a full rice bowl may prevent an unfortunate people from turning to the come-hither ideologies of Communism have made a "very superficial analysis." Conceding that economic well-being has a minor niche in the scheme of things, Mr. Nixon declared further that to say a better living can buy allegiance to our own philosophy is not only inaccurate but an insult to those he terms a proud people with a very great history.

World conflict today entails military conflict, yes, says Mr. Nixon, and economic strife—but also a struggle for the souls of men. We must recognize that factor or our cause is a hopeless one. Communism's greatest weakness is that it denies the individual spiritual dignity of man while we "recognize that spiritual dignity."

These are high-sounding words from an individual well-housed, well-clothed—and well-fed. Hunger and privation among the world's masses are probably the one biggest problem democracy and free men encounter today in their attempt to tilt the scales or even maintain an equal balance with the glib promises of a finer way of living under Iron Curtain treatment. The pangs of hunger gnawing at a man's ribs become a persuader to philosophies almost without rational argument.

It was more than a little curious to note almost side by side with the reports of the vice president's views another story, this one out of Berlin. Communist East Germany was "admitting" troublesome bread and cereal shortages there in the eastern zone.

Post - War Lobbying Now Grim Reminder

One backstage factor that helped put roadblocks in the path of the return-the-German property lobby was a reminder that the German lobby had spent several millions for the return of industrial property after World War I, only to use it against the United States in World War II.

One of those who reminded senators of the facts was Howard Ambruster, author of "Treason's Peace," who recalled the backstage bribery and underhanded lobbying after the first war, as follows:

Thomas W. Miller, alien property custodian under Harding, was convicted of taking huge bribes from German agents to permit the return of German property.

Harry Dougherty, attorney general under Harding, was also charged with taking German bribes, but got off, thanks to a hung jury which voted eleven to one for conviction.

In 1922, Sen. William King of Utah introduced a resolution to investigate tha alleged lobby of the new American coal and tar dyes industry which was competing against the Germans. King urged that German property be returned.

Eight years later, a Senate committee brought out the fact that Sen. King had received $1,000 in cash as a campaign contribution from Dr. Eugene R. Pickrell, former govenment employee, then a lobbyist for German dye interests.

One of those working for the return of German property was former Congressman Herman Metz of New York, who stated publicly: "So much is made of this bribing of the dyers .. . The Germans are not doing it; it was their agents here."

During and after World War I various German documents were seized, showing how important a part bribery had played in influencing Washington. On Jan. 22, 1917, German ambassador Count von Berndorff sent a message to the Berlin foreign office asking for authority to pay out $50,000 "as on former occasions" to influence Congress.

Dr. Hugo Schweitzer, head of American Bayer Co., the first big German dye company, handled millions of German funds for bribery and even devised the plan to buy the New York Evening Mail as a German organ. Dr. Edward Rumley, a conspirator in buying the Mail, later went to jail, but is now one of the most active propagandists in the U.S. His method of operating today is through the committee for constitutional government.

Sen. Copeland of New York, also eloquent in pleading for the return of German property, was receiving sizable fees for the use of his name and voice in press and radio advertising for two of I.G. Farben's partners in the United States.

How much was spent by German-Swiss combines to influence Congress this time remains to be seen, but it was plenty.

Ex-Veep Expects To Regain Senate Seat

WASHINGTON—The Hon. Alben W. Barkley, sprucily attired in suit and shirt of television blue and a hard straw hat, blew into the capital for a few hours Tuesday to exhort Kentucky Democrats to hasten home and man the barricades with him. "We'll win," he told them.

The Kentucky primary vote lends support to the ex-veep's confidence that he can regain his Senate seat. Democrats gave him 150,000 votes as compared to about 50,000 rolled up by Republicans for incumbent John Sherman Cooper.

It is true that Cooper's two victories have been won not with Republican votes of which there aren't enough in Kentucky, but with support from Democrats. These apostates, Barkley feels sure, will not stray when the Barkley name appears in opposition to Cooper.

☆ ☆ ☆

The former vice president looked hale and cheerful when he met with his associates at a 7:30 breakfast. He was up, dressed and waiting impatiently when Sen. Earle Clements telephoned his Connecticut Avenue apartment shortly before seven to arouse him.

Barkley is 76 years old—the age factor which led to his rejection for the Democratic nomination for President in 1952. It is not a factor which daunts that party locally.

Their Senate campaign this fall will feature two octogenarians—Senators Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island, 86, and Matt Neely of West Virginia, 80—and two other septuagenarians—Senators James Murray of Montana, 78, and Guy Gillette of Iowa, 75.

A Democratic challenger in Wyoming, former Sen. Joseph O'Mahoney, who is trying to regain his old seat, will cross the 70-mark a few days after election.

The interesting thing is that the party only wishes all its candidates had as good a chance to win.

☆ ☆ ☆

Sen. Green is a liberal aristocrat who successfully achieved an alliance of unusual durability with the products of city machine whose strength is largely among working people. J. Howard McGrath, former attorney general, was formerly his junior in the Senate. Now it is John Pastore, whose Italian descent reflects the growing political power of the group in New England.

Sen. Neely, whose flowery, quotation-studded oratory is one of the features of the Senate when he is in form, is a rarely beaten, lifelong politician. His state is normally Democratic.

Sen. Murray, another wealthy liberal, usually has to defend himself against a well-organized conservative drive and was jittery early this year, but feels that the trend now in the farms and mines of Montana is Democratic.

Sen. Gillette, like Cooper, gets elected in a state normally committed to the other party because he has a big appeal to opposition voters. He expects farm-labor trends to win for him again in Iowa.

Sen. O'Mahoney is canvassing the small towns of Wyoming and he is likewise optimistic, though it is probable that the state situation has not yet jelled.

Berlin An Emblem Of Current History

BERLIN—Europe this summer is crawling with tourists of every kind and description, from Boy Scouts hiking with their rucksacks to Texas millionaires in their private planes. This, however, is perhaps the most exciting city in the world.

It is in the first place a miracle that it exists at all, an island in the Communist sea with a narrow avenue of access to the West. But that it should reconstruct itself, its industries exporting goods to every part of the world with deliveries almost 100 per cent on schedule, is truly amazing. Much of the impetus came from one man—the late Mayor Ernest Reuter, who worked with great courage and intelligence through the dark days of the blockade to save Berlin as a free city.

There are many things that make Berlin a unique city, but first and foremost is its division between East and West. Here you can pass from one world into another, and the contrast could not be sharper. Fifteen minutes from your hotel in West Berlin and you have gone behind the Iron Curtain in East Berlin.'

There the pretentiousness of the big blocks of apartment houses along Stalin Allee (Avenue) somehow underscores the grim atmosphere of what the Communists put forward as a showpiece.

While some visitors seem to have the idea that it is dangerous, actually a tour around East Berlin is a lot safer, statistically speaking, than driving on a crowded highway in America on a holiday week end.

This tour is a bargain, too. In West Berlin you change 20 West German marks—a little less than $5—into 93 East German marks. This will cover dinner with quite large amounts of real Russian caviar, German or Soviet champagne and the opera or a variety show afterward. The cost of a car and English-speaking driver for the evening provided by the hotel in West Berlin is $12.

The real drama today lies, of course, in the demonstration of the courage of the human spirit that defies the past and seeks to rebuild around such symbols as the free university and the freedom bell, which was a gift from the United States in tribute to the stalwart resistance of Berlin to the Comunist blockade.

The balance between the horrors of the past and the promise of tomorow is still unresolved, as it is in a sense unresolved in the German character and in the struggle still going on. Berlin is a fascinating battleground every now and then illuminated by such an episode as the case of Otto John.

As to the plain, garden variety of tourist attractions, Berlin has those, too. The collection of paintings now in the Dahlem Museum not far from American headquarters is one of the finest in the world.

If you want a beach, you can go to the nearby Lake of Wannsee. Berlin has night clubs and excellent restaurants. The zoo still in process of reconstruction, is a study of both animal and human nature.

Even at present, when the Communists are playing it coy and cozy, about 10,000 refugees a month cross over into West Berlin, which is a measure of the attraction that the West and this city in particular exert. While many of these refugees go on to West Germany, a number remain and it makes a problem for the city.

Despite the influx, unemployment is for the first time under 200,000 and the curve of production is going steadily up.

The Communists would like nothing better than to have the West forget this city and what it means, just as they seem now bent on having us ignore or forget the long-term objective of Communist imperialism. But to see Berlin is to understand more clearly the history of our time.

Mumps Could Interfere With Fair Plans

By MONA B. PARKER

With county fair and rodeo time near at hand, "Granpappy Sixswallers" reminds those of the Bertrand community that now would be a good time to select their garden exhibits. "This part of the fair is the one Ol' Granpappy likes the best. Maybe it's because I like to eat so well."

☆ ☆ ☆

The Jim Seberger family of Dawson County like many another family has been exposed to mumps, and Mrs. Seberger, columnist for the Herald, is figuring out all the if's and but's of the possibility of an epidemic among her brood. "Every day seems a reprieve, and yet it could go on for 10 days before anybody succumbs, or nobody. There is so much to do yet before county fair that Mom shudders to think of a 4-H'er taking time out. Sister has to work out her club calf, make her school outfit, line up her demonstration, complete record books before pre-fair days. A week out for mumps, and she'd really be rushed."

☆ ☆ ☆

Fred A. Marsh, veteran farmer and columnist of the Fairview neighborhood near Archer had a word of caution for the rural folk on eleventh hour diligence in their irrigation. He told of several neighbors and their past experiences with heavy loss because of stopping their pumps too soon. "After waging a desperate fight with dry weather for several weeks," he warns, 'it simply doesn't pay to lie down when victory is plainly in sight.

He then explained the philosophy and value of the "Hoosier Schoolmaster's" doctrine of the "extra lick."

The Hebron Journal-Register sends notice to all Texans on the one-pound, five-ounce tomato measuring 15 inches and grown by Local Gardener Walter Hendershot, adding that it could be "that some of that Texas dirt blown into the Midwest this spring had something to do with it."

Tomato plants in David City make up numerically what they lack in size. Of three plants grown by Mrs. Etta Hascall, one has 24 tomatoes, another 48, and the third plant has the remarkable total of 50.

☆ ☆ ☆

The corn crop is doing well in Utica, if one observation from the Sun is any indication . . .

"At Stromsburg the jail is also the band stand. Prisoners should find it easy to 'face the music' in that city."

If tax collections are a little slow in Cuming, County, it can't be blamed on the taxpayers. Nor can aspersions be cast on conscientious and hard-working county officials there . . .

Otto Lierman of Beemer went into the county treasurer's office, fortified with his 1949 tax receipt and secure in the knowledge that he had paid his taxes for that year. However, there was the card saying that they were due. County Treasurer Leo J. Schmitt was puzzled, too, until he noticed that while the card involved 1949 taxes, it had been mailed five years ago. Mr. Lierman received it in his mail only last week.

M. A. Brown, Stapleton editor, took a look at the vital statistics report showing that during 1953 there were 26 babies born to Logan County parents, and of this number 19 were girls and seven, boys. "Looks as if the womenfolks are getting a good start toward over-running Logan County," he moaned.

Terry Barton of the Crete News is currently bothered with an affliction that oft strikes the male of the species about this time of year—a temporary state of summertime bachelorhood, as it were. He describes bachelorhood itself as "an estate which single men have and don't want and married don't have and think they want." However, with the little woman gone, he's already tired of his own cooking and cafe food, "the house seems to get dirtier by the minute, my socks are getting holes in them, I'm way behind on my laundry and the house is as empty as the inside of the Sandy Point bell buoy." He has company of a sort, but "Spike, the intrepid springer spaniel, makes a poor dinner companion. Keeps spilling his food over his chops and conversation with him is at a very minimum."

Another Job

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: This is not intended to be a bouquet but simply a statement of fact. I have been a lifelong reader of The Star, in fact would not be without it. Why? Many reasons, and one of them is the great pleasure and profit I get from the editorial page. May I add that I am not alone in this. I have heard hundreds so express themselves.

I will always give you credit for the defeat of Edward R. Burke years ago. You kept at it day after day until the deed was done.

Your article of Monday, August 9, was fine. And now there is another job for you. Carl Curtis is out in front, but just wait until you lay open the facts—"call 'em as you see 'em." I have watched eagerly to see what Curtis had to say about his ideas on social security, etc. Let us hope more people will vote in November, and that Mr. Curtis may find he will not have the walk-away he envisions.

Just Promises

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Our congressmen go up and down the state and tell the people they are for the President's program and that they want to help balance the budget and cut government expenditures. But when it comes to the pork barrel and handouts, they vote 100 per cent. How can the budget be balanced when Congress authorizes more expenditures? Their promises to the people are not worth one iota, so why return them to Congress?

The postal employees asked for a five per cent raise, and our men were so generous that they voted 100 per cent for a seven per cent raise. Let's put someone in Congress whose word counts for something.

Chinese Students

New York City, N. Y.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: We are a group of Chinese students and have written to President Eisenhower petitioning him to revoke the order forbidding Chinese students in the field of technical sciences to leave the United States.

We have been engaged in the study of engineering, medical or natural sciences for various lengths of time in this country. After the completion of certain stages of academic studies, some of us have applied for exit permits and invariably have been refused. In the seeking of knowledge and wisdom, some of us have had to leave beloved families behind for separations that have already lasted seven years. In these years of absence from home, all of us have suffered an ever-increasing agony that verges on despair, since no immediate return can be foreseen.

Having been well received by those we have met in the United States, and having observed first-hand a democracy at work, under which human rights are held sacred, we feel all the more that preventing us from leaving this country can at best be attributed to a temporary expediency, especially when those concerned are guilty of no crime and the sole reason for restraining their departure is their acquisition of technical training—a training which involves no codes of secrecy.

Recently we have learned from the newspapers that 15 Chinese students are to be released, and we sincerely hope President Eisenhower will make it possible for any Chinese student to be allowed to leave when he so chooses, and we have petitioned the President to revoke the restraining order. We believe a firmer bond of friendship and understanding will thus be established between our two peoples.

IMITATORS

If we smile a little more,
Smiles returned we'll surely see.
Since good will we bargain for,
Good of will we have to be.
If we speak the cheerful word,
Cheerful speech will then be heard.

We are imitators all.
Frowns with frowns are promptly met.
Wheresoe'er we go to call
We take with us what we'll get.
Speak in anger and we'll be
Answered just as angrily.

3-Year Study Reveals Important Advantages of Home Canning Jars in Freezing Fruits, Vegetables, Meat and Poultry

What may come as a surprise and amount to a new discovery to many people, is seen in the striking advantages of glass jars for the home freezing of foods, as established by recent findings at the University of Massachusetts (Massachusetts Agricultural Experiment Station, Bulletin No. 465, June, 1952).*

While glass jars have long been familiar to home canners the country over, and have been used in the freezing of foods for several years, the fact that they are equally well suited for the latter purpose has not been widely known. These findings establish a number of essential characteristics and properties for a satisfactory package for home and locker frozen foods, all of which are afforded by regular home canning glass jars:

Glass containers have the advantage of being moisture-vapor-proof, which prevents freezer burn or the drying of foods. They are likewise leak-proof, preventing dripping of syrup. Glass containers have the further value of protecting foods from absorbing and giving off flavors and odors. They do not impart flavor or odor to the food, nor do they absorb grease, oil or water. Still another advantage of glass containers is that they are durable and may be re-used many times as they generally are in home canning. Then, too, unlike other types of containers and packaging, glass is always clean, never messy, does not stick to foods and contents are easily identified even without a label. All these advantages add up to a perfect container for the freezing of foods in home freezer cabinets, freezer lockers and in the freezer compartments of refrigerators.

NO BREAKAGE

Some people have questioned the use of glass jars for freezing because of a supposed tendency to break at low temperatures. Not so, says the University's Bulletin: "Technically speaking, there is no available evidence to the effect that the brittleness of such containers is increased at freezing temperatures."

Economy and convenience are other advantages to be realized by the use of glass containers for freezing foods. This is particularly true, it is pointed out, of home canners who are beginning to employ freezing as a means of food preservation, either entirely or as a supplementary method.

ATLAS JARS

ATLAS Jars have been used for more than fifty years by home canners. These jars have all the advantages noted in the University Bulletin.

In addition, ATLAS Jars are double tested for strength and individually inspected for clearness and perfect workmanship. They come in all sizes and, with ATLAS Arc-Lids, make a perfect package for freezing as well as canning.

Near 230,000 Ballots Cast In Primary

4 Sandhills Precincts Missing

By the Associated Press

Complete unofficial returns from all but four small precincts in northwest Nebraska's Sandhills, pushed the total number of ballots cast in the primary election to almost 230,000, an Associated Press tabulation showed.

The total number of votes cast in spirited races for U.S. senator, full term, reached 229,752 with complete returns in from 2,106 counties. The four outstanding precincts in remote sections of Cherry and Sheridan Counties have enough votes to push the total past 230,000 if they are cast, but few more than that.

The precincts are Enlo and Middle Prong which lie along Cherry County's southern border, of Sheridan County. The Sheridan County clerk's office said these two precincts normally turn in about 100 votes, although they have more eligible voters.

No Changes

Tabulation of stragglers did not materially change the balance of any of the races.

The Republican senatorial primary drew a total of 158,665 votes and its opposite number on the Democrats side attracted 71,087 votes.

Of the Republican total 62,525 went to Rep. Carl T. Curtis, winner of the nomination. Gov. Robert B. Crosby got 41,895. Other totals: Terry Carpenter 30,116; David T. Martin 18,018; James L. Harrison 2,726, Walter A. Nielsen 2,509; and John P. Overgaard 976.

The Democratic total was split only three ways. Former Gov. Keith Neville, the winner, had 37,169. Joseph W. Benesch got 18,028 and Edward Dosek got 15,890.

The gubernatorial primary ran a little lighter on the Republican side but heavier on the Democratic side.

Heaton's Total Down

Democratic gubernatorial votes totaled 72,211, of which 37,793 went to William Ritchie, the winner, 17,923 to Patrick J. Heaton, the runner up, 12,467 to Andrew Swanson and 3,948 to Mabel Fossler of Lincoln. Heaton's total was revised downward slightly by adjustment of an earlier tabulating error.

The seven-man Republican gubernatorial primary drew 150,164 votes of which 88,793 went to Victor E. Anderson, the winner

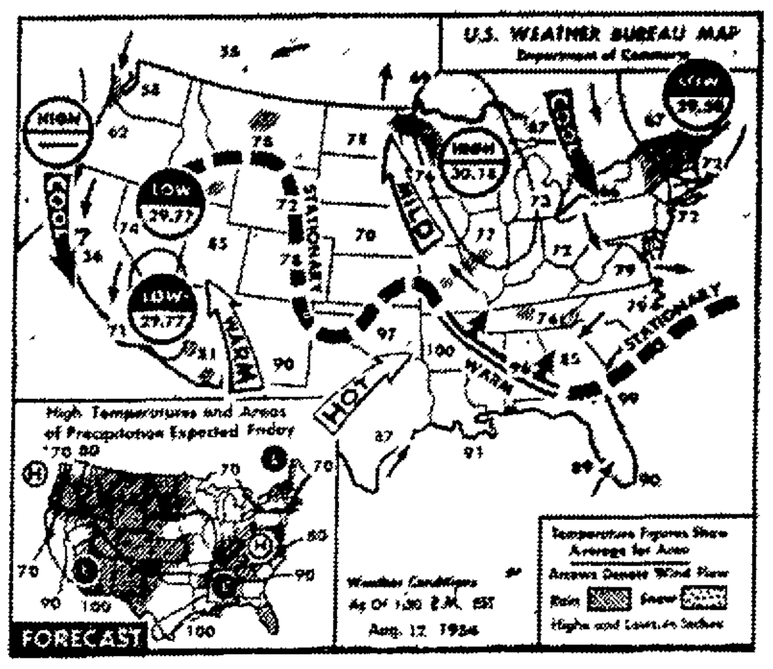
The next highest total was 39,534 to his chief challenger, Frederick Wagener. Other totals: A. B. Walker 6,953; Clarence Bristol 6,721; James L Bourret, 3,400; Louis H. Hector 1,470, and John McKernan 3,283.

As for the lagging precincts, this year they do not include Mother Lake, the Cherry County precinct which formerly sent its vote count to Valentine by way of Omaha. This year Mother Lake flew its ballot boxes to the county seat and was in comparatively early.

The same railway trouble may be plaguing the four lagging precincts, however, as they are in the same general area of the Sandhills

Big Springs Memorial Swimming Pool Opens

BIG SPRINGS, Neb. (AP)—Riley Lintz Memorial Pool, constructed with a $30,000 gift from the parents of Riley Lintz, explosion victim on the Carrier Leyte last, year, was opened this week.



Clouds To Hang Around

Partly cloudy weather will develop throughout the Central Plains and Central Mississippi Valley Friday. Considerable shower and thunderstorm activity will prevail over widely dispersed sectors of the country. Temperatures will rise slightly in the New England states, along the Great Lakes and in the Central Rockies. (AP Wirephoto Map.)

Richardson Mail Votes Awaited

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP)—Richardson County Sheriff Vern Atkins won't know until the vote canvass whether he's been beaten in the primary election or will be able to run for another term this fall.

The unofficial count of votes gave 1,197 votes to former Sheriff Irvin Gates in the Republican primary and 1,098 to Atkins. But there are 190 mail votes to be counted and the canvass to be made. Walter S. Grimes, Falls City policeman, is the Democratic nominee.

One other race, that for First district commissioner could be changed by the mail vote. As it stood after the unofficial tabulation Mel Ernst of Falls City led Ray Novak of Falls City 588 to 434 in the Republican primary.

3 Nebraska Towns Show Retail Sale Boost; State Mark Down

Nebraska retail sales during June were off 2 per cent compared with a year ago, but showed a 2.6 per cent gain over the preceding month.

Of the cities, only Omaha, Kearney, and McCook showed gains over a year ago, according to Business in Nebraska, a monthly bulletin prepared by the Department of Business Research of the University of Nebraska's College of Business Administration.

Omaha reported a 1.7 gain, Kearney 4 per cent gain, and McCook 9.7 per cent gain.

According to figures compiled by the bulletin, food stores were down 4.1 per cent, housing supplies down 5.9, automotive stores up .02, and department and miscellaneous stores up 1.9 per cent, all compared with a year ago.

In May, the state's dollar volume of business climbed nearly 7 per cent over a year ago, and fell 1 6 per cent compared with April of this year. Physical volume of business was up 3.2 over a year ago and down 2.9 compared with April.

"If you knew what I know about dishwashing suds you'd buy TREND and save money"

RUTH HATHEWAY, nationally renowned Director of Home Economics, Continental Baking Company—bakers of Wonder Bread and Hostess Cakes—is an author, radio-TV lecturer, and travels widely in behalf of better nutrition and education.

"The sustained suds of TREND, in hard as well as soft water, are most gratifying," says Ruth Hatheway, of Continental Baking Company. "TREND has everything you want in a dishwashing suds, yet it's budget-priced . . . your best value."

or giant package 49¢

Ruth Hatheway knows just about all there is to know about dishwashing. She wants the easiest, speediest dishwashing suds available—and she finds TREND her best buy.

TREND loosens crusty, sticky foods with only a little soaking. TREND makes rich, thick suds that last even in hard water—and there's no soap scum left in the sink.

It saves time. Dishes and glassware washed with TREND dry bright without wiping. No streaks!

Mildness to hands is another important TREND feature. No other dishwashing detergent is gentler to hands than TREND!

Pennies add up fast when you can save on anything used as often as dishwashing suds—so take a tip from Ruth Hatheway. TREND is made to wash dishes at the lowest cost to you. Buy TREND and save money!

Specially made for miracle fabrics, too. Nylons, Orlons, Dacrons—as well as silks, rayons and woolens—look brighter and fresher washed with TREND. It's as mild to fabrics as it is to hands.

Lincoln Student Reigns As Burwell Rodeo Queen

Lincoln Star Special

BURWELL, Neb. — A 16-year-old Lincoln High School junior, Carole Martin, was named queen of the annual Burwell rodeo Thursday. Miss Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin of Denton.

Officials said Thursday's turnout, estimated at 19,000, set a new record for the event which continues through Saturday.

The queen, selected from a field of 16 candidates, was selected by a group of judges on the basis of showmanship and horsemanship. Miss Martin is a member of the Lincoln Saddle Club.

There are 158 cowboys and cowgirls on hand for this year's rodeo which annually attracts many out-of-staters in addition to thousands of Nebraskans.

Other candidates for queen were: Delores Scorfield and Norma Jean Foreman, both of Beatrice; Dallas Hunt of Lincoln; Cherry King and Virginia Lillie, both of Fremont; Pat Packard and Janice Butts, both of Burwell; Beverly Magnuson of Dickens; Elyse Towne of Maywood; Ellen Hall of Neligh; Sharon Treffer of Rockville; Betty Hougham of Chadron; Lois Wigent of Ord; Mildred Wilson of Gothenburg; and Sharrie Parolek of Schuyler.

Nebraska News

Lilga Drowns; Ex-Nebraskan

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Two prominent Michigan physicians lost their lives in a boating accident on the storm-tossed waters of Walloon Lake near Petoskey.

The dead were Dr. Donald C. Beaver, 59, Detroit, and Dr. Harris V. Lilgo, 44, a specialist in internal medicine at Burns Clinic in Petoskey.

Dr. Lilga was a native of Kearney and a graduate of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Dr. Beaver's 17-foot runabout hit an unlit racing buoy, lost its propeller and began to ship water. In the excitement Dr. Beaver suffered a fatal heart attack.

The wife of Dr. Lilga swam nearly a third of a mile through the rough water to summon help. Worried about her safety, Dr. Lilga decided to swim after her and drowned.

Retired Chester Physician, 99, Revisits Chicago Training Area

CHICAGO (AP) — 99-year-old Nebraska physician, who retired five years ago, came to Chicago and revisited scenes of his early medical training near Cook County Hospital where he interned 58 years ago.

Dr. Spohn

He is Dr. Marion W. Spohn who has been living in Hebron, Neb., since he quit the active practice of medicine in nearby Chester in 1949.

Spohn told a reporter he wishes he could live his life over because he again would be a doctor, and the second time, would have a chance to "do things right." He said when he first started to practice physicians "knew practically nothing."

Spohn said some physicians today may be a little too quick with the knife, but he added "surgeons today are doing so much good, I cannot criticize them."

He was accompanied on a tour of the county hospital by his granddaughter, Mrs. Vernelle Bernstein, a former graduate nurse there; her husband, Dr. Max Bernstein of the hospital's attending staff; Dr. George C. Blaha, medical director, and Fred A. Hertwig, warden.

Lincoln Student Reigns As Burwell Rodeo Queen

Lincoln Star Special

BURWELL, Neb. — A 16-year-old Lincoln High School junior, Carole Martin, was named queen of the annual Burwell rodeo Thursday. Miss Martin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Martin of Denton.

Officials said Thursday's turnout, estimated at 19,000, set a new record for the event which continues through Saturday.

The queen, selected from a field of 16 candidates, was selected by a group of judges on the basis of showmanship and horsemanship. Miss Martin is a member of the Lincoln Saddle Club.

There are 158 cowboys and cowgirls on hand for this year's rodeo which annually attracts many out-of-staters in addition to thousands of Nebraskans.

Other candidates for queen were: Delores Scorfield and Norma Jean Foreman, both of Beatrice; Dallas Hunt of Lincoln; Cherry King and Virginia Lillie, both of Fremont; Pat Packard and Janice Butts, both of Burwell; Beverly Magnuson of Dickens; Elyse Towne of Maywood; Ellen Hall of Neligh; Sharon Treffer of Rockville; Betty Hougham of Chadron; Lois Wigent of Ord; Mildred Wilson of Gothenburg; and Sharrie Parolek of Schuyler.

Gluckman Leaves Eastern U.S. For Flight To England

BEVERLY, Mass. (AP) — Peter Gluckman, the flying watchmaker, took off from Beverly airport Thursday for Sidney, N.S., on his flight from San Francisco to England.

Gluckman planned to fly from Sidney to Gander, Nfld., from where he will start the long trans-Atlantic hop. He set his blue and yellow Luscombe Silveraire four-cylinder plane down here after stopping briefly at Boston on a flight from Albany, N. Y.

Gluckman stopped at North Platte and Grand Island on his way across the United States.

Nebraska News

Lilga Drowns; Ex-Nebraskan

PETOSKEY, Mich. (AP)—Two prominent Michigan physicians lost their lives in a boating accident on the storm-tossed waters of Walloon Lake near Petoskey.

The dead were Dr. Donald C. Beaver, 59, Detroit, and Dr. Harris V. Lilga, 44, a specialist in internal medicine at Burns Clinic in Petoskey.

Dr. Lilga was a native of Kearney and a graduate of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine.

Dr. Beaver's 17-foot runabout hit an unlit racing buoy, lost its propeller and began to ship water. In the excitement Dr. Beaver suffered a fatal heart attack.

The wife of Dr. Lilga swam nearly a third of a mile through the rough water to summon help. Worried about her safety, Dr. Lilga decided to swim after her and drowned.

Every Home Should Have A Book

With apologies to the famous cartoonist, this could almost be entitled "The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime," for Miss Martha Payne and her fiance, Thomas E. Graham, whose marriage will be solemnized on Saturday, August 28, are pictured at a task which every young couple most enjoys, furnishing and arranging their first home, in this case a small apartment in Lincoln.

The choice of where to hang Aunt Mary's valuable painting, or where to store those wedding gifts—the bun warmer and the charcoal grill which might come in handy next summer—is further complicated for Miss Payne and her fiance who plan to continue their studies in the fall and must find space for those all-important textbooks.

Just Between Us by Jean

—a local matron was caught by her friends talking to herself. Asked if she frequently did this she replied, "Oh, yes, I do it all the time I'm at home. As a matter of fact I get into arguments with myself, but it's a little dull because I always let myself win."

★

—asked a 13-year-old miss how she was enjoying the summer and she answered, "Fine, except for my parents." Further inquiry brought out the fact that she thought it might be a good idea to trade parents—her own, evidently, had been a little harsh with her recently. "On second thought though," she mused, "Guess I won't either. I might draw even a worse set than those I already have."

★

—a seven-year-old fisherman caught his first bullheads the other day in a lake just outside of Lincoln. His father explained how they should be cleaned and the boy did a perfect job and was understandably quite proud of himself. After the cleaning job he left to go to church. He returned to find that the family cat had eaten all seven of the fish leaving scarcely a trace—another perfect job.

The Spotlight Turns On Brides

The world is full of brides-elect and Lincoln definitely has its quota—Many processional aisles will be gayly decked for late August weddings, and there are an equal number — if not more — wedding dates for early September.

But one of the August brides is Miss Martha Payne of Hooper—Pi Beta Phi at Nebraska, whose marriage to Thomas E. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Graham of Lincoln takes place on Saturday, Aug. 28.

Complimenting Miss Payne on Thursday evening was Miss Esther Evans who entertained at an informal dessert supper at her home. The soon-to-be bride was presented with a hostess gift.

For her wedding, which will take place at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Aug. 14, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Miss Joan Reiling has chosen as her matron of honor and her only attendant her cousin, Mrs. Paul Schoenleber of Alameda, Calif. Serving Miss Reiling's fiance, Tolbert W. Steen, Jr., as best man will be Warren Lawson.

Concluding Miss Reiling's list of pre-nuptial courtesies on Thursday evening was the miscellaneous shower and dessert for which Mrs. Dearle Schatz was hostess at her home. Also included among recent parties honoring the bride-to-be was the personal shower last Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Ernest Carveth entertained 12 guests at her home.

Miss Rosemary Lucke, a bride-elect of early September, will be the guest of honor on Friday evening when Mrs. Wesley Hultquist, Miss Juanale Oestmann and Mrs. Austin Goth will entertain at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Goth. The evening hours will be spent informally following a dessert supper.

Miss Lucke, whose marriage to Roger Rhodes will take place on Sunday, Sept. 5, will go to Arapahoe on Saturday afternoon for a pre-nuptial courtesy at the home of Mrs. Effie Phillips, who will be hostess to a small group of friends and members of Miss Lucke's bridal party.

Miss Janet Kay Lebsack, whose betrothal to Donald V. Isherwood recently was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lebsack, has chosen Wednesday, Sept. 1, as her wedding date. The ceremony will take place at First Presbyterian Church and will be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Opening her schedule of pre-nuptial courtesies will be a dessert luncheon and kitchen shower Sunday afternoon for which Mrs. Gayle Lebsack and the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Clyde Dean, will be co-hostesses at the Hotel Cornhusker. Following the 2 o'clock luncheon, the afternoon hours will be devoted to cards.

Miss Carole Pietenpol has announced the members of the bridal party for her marriage to Doyle Blodgett, which will be solemnized Sunday evening, Aug. 29, at Trinity Methodist Church.

For her maid of honor, the bride-elect has selected her sister Miss Janice Pietenpol, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Delores Mills and Miss Theba Blodgett, sister of Mr. Blodgett. Miss Sandra Johnston will be the flower girl, and lighting the candles will be Miss Beth Pietenpol and Miss Donna Blodgett, also sisters of the bride-to-be and her fiance.

Serving as best man will be Bob Pietenpol, brother of the bride-elect, and included among the ushers will be Al Priest, Dwight Luubken and Leslie Johnston, all of Lincoln, and Carroll Johnston of Central City.

The Star Welcomes

THE STAR rolled out its welcome mat again this morning to greet some of the city's newcomers who come from here and there to make Lincoln their home—some just temporarily — others forever and ever—at least we hope so.

We're very sorry to say it, but we fear that Col. and Mrs. Robert T. McDaniel, their daughters, the Misses Betty and Lois McDaniel, and their son, Bob, will be here for only the period Uncle Sam's Airforce designates. But we're happy to have them—even on a temporary basis.

The McDaniels really call St. Augustine, Fla., home, but while in Lincoln their address is 3322 So. 40th. And incidentally—Miss Betty McDaniel was graduated from William and Mary College in Williamsburg, Va., last June, and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Among those who recently have arrived, and who plan to become members of the town's here-to-stay populace, are Mr. and Mrs. Lester N. Cox and their two children, Terry and Deborah. Mr. and Mrs. Cox and their family arrived two weeks ago, and have taken a house at 2135 Potter. Although they came to Lincoln from Schuyler, Hebron and Bassett are the respective home towns of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

And from Tilden to Lincoln to reside permanently, have come Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ryon. Mr. Ryon now is associated with a brick and lumber company here, and the new residents are at home at 3325 Starr St.

It's a long way from England to Lincoln, but T/Sgt. and Mrs Richard Boaz and their three small daughters, Valery Hampton, Yvonne and Mary Ellen, made it without any mishaps. Sgt. Boaz, as you probably have guessed, is stationed at the airforce base, but the family residence is 511 So. 13th.

And from Salina, Kan., a few days ago came an Air Force career man and his family—T. Sgt. and Mrs. Andholt McCumber and the four small McCumbers — Linda, Mitzi, David and Julie. Perhaps we shouldn't have said that Sgt. McCumber was an Air Force career man because he hasn't quite made up his mind for sure—but all straws points in the direction of our rather definite statement.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vidlock of Madison, Wis., have announced the arrival of a son on Wednesday, Aug. 11. Mrs. Vidlock is the former Wilma Stoehr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stoehr of Lincoln. The baby's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Vidlock, also of Lincoln.

Everyone Can Relax

WE'VE hidden all the broomsticks, shooed off all the black cats and tucked away the ladders, so now everyone can relax and skip Friday-the-thirteenth—and its bad reputation. In addition to all of our activities on behalf of everyone's peace of mind, we also gathered in considerable news—It's really been a busy morning.

* * *

TALKED for a moment or two to Mrs. T. S. Allen and discovered that she is to be a dinner hostess this evening when she entertains members of the family in farewell courtesy to her great-niece, Mrs. Charles Cook, Mr. Cook—and the two young feminine members of the Cook family, Nancy and Sally.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. Cook and their daughters are leaving on Saturday for Palo Alto, Calif., where Mr. Cook is to be associated with the Stanford Research Institute.

* * *

ONE OF the very busiest young ladies in town these days is Miss Martha Lee Miller whose marriage to Lt. Robert Sherwood will be solemnized on Friday, Aug. 20— Yesterday our bride-elect was not only attending parties—but giving them.

On Thursday morning Miss Miller and her mother, Mrs. Sterling F. Mutz were hostesses at a trousseau coffee between the hours of 10 o'clock and 12 o'clock, to which a group of friends were invited to meet Lt. Sherwood's mother, Mrs. C. C. Sherwood of Orleans, and his aunt, Mrs. K. A Carver of Grand Island. And on Thursday evening Miss Miller was the honoree when Miss Bobbie Russell was hostess at a dessert supper and informal evening at her home. The bride-elect was presented with a hostess gift.

* * *

ON Miss Miller's calendar for today is the brunch for which Mrs. John Peterson will be hostess when she entertains at the Lincoln Country Club. Places will be arranged for 26, and the soon-to-be bride will be presented with a china shower.

Lt. Sherwood arrives in town this week-end, and the coming week is filled to the brim with courtesies at which Miss Miller and her fiance will share honors.

* * *

SOMEONE told us that Mr. and Mrs. Vance Traphagen had hied themselves off to New York City where they will spend several days visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yates—

* * *

SPEAKING of travelers — Arthur S. Raymond and Craig O'Brien are leaving today for Madeline Island—Mr. Raymond to remain at the island for several days—Mr. O'Brien to accompany Mrs. O'Brien and the two young daughters, Dorrance and Molly, back to Lincoln on the far side of the week-end.

HEAR that Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Thompson are back in town after a holiday in Minnesota. And while at Glennwood they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Theisen of Denver, formerly of Lincoln, who also were holidaying there—At least Mrs. Theisen was having a holiday—Mr. Theisen, so the news goes, was on a business trip most of the time.

* * *

THEN we learned that Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Farrell and their daughter, Miss Colleen Farrell, are expected home most any moment from California where the threesome has been vacationing.

* * *

THURSDAY was a busy day—party-wise — Thursday morning Mrs. O. R. Martin was a 10 o'clock-to-12 o'clock coffee hostess at her home when she honored Mrs. Clifton Hardin who, with Chancellor Hardin and the younger generation of Hardins, recently arrived from East Lansing, Mich.

* * *

BUT Friday is busy, too—for today is the luncheon for which Mrs. James Allard and her mother, Mrs. Neil Dieterich, will be hostesses at the University Club when they entertain in farewell courtesy to Mrs. Paul DeOgney. Twelve guests have been invited for luncheon and an informal afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. DeOgney will be leaving in mid-September for a six months stay in Phoenix, Ariz.

Marriage Solemnized

The chancel of the Federated Church in Aurora was banked with greenery and appointed with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and lighted cathedral candles for the wedding of Miss Gwen Grosshans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Grosshans of Aurora, and Stanley D. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Allen of Pueblo, Colo., which was an event of Sunday evening, Aug. 8. The 7 o'clock service was read by the Rev. Kenneth Loske, minister of the Federated Church, and Mrs. Eva Haworth, organist, played the wedding music. Mrs. Haworth also accompanied Miss Judith Sehnert who sang, "Beloved, It Is Morn," preceding the ceremony, and Glenn Clark, who sang "The Lord's Prayer," at the close of the benediction.

Wearing emerald green irridescent taffeta, Mrs. Gilbert Barnell was her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids in irridescent red taffeta, were Miss Marlene Grosshans, Central City; Mrs. Allen Hagelin, Denver; and Mrs. Dale McMillan, Milburn. The styled-alike frocks were fashioned with off-shoulder necklines in snugly fitted bodices, and wide, waltz-length skirts. Their velvet headbands were frock-toned, and each carried a colonial bouquet of pom pons. The candles were lighted by Miss Sarah Jane Adams, Lincoln; Miss Rose Ann DeBoer, Michael Gaurd, and Carl Sanderson, all wearing maroon robes. Barbara Devereaux of Omaha was the flower girl, and the ring bearers were Ricky Grosshans of Beatrice, and Johnny Evers of Omaha.

Arthur Gilbert of Pueblo, Colo., served Mr. Allen as best man, and the ushers included Richard Grosshans, brother of the bride; William Lawson, Lincoln Blakey and Robert Lester, all of Pueblo.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white crustolite. The long-sleeved, sculptured bodice which extended below the waist, was designed with a portrait neckline contoured with a band of alencon lace and inverted pleats gave accentuated fullness to the floor-length skirt. Her veil of illusion was held to the head mantilla fashion, and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids.

After a reception, held in the church parlors, Mr. Allen and his bride left for a honeymoon trip to Park Rapids, Minn., and for traveling Mrs. Allen wore a two-piece frock of brown and eggshell, with gold accessories. Mr. Allen and his bride will go to Pueblo to reside.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority. Mr. Allen, who served four years with the Marine Corps, was graduated from Pueblo College in June.

Every Home Should Have A Book

With apologies to the famous cartoonist, this could almost be entitled "The Thrill That Comes Once in a Lifetime," for Miss Martha Payne and her fiance, Thomas E. Graham, whose marriage will be solemnized on Saturday, August 28, are pictured at a task which every young couple most enjoys, furnishing and arranging their first home, in this case a small apartment in Lincoln.

The choice of where to hang Aunt Mary's valuable painting, or where to store those wedding gifts—the bun warmer and the charcoal grill which might come in handy next summer—is further complicated for Miss Payne and her fiance who plan to continue their studies in the fall and must find space for those all-important textbooks.

Just Between Us by Jean

—a local matron was caught by her friends talking to herself. Asked if she frequently did this she replied, "Oh, yes, I do it all the time I'm at home. As a matter of fact I get into arguments with myself, but it's a little dull because I always let myself win."

★

—asked a 13-year-old miss how she was enjoying the summer and she answered, "Fine, except for my parents." Further inquiry brought out the fact that she thought it might be a good idea to trade parents—her own, evidently, had been a little harsh with her recently. "On second thought though," she mused, "Guess I won't either. I might draw even a worse set than those I already have."

★

—a seven-year-old fisherman caught his first bullheads the other day in a lake just outside of Lincoln. His father explained how they should be cleaned and the boy did a perfect job and was understandably quite proud of himself. After the cleaning job he left to go to church. He returned to find that the family cat had eaten all seven of the fish leaving scarcely a trace—another perfect job.

The Spotlight Turns On Brides

The world is full of brides-elect and Lincoln definitely has its quota—Many processional aisles will be gayly decked for late August weddings, and there are an equal number — if not more — wedding dates for early September.

But one of the August brides is Miss Martha Payne of Hooper—Pi Beta Phi at Nebraska, whose marriage to Thomas E. Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Graham of Lincoln takes place on Saturday, Aug. 28.

Complimenting Miss Payne on Thursday evening was Miss Esther Evans who entertained at an informal dessert supper at her home. The soon-to-be bride was presented with a hostess gift.

For her wedding, which will take place at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Aug. 14, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Miss Joan Reiling has chosen as her matron of honor and her only attendant her cousin, Mrs. Paul Schoenleber of Alameda, Calif. Serving Miss Reiling's fiance, Tolbert W. Steen, Jr., as best man will be Warren Lawson.

Concluding Miss Reiling's list of pre-nuptial courtesies on Thursday evening was the miscellaneous shower and dessert for which Mrs. Dearle Schatz was hostess at her home. Also included among recent parties honoring the bride-to-be was the personal shower last Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Ernest Carveth entertained 12 guests at her home.

Miss Rosemary Lucke, a bride-elect of early September, will be the guest of honor on Friday evening when Mrs. Wesley Hultquist, Miss Juanale Oestmann and Mrs. Austin Goth will entertain at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Goth. The evening hours will be spent informally following a dessert supper.

Miss Lucke, whose marriage to Roger Rhodes will take place on Sunday, Sept. 5, will go to Arapahoe on Saturday afternoon for a pre-nuptial courtesy at the home of Mrs. Effie Phillips, who will be hostess to a small group of friends and members of Miss Lucke's bridal party.

Miss Janet Kay Lebsack, whose betrothal to Donald V. Isherwood recently was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lebsack, has chosen Wednesday, Sept. 1, as her wedding date. The ceremony will take place at First Presbyterian Church and will be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Opening her schedule of pre-nuptial courtesies will be a dessert luncheon and kitchen shower Sunday afternoon for which Mrs. Gayle Lebsack and the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Clyde Dean, will be co-hostesses at the Hotel Cornhusker. Following the 2 o'clock luncheon, the afternoon hours will be devoted to cards.

Miss Carole Pietenpol has announced the members of the bridal party for her marriage to Doyle Blodgett, which will be solemnized Sunday evening, Aug. 29, at Trinity Methodist Church.

For her maid of honor, the bride-elect has selected her sister Miss Janice Pietenpol, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Delores Mills and Miss Theba Blodgett, sister of Mr. Blodgett. Miss Sandra Johnston will be the flower girl, and lighting the candles will be Miss Beth Pietenpol and Miss Donna Blodgett, also sisters of the bride-to-be and her fiance.

Serving as best man will be Bob Pietenpol, brother of the bride-elect, and included among the ushers will be Al Priest, Dwight Luubken and Leslie Johnston, all of Lincoln, and Carroll Johnston of Central City.

The Star Welcomes

THE STAR rolled out its welcome mat again this morning to greet some of the city's newcomers who come from here and there to make Lincoln their home—some just temporarily — others forever and ever—at least we hope so.

We're very sorry to say it, but we fear that Col. and Mrs. Robert T. McDaniel, their daughters, the Misses Betty and Lois McDaniel, and their son, Bob, will be here for only the period Uncle Sam's Airforce designates. But we're happy to have them—even on a temporary basis.

The McDaniels really call St. Augustine, Fla., home, but while in Lincoln their address is 3322 So. 40th. And incidentally—Miss Betty McDaniel was graduated from William and Mary College in Williamsburg, Va., last June, and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Among those who recently have arrived, and who plan to become members of the town's here-to-stay populace, are Mr. and Mrs. Lester N. Cox and their two children, Terry and Deborah. Mr. and Mrs. Cox and their family arrived two weeks ago, and have taken a house at 2135 Potter. Although they came to Lincoln from Schuyler, Hebron and Bassett are the respective home towns of Mr. and Mrs. Cox.

And from Tilden to Lincoln to reside permanently, have come Mr. and Mrs. William M. Ryon. Mr. Ryon now is associated with a brick and lumber company here, and the new residents are at home at 3325 Starr St.

It's a long way from England to Lincoln, but T/Sgt. and Mrs Richard Boaz and their three small daughters, Valery Hampton, Yvonne and Mary Ellen, made it without any mishaps. Sgt. Boaz, as you probably have guessed, is stationed at the airforce base, but the family residence is 511 So. 13th.

And from Salina, Kan., a few days ago came an Air Force career man and his family—T. Sgt. and Mrs. Andholt McCumber and the four small McCumbers — Linda, Mitzi, David and Julie. Perhaps we shouldn't have said that Sgt. McCumber was an Air Force career man because he hasn't quite made up his mind for sure—but all straws points in the direction of our rather definite statement.

Mundt And Jenkins Favor Tighter Conduct Rules For Probers

. . . Citing Of Delays Advised

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two veterans of the McCarthy-Army hearings, Sen. Mundt (R-SD) and Ray H. Jenkins, came out Thursday in favor of tighter rules of conduct for congressional investigations.

Mundt, who headed the Senate Investigations subcommittee during its probe of the row between Army officials and Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), added a warning, however, that rules alone won't guarantee an orderly hearing

"Recalcitrant or rebellious witnesses," Mundt told the Senate Rules Committee, "can sometimes make a shambles of any hearing regardless of the rules of procedure, and impetuous or quick - tempered chairmen can sometimes destroy the dignity and decorum."

Jenkins, the 6-foot-4 Knoxville, Tenn., lawyer who served as the subcommittee's special counsel in the McCarthy-Army fracas, said it would be a good thing if committees were required to cite in their reports any "filibustering, delaying, stalling" or other conduct unbecoming a witness or principal.

Jenkins hastened to add he personally wasn't suggesting anybody involved in the Army-McCarthy hearings was guilty of these things, but he told Chairman Jenner (R-Ind) of the Rules Committee:

"You might think so or another segment of the public might think so."

'Might Think So'

Jenkins hastened to add he personally wasn't suggesting anybody involved in the Army-McCarthy hearings was guilty of these things, but he told Chairman Jenner (R-Ind) of the Rules Committee:

"You might think so or another segment of the public might think so."

Jenkins and Mundt testified in something of an old home atmosphere in the caucus room where the McCarthy-Army hearings were held. Jenkins, who recently turned down the GOP senatorial nomination in Tennessee, said he felt downright nostalgic Mundt said he was happy to be on the witness side of the table for once

The Rules Committee is considering proposals to set up a code of conduct for all Senate investigations.

Thursday's session produced an echo of another past McCarthy hearing—a charge by a former Voice of America official that he was fired after testifying in McCarthy's investigation of the government's overseas information program.

Via Letter

Robert Morris, a New York judge who is acting as special adviser to the Rules Committee, said the charge was made in a letter from the official involved, John T Cocutz of New York, former acting chief of the Voice's Romanian service.

Cocutz testified before McCarthy's subcommittee last year that he had been informed that Roger Lyons, director of the Voice's religious broadcasts, was an atheist. Lyons later took the stand to declare he believes in God.

Morris, who was the committee's chief counsel before he was named a judge, said he has been informed nine other VOA officials similarly left their jobs after testifying in the McCarthy investigation. Morris said, however, he has not verified this report.

Jenner decided against making public the Cocutz letter, saying he would turn it over to McCarthy's investigations subcommittee or possibly have his own Internal Securing subcommittee look into it. He said the Rules Committee has not evaluated the letter.

Both Mundt and Jenkins, who became familiar TV figures during the Army-McCarthy hearings, put themselves vigorously on record against banning television from future hearings. Mundt said the decision in each case should be left to the committee involved.

Nationalists Plan Committee On Red Mainland Strike

TAIPEH (Friday) (INS)—Sources close to the government said Thursday that Nationalist China is considering establishment of a "mainland counter-attack planning committee.'

These sources said the proposed staff would be headed by Vice President Chen Cheng and be composed of representatives of all Nationalist political parties.

Reports on Formosa Island said the planning body would study means to overthrow the Communists and retake the Red China mainland.

Meanwhile, a Nationalist naval task force which reportedly sank eight Red Chinese warships in a daring raid on the port of Tonshan this week, returned to Formosa and was greeted by Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek who personally congratulated the commander.

The returning sailors were given a hero's welcome amid exploding firecrackers.

Frank L. Gage, 74, Dies In Lincoln

Frank LeRoy Gage, 74, of 902 K, died Thursday noon at a local hospital.

A native of Sterling, he had lived in Lincoln 50 years. He was a retired switchman for the Burlington Railroad and was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

Surviving are his wife, Lola; three daughters, Mrs. Edward Straka and Mrs. George Bock, both of Lincoln, and Mrs. C B. Clark of Geneva; a sister, Mrs. Ruby Lorenz of Los Angeles; two brothers, Logan of Lincoln and George of Omaha; and four grandchildren.

'Prospects Fair For Early Start On Glendo Dam'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Prospects are fair, Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb) said Thursday, that Congress will appropriate money for an early start on construction of the Glendo Dam in Wyoming.

The Senate added two million dollars for this project to the second supplemental appropriation bill. The House had voted no money for Glendo and House conferees recently were reported to have turned thumbs down on the project.

Miller told a reporter Glendo proponents have persuaded the Senate-House conferees to give further consideration to the project. He said he feels construction money probably will be voted but that it may be no more than one million dollars for the first year.

The conferees may not reach a final agreement on the bill for several days.

Glendo Dam will provide flood control, power and other benefits for Wyoming, western Nebraska and parts of Colorado.

Ground Water Is Available In Buffalo, Hall And Dawson Counties, Survey Indicates

WASHINGTON (P)—A Geological Survey report indicates ground water is available for irrigation or industrial use in the central part of the lower Platte River Valley in Buffalo, Dawson and Hall Counties, Neb.

This water is in sand and gravel of the Pleistocene age and the Ogallala formation of the Pliocene age, Raymond L. Schreurs, of the Geological Survey said.

Ground water pumped from wells tapping Pleistocene deposits has been used for irrigation for many years in the Platte River Valley.

But only in recent years have wells been drilled into the underlying Ogallala formation.

Their development has spurred construction of other wells in the Ogallala in areas where the Pleistocene formations are dry or too thin to yield an adequate amount of water.

The irrigation wells yield as much as 2,000 gallons a minute, with the Pleistocene well producing somewhat more water than the deeper Ogallala.

Pros Shackled By College Rules In All-Star Game

DETROIT 7-POINT FAVORITE

Passing Ace Bob Layne May Not See Action Against Stars

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—Football's annual "dream game," this time the College All-Stars vs. the Detroit Lions before 90,000 at Soldier Field Friday night, looms as one of the most interesting in the 21-year history of the spectacular series.

The clash which will be nationally televised (DuMont) and broadcast (Mutual) beginning at 7:30 p.m. (CST) presumably will find the favored pros somewhat hobbled because they must play under the collegiate limited substitute rule.

The 53 hand-picked collegians of All-Star Coach Jim Tatum of Maryland all played under the one-platoon system last season when college football discarded the free substitution rule.

The National Football League champion Lions, studded with specialists, had to rebuild their offense and defense for the one-night stand against the collegians.

Big, Experienced

The Lions, despite the switch to a two-way lineup, are favored by about seven points, mainly because they still have plenty of brawn and personnel seasoned by two years of NFL championship performance.

The Lions won last year's All-Star game, 24-10, and will be seeking the fourth-straight triumph and 13th victory of the series for the professionals.

Last All-Star triumph was a 17-7 decision over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1950, the sixth for the collegians. Two games ended in ties.

The Lions reportedly will keep their ace passing quarterback, Bobby Layne, wrapped in cellophane Friday night lest injury on defense cost his services for the coming NFL campaign.

Dublinski To Sub

Instead, Coach Buddy Parker of the Lions will rely heavily on Tom Dublinski to direct the pro attack which is expected to alternate between the T and single wingback.

Tatum and his staff have groomed the All-Stars in the split-T, although the No. 1 collegiate quarterback, Zeke Bratkowski of Georgia, had to be introduced to the "keep-it" style of quarter-backing required in that formation.

However, sharp-shooting Bratkowski is expected to bombard the pros with his tosses, leaving the ball-carrying to the likes of Johnny Lattner and Neil Worden of Notre Dame, Lamar McHan of Arkansas, Chet Hanulak of Maryland, Paul Cameron of UCLA, and Rick Casares of Florida.

Stars Big

The All-Stars have a strapping array of linemen in the collegiate camp, including two possible Maryland tackles starters, 250-pound Stan Jones and 225-pound Bob Morgan, and Notre Dame's bruising tackle, Art Hunter, a 230-pounder.

But even with the need of developing a forward wall composed mainly of offensive specialists, the Lions probably will start a tackle-to-tackle combination weighing an average of 238 pounds to the man.

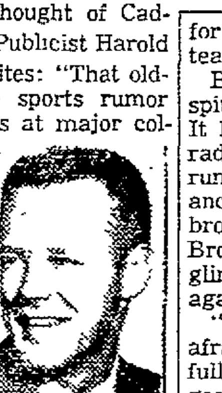
These Sooners Have It Rough

The report has long been circluating that University of Oklahoma football players drive huge convertibles of modern origin. They always says these pleasant things about winning football teams, you know.

Alarmed at the thought of Cadillacs in the ranks, Publicist Harold (Hot Rod) Keith writes: "That oldest and most trite sports rumor that football players at major colleges all drive expensive automobiles is pure bunkum as far as Oklahoma is concerned, and probably as far as all other colleges are concerned, too.



Wilkinson

"The proportion of Sooner players owning cars is only slightly greater than that of boys at the average school," continued Keith, "and nearly all the Sooner cars are jalopies, too, many of them unpaid for."

Keith is on the witness stand during the following paragraphs:

Trouble with the Sooners is that the cars they drive are too old. Last year, the steering mechanism on Max Boydston's aged 1947 model car disintegrated while he was driving home on U.S. Highway 266. The car skidded, plunged off an eight-foot embankment and came to rest with its rear in a creek.

"I like to see you play football." Jim Costner, state highway patrolman, told Boydston. "Take my advice and get rid of that thing."

Every time you walk past Jefferson House at Norman, where the Sooners stay, you can see 15 guys holding car hoods and looking underneath them, all with baffled expressions. Yes, sir, Harold Keith said that.

Convertibles? Your agent found only two on the entire 1954 Sooner football squad. One of them is three years old, the other four years old.

One of the two Sooner convertibles is a 1950 model belonging to Don Brown, senior tackle. Brown sold his high school French horn to mack a down payment on it and also traded his old car in on the deal. The old car, a 1939 model, was called "The Brown Bug" by the Sooners.

Brown decided to trade it in "when I got picked up in Oklahoma City for driving too slow."

Bill Cheadle, sophomore tackle from Dallas, owns the other convertible, a 1951 model.

"I swapped my old 1938 Buick in on it," says Bill. "I hope to pay off more of my loan this summer."

There are even several prewar cars on the Sooner squad. One of them is the 1940 black coupe owned by Bill Brown, sophomore halfback from Waggoner. His uncle paid $130 for it and gave it to Bill for making the all-state high school team.

Bill is a "satisfied owner" despite the car's many infirmities. It has three fender reflectors, one radio aerial (but no radio), won't run much in either low or reverse and has part of the ignition key broken off in the switch. However, Brown still gets contact by jiggling the remainder of the key against the broken off fragment.

"The lights are so weak that I'm afraid to drive it at night," the fullback confesses. "But it runs good in the daytime."

Just before the Sooners started to announce that Coach Bud Wilkinson was driving a Stanley Steamer, we folded up the dispatch.

Big 7, Atlantic Coast Loop Discuss Bowl

CHICAGO (AP)—Plans for the 1955 Orange Bowl Game were discussed by interested parties Thursday but there was no official comment on a report that the bowl committee wants assurance that Oklahoma, if it repeats as Big Seven champion, again will compete.

Representatives of the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast Conference met with officials of the Orange Bowl Committee.

Reaves Peters, executive secretary of the Big Seven, said bowl problems generally were discussed. The two loops are contracted for the Orange Bowl Game.

Peters declined to say whether the committee insisted that the Big Seven Champion, even if it is Oklahoma again, will play in the Miami classic. The Big Seven has a rule restricting the same team from two consecutive bowl appearances. Oklahoma is rated a strong favorite to take the 1955 title.

The Atlantic Coast Conference, represented by Maryland in the 1954 Orange Bowl Game, has no such restriction. Peters said that any action on the subject would have to have approval of the full conference at its September business meeting.

Yanks Win Pair To Cut Cleveland Edge

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK AP)—The New York Yankees went on a home run binge Thursday, smashing four into the seats as they swept a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics 5-4 and 7-1 to again trim Cleveland's American League lead to 2½ games.

Veteran southpaw Ed Lopat and righthander Tom Morgan made it four-straight route-going performances by New York pitchers as the Yankees maintained their dominance over the cellar-dwellers. They have whipped the A's 11 times in 13 engagements and in all eight at Yankee Stadium.

Lopat had rough going in the opener, but was rewarded with his ninth victory of the season and only his second in seven weeks when Mickey Mantle unloaded his 25th home run in the eighth inning to snap a 4-4 tie. The homer came off Arnold Portocarrero, who was charged with his 12th loss despite a six-hit effort.

Irv Noren, Hank Bauer and Jerry Coleman were the other homer hitters. Noren accounted for three of the Yankees' first game runs with a triple that scored two mates in the first inning and his ninth homer of the year in the sixth.

Bauer rapped his homer, No. 8, to open the Yankee assault against lefthander Alex Kellner in the first inning of the nightcap. Three straight singles by Mantle, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron followed to feature a 4-run attack that assured Morgan of his ninth victory against three defeats.

Redleg Power Too Much For Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs said it with power again Thursday as three home runs and a triple drove in enough runs to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, for a sweep of their three-game series. Ted Kluszewski, Jim Greengrass and Wally Post hit the homers and Kluszewski smashed the triple.

Hit-Hungry Rosen Homers For Tribe

DETROIT (AP)—Al Rosen broke out of the worst slump of his major league career Thursday with a three-run home run that helped the Cleveland Indians' Bob Lemon defeat the Detroit Tigers 10-1.

Rosen had collected only two hits in his last 41 times at bat when he faced George Zuverink in the fifth inning. Larry Doby and Vic Wertz were on base with walks. The Cleveland third baseman hit a fly to right field—the wrong field for a right-handed pull hitter—and the wind helped it into the lower deck 360 feet from home plate.

Spahn Sparkles, Braves Nip Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The pennant-hungry Milwaukee Braves, paced by the six-hit hurling of stylish southpaw Warren Spahn, stopped the St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night, 3-1, for a sweep of their three-game series.

The victory moved the Braves to 8½ games behind the idle league-leading New York Giants. It was the 17th victory for the Braves in their last 19 games.

Chiefs Lose Twin Bill

Lincoln Commits Nine Errors In 2nd Game; Bears Win 3-1, 14-7

DENVER (AP)—Nine Lincoln errors, a season's high at Bears' Stadium, made Chuch Garmon's task easy Thursday night as Denver rambled to a 14-7 win in the nightcap of a Western League doubleheader.

Chuck Churn gave up one run, a homer by Andy Andersen, as the Bears took the seven-inning opener, 3-1.

The twin wins sent Denver 12 games ahead of Omaha in the league pennant race for the Bears' biggest lead of the campaign.

The Chiefs outhit Denver, 14-12, in the nightcap, but their fielding bobbles permitted the Bears to score 12 unearned runs. Timely doubles by Rocco Ippolito and Frank Rice helped Garmon notch his 15th win of the season against five losses.

Churn gave up only four hits in the opener as he hurled his eighth mound triumph against two losses.

The Bears hopped on Lincoln's Vince Carlson in the first inning for a run on a single by Earl Weaver, Reno DeBenedetti's double and a sacrifice fly by Rocco Ippolito.

Two other Denver runs came home in the fourth on a walk to Ippolito, Pidge Browne's single, a wild pitch and two outfield flies.

Roger Wright (6-9) will pitch for Lincoln against Denver's Bob Garber (15-5) Friday night.

Pros Shackled By College Rules In All-Star Game

DETROIT 7-POINT FAVORITE

Passing Ace Bob Layne May Not See Action Against Stars

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP)—Football's annual "dream game," this time the College All-Stars vs. the Detroit Lions before 90,000 at Soldier Field Friday night, looms as one of the most interesting in the 21-year history of the spectacular series.

The clash which will be nationally televised (DuMont) and broadcast (Mutual) beginning at 7:30 p.m. (CST) presumably will find the favored pros somewhat hobbled because they must play under the collegiate limited substitute rule.

The 53 hand-picked collegians of All-Star Coach Jim Tatum of Maryland all played under the one-platoon system last season when college football discarded the free substitution rule.

The National Football League champion Lions, studded with specialists, had to rebuild their offense and defense for the one-night stand against the collegians.

Big, Experienced

The Lions, despite the switch to a two-way lineup, are favored by about seven points, mainly because they still have plenty of brawn and personnel seasoned by two years of NFL championship performance.

The Lions won last year's All-Star game, 24-10, and will be seeking the fourth-straight triumph and 13th victory of the series for the professionals.

Last All-Star triumph was a 17-7 decision over the Philadelphia Eagles in 1950, the sixth for the collegians. Two games ended in ties.

The Lions reportedly will keep their ace passing quarterback, Bobby Layne, wrapped in cellophane Friday night lest injury on defense cost his services for the coming NFL campaign.

Dublinski To Sub

Instead, Coach Buddy Parker of the Lions will rely heavily on Tom Dublinski to direct the pro attack which is expected to alternate between the T and single wingback.

Tatum and his staff have groomed the All-Stars in the split-T, although the No. 1 collegiate quarterback, Zeke Bratkowski of Georgia, had to be introduced to the "keep-it" style of quarter-backing required in that formation.

However, sharp-shooting Bratkowski is expected to bombard the pros with his tosses, leaving the ball-carrying to the likes of Johnny Lattner and Neil Worden of Notre Dame, Lamar McHan of Arkansas, Chet Hanulak of Maryland, Paul Cameron of UCLA, and Rick Casares of Florida.

Stars Big

The All-Stars have a strapping array of linemen in the collegiate camp, including two possible Maryland tackles starters, 250-pound Stan Jones and 225-pound Bob Morgan, and Notre Dame's bruising tackle, Art Hunter, a 230-pounder.

But even with the need of developing a forward wall composed mainly of offensive specialists, the Lions probably will start a tackle-to-tackle combination weighing an average of 238 pounds to the man.

These Sooners Have It Rough

The report has long been circluating that University of Oklahoma football players drive huge convertibles of modern origin. They always says these pleasant things about winning football teams, you know.

Alarmed at the thought of Cadillacs in the ranks, Publicist Harold (Hot Rod) Keith writes: "That oldest and most trite sports rumor that football players at major colleges all drive expensive automobiles is pure bunkum as far as Oklahoma is concerned, and probably as far as all other colleges are concerned, too.

Wilkinson

"The proportion of Sooner players owning cars is only slightly greater than that of boys at the average school," continued Keith, "and nearly all the Sooner cars are jalopies, too, many of them unpaid for."

Keith is on the witness stand during the following paragraphs:

Trouble with the Sooners is that the cars they drive are too old. Last year, the steering mechanism on Max Boydston's aged 1947 model car disintegrated while he was driving home on U.S. Highway 266. The car skidded, plunged off an eight-foot embankment and came to rest with its rear in a creek.

"I like to see you play football," Jim Costner, state highway patrolman, told Boydston. "Take my advice and get rid of that thing."

Every time you walk past Jefferson House at Norman, where the Sooners stay, you can see 15 guys holding car hoods and looking underneath them, all with baffled expressions. Yes, sir, Harold Keith said that.

Convertibles? Your agent found only two on the entire 1954 Sooner football squad. One of them is three years old, the other four years old.

One of the two Sooner convertibles is a 1950 model belonging to Don Brown, senior tackle. Brown sold his high school French horn to maek a down payment on it and also traded his old car in on the deal. The old car, a 1939 model, was called "The Brown Bug" by the Sooners.

Brown decided to trade it in "when I got picked up in Oklahoma City for driving too slow."

Bill Cheadle, sophomore tackle from Dallas, owns the other convertible, a 1951 model.

"I swapped my old 1938 Buick in on it," says Bill. "I hope to pay off more of my loan this summer."

There are even several prewar cars on the Sooner squad. One of them is the 1940 black coupe owned by Bill Brown, sophomore halfback from Waggoner. His uncle paid $130 for it and gave it to Bill for making the all-state high school team.

Bill is a "satisfied owner" despite the car's many infirmities. It has three fender reflectors, one radio aerial (but no radio), won't run much in either low or reverse and has part of the ignition key broken off in the switch. However, Brown still gets contact by jiggling the remainder of the key against the broken off fragment.

"The lights are so weak that I'm afraid to drive it at night," the fullback confesses. "But it runs good in the daytime."

Just before the Sooners started to announce that Coach Bud Wilkinson was driving a Stanley Steamer, we folded up the dispatch.

Poor Bud driving an old Stanley Steamer, tch . . . tch . . . tch.

Big 7, Atlantic Coast Loop Discuss Bowl

CHICAGO (AP)—Plans for the 1955 Orange Bowl Game were discussed by interested parties Thursday but there was no official comment on a report that the bowl committee wants assurance that Oklahoma, if it repeats as Big Seven champion, again will compete.

Representatives of the Big Seven and Atlantic Coast Conference met with officials of the Orange Bowl Committee.

Reaves Peters, executive secretary of the Big Seven, said bowl problems generally were discussed. The two loops are contracted for the Orange Bowl Game.

Peters declined to say whether the committee insisted that the Big Seven Champion, even if it is Oklahoma again, will play in the Miami classic. The Big Seven has a rule restricting the same team from two consecutive bowl appearances. Oklahoma is rated a strong favorite to take the 1955 title.

The Atlantic Coast Conference, represented by Maryland in the 1954 Orange Bowl Game, has no such restriction. Peters said that any action on the subject would have to have approval of the full conference at its September business meeting.

YMCA Chess Title To Lincoln Lad

Andris Staklis, a 14-year-old Everett Junior High School student, won the Sicilian Defense Chess Tournament at the Lincoln YMCA.

Richard Cutts and Anton Freibergs trailed the champion.

Alexander Liepnieks, city chess champion, and William Bergsten, Chess Club secretary, directed the tournament.

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK AP)—The New York Yankees went on a home run binge Thursday, smashing four into the seats as they swept a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics 5-4 and 7-1 to again trim Cleveland's American League lead to 2½ games.

Veteran southpaw Ed Lopat and righthander Tom Morgan made it four-straight route-going performances by New York pitchers as the Yankees maintained their dominance over the cellar-dwellers. They have whipped the A's 11 times in 13 engagements and in all eight at Yankee Stadium.

Lopat had rough going in the opener, but was rewarded with his ninth victory of the season and only his second in seven weeks when Mickey Mantle unloaded his 25th home run in the eighth inning to snap a 4-4 tie. The homer came off Arnold Portocarrero, who was charged with his 12th loss despite a six-hit effort.

Irv Noren, Hank Bauer and Jerry Coleman were the other homer hitters. Noren accounted for three of the Yankees' first game runs with a triple that scored two mates in the first inning and his ninth homer of the year in the sixth.

Bauer rapped his homer, No. 8, to open the Yankee assault against lefthander Alex Kellner in the first inning of the nightcap. Three straight singles by Mantle, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron followed to feature a 4-run attack that assured Morgan of his ninth victory against three defeats.

Redleg Power Too Much For Cubs

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs said it with power again Thursday as three home runs and a triple drove in enough runs to defeat the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, for a sweep of their three-game series. Ted Kluszewski, Jim Greengrass and Wally Post hit the homers and Kluszewski smashed the triple.

BOSTON (AP) — Jackie Jensen doubled in two runs and scored two more to support Frank Sullivan's effective seven-hit pitching for a 5-0 Boston second-game victory over Washington Thursday and a split in their doubleheader. The Nationals won the first 9-5.

Hit-Hungry Rosen Homers For Tribe

DETROIT (AP)—Al Rosen broke out of the worst slump of his major league career Thursday with a three-run home run that helped the Cleveland Indians' Bob Lemon defeat the Detroit Tigers 10-1.

Rosen had collected only two hits in his last 41 times at bat when he faced George Zuverink in the fifth inning. Larry Doby and Vic Wertz were on base with walks. The Cleveland third baseman hit a fly to right field—the wrong field for a right-handed pull hitter—and the wind helped it into the lower deck 360 feet from home plate.

Spahn Sparkles, Braves Nip Cards

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The pennant-hungry Milwaukee Braves, paced by the six-hit hurling of stylish southpaw Warren Spahn, stopped the St. Louis Cardinals Thursday night, 3-1, for a sweep of their three-game series.

The victory moved the Braves to 8½ games behind the idle league-leading New York Giants. It was the 17th victory for the Braves in their last 19 games.

Unterseher, Moss Win State Crown

OMAHA (AP)—Elaine Unterseher of Lincoln and Sue Moss of Omaha Thursday won the Junior Girls' Doubles in the State Tennis Tourney. They defeated Joann Bevelheimer and Kay Nebergall, Omaha, 6-4, 6-2.

Gladys Craven, Omaha, beat Helen Ackerman, Omaha, 6-2, 6-1, for the championship in the 15 and under girls division.

Chiefs Lose Twin Bill

Lincoln Commits Nine Errors In 2nd Game; Bears Win 3-1, 14-7

DENVER (AP)—Nine Lincoln errors, a season's high at Bears' Stadium, made Chuch Garmon's task easy Thursday night as Denver rambled to a 14-7 win in the nightcap of a Western League doubleheader.

Chuck Churn gave up one run, a homer by Andy Anderson, as the Bears took the seven-inning opener, 3-1.

The twin wins sent Denver 12 games ahead of Omaha in the league pennant race for the Bears' biggest lead of the campaign.

The Chiefs outhit Denver, 14-12, in the nightcap, but their fielding bobbles permitted the Bears to score 12 unearned runs. Timely doubles by Rocco Ippolito and Frank Rice helped Garmon notch his 15th win of the season against five losses.

Churn gave up only four hits in the opener as he hurled his eighth mound triumph against two losses.

The Bears hopped on Lincoln's Vince Carlson in the first inning for a run on a single by Earl Weaver, Reno DeBenedetti's double and a sacrifice fly by Rocco Ippolito.

Two other Denver runs came home in the fourth on a walk to Ippolito, Pidge Browne's single, a wild pitch and two outfield flies.

Roger Wright (6-9) will pitch for Lincoln against Denver's Bob Garber (15-5) Friday night.

Joey, Moore Eye Omaha

Set Oct. 6 Tentative Date, If $100,000 Offer In Cash

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Before Archie Moore, 37, gets a crack at Rocky Marciano's heavyweight title in the hazy future, the ring gypsy probably will defend his lightheavy crown against Joey Maxim in No. 4 of the series at Omaha, Wednesday, Oct. 6.

Truman Gibson, secretary of the International Boxing Club, was in touch with Omaha officials Thursday, trying to line up a definite date and settle financial details of the firm of Archie and Pal Joey.

"We're the No. 1 contenders," said Jack Kearns, manager of Maxim. "We always like to fight the No. 1 man," said Charlie Johnson, manager of Moore.

Although Jim Norris, IBC president, said Maxim or Jimmy Slade were considered as likely opponents for Moore, it seemed obvious another Moore-Maxim match was on the way—especially if that $100,000 offer turns up in hard cash.

Moore must have spent the day guzzling malted milks for he didn't show up to get his pay check. Johnson, stopped by Moore in 56 seconds of the 14th round last night at Madison Square Garden, was around long enough to say he made his big mistake when he started to back up instead of circling the champ.

Picks Charles

"Moore makes moves to make you make mistakes," said Johnson, when asked to compare the 1954 Moore with the present day Ezzard Charles whom he beat last fall. "If they fought tomorrow, I'd have to pick Charles. He's a lot stronger inside."

Norris said Johnston wanted Moore to fight a few heavyweights before he defends again. He is trying to line up an opponent for Archie for a Garden bout in September. Among those named were Coley Wallace, the winner of the Sept. 3 match between Charley Norkus and Cesar Brion and Paul Andrews over the weight.

The crowd here of 8,327 paying $34,024 was more than had been expected for advance sales were very slow. An extra $50,000 was received from the TV people, minus 5 per cent state tax. The net gate figures were $28,673. On a 40-20 split of everything, Moore would get $30,469 and Johnson $15,235. Although Johnston denied it, there were reports Moore got 60 per cent of the TV and Johnson none. If that is true, Moore's pursew would be $39,969 and Johnson's $5,734.

Both Norris and Al Weill, Marciano's manager, agreed Moore's performance entitled him to a high spot among the leading heavyweight contenders with Nino Valdes and Don Cockell and, of course, Charles, who boxes Rocky in a rematch Sept. 15.

"I like customers," said Weill. "Right now, we're worrying about nobody but Charles. We're fighting two title fights this year. If we go twice next year, you'd have to pick from Moore, Cockell and Valdes."

West Division, Playoff Champions

Chet Singer's Irving A baseball team, which beat Prescott for the West Division championship in the City Baseball League, came from behind to beat the highly-touted East Division champs, Northeast, in the city playoffs. Northeast won the first game, but Irving became champion by winning two close contests. Team members were (from left) Dwight Meierhenry, Allen Chastain, Rodney Little, Roy Smith, Bob McGowen, Mike Morley, Vern Lotman, Earl (Porky) Oltman, Jim Fox, Jim Gourlay, John Barthell, Johnny Thompson, Dan Hegland and Coach Chet Singer. Absent when the picture was taken are Steve Levy, William Custer, Don Campbell, Tom Molder and Elmer Walin. (Star Photo.)

Stewart's 65, Burkemo's 66 Tops Tam

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Red-haired Earl Stewart Jr., of Dallas slammed a 65 and Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., 1953 PGA champion, rounded out a 66 Thursday to spearhead a mass assault on Tam O'Shanter's 36-36—72 par in the first round of the $150,000 "World" tournament.

Over half the field of 96 pros equalled or smashed regulation figures as the stampede for a history-making first prize of $50,000 in cash and a $50,000 exhibition contract started on the first leg of the 72-hold meet at the 6,900-yard Tam course.

Stewart, shadowed by his 7½-year-old son, Chip, posted his 30-35 early then watched the other money-hounds try to outdo it.

Burkemo, who at 35 is two years older than the former Louisiana State National Intercollegiate champion, nearly did it.

The affable Franklin pro, runner-up to Chick Harbert in the recent PGA tourney, fired a pair of consistent 33's for his 66.

The first-round rush, however, was more bunched than at any time in the dozen years Tam O'Shanter tournaments have been run.

67 For Palmer

Grouped at 67 were Johnny Palmer, the 1949 "World" champion; Bob Toski, 127-pounder who at 27 heads the younger pros in contention, and veteran Dutch Harrison.

Seven were jammed into the 68 bracket, including Sam Snead, the 1950 "World" winner Henry Ransom, Dave Douglas, British Open champion Peter Thomson, Shelley Mayfield, Claude Harmon and Jim Turnesa.

Tailing them at 69 were such campaigners as Porky Oliver, Jack Burke Jr., Flory van Donck of Brussels and two unheralded pros, Mike Souchak of Durham, N. C. and Bill Ogden of Chicago, former Illinois PGA titlist.

Jerry Barber, who took the All-American title at Tam last Sunday, Cary Middlecoff, Lloyd Mangrum and Doug Ford were among the favorites bracketed at 70. Chick Harbert, 1954 PGA champion, had 71 with a dozen others. Defending "World" champion Lew Worsham was nearly lost in the first-round shuffle with an even-par 72.

Gene Littler, 24-year-old choice of the younger set, struggled in with a 73 along with such seasoned players as Jimmy Demaret, Jim Ferrier and Freddie Haas.

But stealing the show was Stewart, a persistent money-winner who fashioned one of the most amazing first nines at Tam since Ralph Guldahl's record 29 in 1945.

Berg Leads Gals

Meanwhile, Patty Berg took charge of the $12,000 "World" competition for women pros with a blistering 69, seven-under-women's standard.

She decorated her 35-34 card with four eagles, two birdies, three bogies and the rest pars.

Patty took a bogey 5 on the final hole, missing an 8-foot putt after pulling an approach shot to the left of the green.

The putt was worth $1,500. If it had dropped for a par 4, it would have given her a 68, beating Babe Zaharias' competitive course record set last week and worth an extra prize of $1,500.

The Babe had a par 76 for her first round today.

Patty had a three-stroke lead over the field, her nearest pursuers being Louise Suggs, Beverly Hanson and Betty Hicks, each with 72's.

A pair of teenagers, Mickey Wright of San Diego, Stanford University student and recent winner of the All-American, and Jackie Yates, Honolulu high school lassie, paced the women amateurs division. Each shot 77 for a one stroke margin over Vonnie Colby of Hollywood, Fla., and Barbara Little, Wauwatosa, Wis.

Arnold Palmer of Cleveland, Ohio amateur titlist and former Southern intercollegiate champion for Wake Forest, coupled 34's for a 68 to head the men's amateur bracket. He was one stroke better than Frank Stranahan, seeking his fifth-straight "World" crown, and Jim McKeighen, a factory foreman from Gary, Ind.

First-round leaders Thursday in the $150,000 men's pro "World" golf tournament at Tam O'Shanter:

8-Foot Putt Costs Patty Berg $1,500

CHICAGO (AP)—A missed 8-foot putt on the final green Thursday cost Patty Berg $1,500 in the first round of the $12,000 "World" championship for women pros at Tam O'Shanter.

Patty, the defending champion, came to the last hole needing a par-4 for an amazing 68 that would smash Babe Zaharias' competitive course record set last week and be worth an extra prize of $1,500.

Patty's approach shot was pulled to the left of the green into the bleachers. She dropped out, without penalty under Tam ground rules, then chipped eight feet past the hole.

She missed the putt by three inches, taking a bogey 5 to finish with 34-35—69.

Rusty Collins Kayos Ithia In Fourth

BOSTON (AP) — Rusty Tommy Collins, attempting a ring comeback after being idle for 14 months, knocked out Jimmy Ithia of New York with a right chop to the chin in 1:47 of the fourth round Thursday night in a scheduled 10-round featherweight fight at the Arena

Collins, of Medford, Mass., weighed 127¼, Ithia, 125¼.

Ithia claimed he was on his feet when Referee Mel Manning reached the count of 10 but Manning ruled he didn't make it. Ithia was on one knee at four and was on his way up when Collins was declared the winner.

Collins' last fight was a 10th round technical knockout loss to Teddy (Red Top) Davis last June after his famous nine-knockdown, four-round loss to Jimmy Carter.

YOUR PATRONAGE
MEANS MUCH

To your Lincoln New Car Dealers because it is the mainstay of their business, the one thing that enables them to stay in business.

★

What do they mean to Lincoln? What do they mean to you? What reasons can they give for meriting the consideration and patronage of the people of Lincoln? These are pointed questions. Let's face them frankly.

★

First, the 15 members of the Lincoln New Car Dealers Association employ 521 men and women. Their total annual payroll amounts to $1,718,086.00. Their total capital investment is $4,049,590. Their combined rental payments total $168,726.00 annually.

★

They employ skilled labor. The payroll is sufficient to be of considerable value to Lincoln and the capital investments and rentals also have a substantial place in Lincoln's economic structure and picture.

★

Second, their Service Departments are modern and completely tooled and equipped to service not only a large percentage of the 41,657 cars and 7900 trucks registered in Lancaster County but many cars and trucks from adjacent counties.

★

Third, their Parts Departments are heavily stocked to furnish factory parts for these 41,657 cars and a large share of the 7900 trucks. In some cases, one dealer alone carries a parts inventory in excess of a quarter-million dollars.

★

These New Car Dealer Parts Departments not only serve the people of Lincoln and Independent garages in Lincoln, but in many cases they furnish parts for small-town dealers in the Lincoln area, in instances where the parts stocks of the latter are comparatively small.

★

Fourth, The Lincoln Dealers are competitive in their deals in every respect. They give you a good deal, which makes it unnecessary for anyone to go out of town, especially for a few dollars saving. Remember, the deal is ONLY the beginning. There is the long term of ownership following, during which satisfaction, adjustments, little repairs, and corrections are all very important to you and during which your home dealers save you more than you sometimes realize.

★

They are just as interested as every other Lincoln business in keeping Lincoln earnings in Lincoln, where-ever possible for the good of the community and for the good of everyone's job or business.

★

It isn't simply a matter of loyalty to one's community to Buy at Home, to buy where you earn your living or make your profit; it's basically a matter of sound business and practice.

West Division, Playoff Champions

Chet Singer's Irving A baseball team, which beat Prescott for the West Division championship in the City Baseball League, came from behind to beat the highly-touted East Division champs, Northeast, in the city playoffs. Northeast won the first game, but Irving became champion by winning two close contests. Team members were (from left) Dwight Meierhenry, Allen Chastain, Rodney Little, Roy Smith, Bob McGowen, Mike Morley, Vern Lotman, Earl (Porky) Oltman, Jim Fox, Jim Gourlay, John Barthell, Johnny Thompson, Dan Hegland and Coach Chet Singer. Absent when the picture was taken are Steve Levy, William Custer, Don Campbell, Tom Molder and Elmer Walin. (Star Photo.)

Stewart's 65, Burkemo's 66 Tops Tam

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—Red-haired Earl Stewart Jr., of Dallas slammed a 65 and Walter Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., 1953 PGA champion, rounded out a 66 Thursday to spearhead a mass assault on Tam O'Shanter's 36-36—72 par in the first round of the $150,000 "World" tournament.

Over half the field of 96 pros equalled or smashed regulation figures as the stampede for a history-making first prize of $50,000 in cash and a $50,000 exhibition contract started on the first leg of the 72-hold meet at the 6,900-yard Tam course.

Stewart, shadowed by his 7½-year-old son, Chip, posted his 30-35 early then watched the other money-hounds try to outdo it.

Burkemo, who at 35 is two years older than the former Louisiana State National Intercollegiate champion, nearly did it.

The affable Franklin pro, runner-up to Chick Harbert in the recent PGA tourney, fired a pair of consistent 33's for his 66.

The first-round rush, however, was more bunched than at any time in the dozen years Tam O'Shanter tournaments have been run.

67 For Palmer

Grouped at 67 were Johnny Palmer, the 1949 "World" champion; Bob Toski, 127-pounder who at 27 heads the younger pros in contention, and veteran Dutch Harrison.

Seven were jammed into the 68 bracket, including Sam Snead, the 1950 "World" winner Henry Ransom, Dave Douglas, British Open champion Peter Thomson, Shelley Mayfield, Claude Harmon and Jim Turnesa.

Tailing them at 69 were such campaigners as Porky Oliver, Jack Burke Jr., Flory van Donck of Brussels and two unheralded pros, Mike Souchak of Durham, N. C. and Bill Ogden of Chicago, former Illinois PGA titlist.

Jerry Barber, who took the All-American title at Tam last Sunday, Cary Middlecoff, Lloyd Mangrum and Doug Ford were among the favorites bracketed at 70. Chick Harbert, 1954 PGA champion, had 71 with a dozen others. Defending "World" champion Lew Worsham was nearly lost in the first-round shuffle with an even-par 72.

Gene Littler, 24-year-old choice of the younger set, struggled in with a 73 along with such seasoned players as Jimmy Demaret, Jim Ferrier and Freddie Haas.

But stealing the show was Stewart, a persistent money-winner who fashioned one of the most amazing first nines at Tam since Ralph Guldahl's record 29 in 1945.

Berg Leads Gals

Meanwhile, Patty Berg took charge of the $12,000 "World" competition for women pros with a blistering 69, seven-under-women's standard.

She decorated her 35-34 card with four eagles, two birdies, three bogies and the rest pars.

Patty took a bogey 5 on the final hole, missing an 8-foot putt after pulling an approach shot to the left of the green.

The putt was worth $1,500. If it had dropped for a par 4, it would have given her a 68, beating Babe Zaharias' competitive course record set last week and worth an extra prize of $1,500.

The Babe had a par 76 for her first round today.

Patty had a three-stroke lead over the field, her nearest pursuers being Louise Suggs, Beverly Hanson and Betty Hicks, each with 72's.

A pair of teenagers, Mickey Wright of San Diego, Stanford University student and recent winner of the All-American, and Jackie Yates, Honolulu high school lassie, paced the women amateurs division. Each shot 77 for a one stroke margin over Vonnie Colby of Hollywood, Fla., and Barbara Little, Wauwatosa, Wis.

Arnold Palmer of Cleveland, Ohio amateur titlist and former Southern intercollegiate champion for Wake Forest, coupled 34's for a 68 to head the men's amateur bracket. He was one stroke better than Frank Stranahan, seeking his fifth-straight "World" crown, and Jim McKeighen, a factory foreman from Gary, Ind.

First-round leaders Thursday in the $150,000 men's pro "World" golf tournament at Tam O'Shanter:

8-Foot Putt Costs Patty Berg $1,500

CHICAGO (AP)—A missed 8-foot putt on the final green Thursday cost Patty Berg $1,500 in the first round of the $12,000 "World" championship for women pros at Tam O'Shanter.

Patty, the defending champion, came to the last hole needing a par-4 for an amazing 68 that would smash Babe Zaharias' competitive course record set last week and be worth an extra prize of $1,500.

Patty's approach shot was pulled to the left of the green into the bleachers. She dropped out, without penalty under Tam ground rules, then chipped eight feet past the hole.

She missed the putt by three inches, taking a bogey 5 to finish with 34-35—69.

Unterseher Named Junior Davis Cup

Neil Unterseher of Lincoln, 14-year-old state Junior Boys singles tennis champion, has been selected to participate in a Junior Davis Cup program at St. Louis Aug. 17-20.

He is the only Nebraska member of a squad to be drawn from six midwestern states.

The Missouri Valley Tennis Association is sponsoring the program which includes competitive play and instruction of the players by Don Klatz, tennis coach at the University of Iowa.

Unterseher, h[illegible] Elaine and Sue Moss [illegible] will play in the K[illegible] Open this week end.

Rusty Collins Kayos Ithia In Fourth

BOSTON (AP) — Rusty Tommy Collins, attempting a ring comeback after being idle for 14 months, knocked out Jimmy Ithia of New York with a right chop to the chin in 1:47 of the fourth round Thursday night in a scheduled 10-round featherweight fight at the Arena.

Collins, of Medford, Mass., weighed 127¼, Ithia, 125¼.

Ithia claimed he was on his feet when Referee Mel Manning reached the count of 10 but Manning ruled he didn't make it. Ithia was on one knee at four and was on his way up when Collins was declared the winner.

Collins' last fight was a 10th round technical knockout loss to Teddy (Red Top) Davis last June after his famous nine-knockdown, four-round loss to Jimmy Carter.

Skipper Barrett Handles Knights

Lincoln Star Special

SUPERIOR — Manager Red Barrett of Lexington blanked Superior until the last two innings and killed a Knight rally in the ninth to save a 5-4 victory for Lex in the opening game of the Nebraska Independent League playoffs.

Ernie Trujillo struck out eight Lex batters but was hit for four singles and a double by Barrett for four runs in the fourth inning.

Ken McArdle, Bob Andrews and Bill Denker had two hits each for Lexington, and Manager Val Heim, Casey Wonka, Doc Graves and Ernie Trujillo hit twice each for the Knights.

YOUR PATRONAGE MEANS MUCH

To your Lincoln New Car Dealers because it is the mainstay of their business, the one thing that enables them to stay in business.

★

What do they mean to Lincoln? What do they mean to you? What reasons can they give for meriting the consideration and patronage of the people of Lincoln? These are pointed questions. Let's face them frankly.

★

First, the 15 members of the Lincoln New Car Dealers Association employ 521 men and women. Their total annual payroll amounts to $1,718,086.00. Their total capital investment is $4,049,590. Their combined rental payments total $168,726.00 annually.

★

They employ skilled labor. The payroll is sufficient to be of considerable value to Lincoln and the capital investments and rentals also have a substantial place in Lincoln's economic structure and picture.

★

Second, their Service Departments are modern and completely tooled and equipped to service not only a large percentage of the 41,657 cars and 7900 trucks registered in Lancaster County but many cars and trucks from adjacent counties.

★

Third, their Parts Departments are heavily stocked to furnish factory parts for these 41,657 cars and a large share of the 7900 trucks. In some cases, one dealer alone carries a parts inventory in excess of a quarter-million dollars.

★

These New Car Dealer Parts Departments not only serve the people of Lincoln and Independent garages in Lincoln, but in many cases they furnish parts for small-town dealers in the Lincoln area, in instances where the parts stocks of the latter are comparatively small.

★

Fourth, The Lincoln Dealers are competitive in their deals in every respect. They give you a good deal, which makes it unnecessary for anyone to go out of town, especially for a few dollars saving. Remember, the deal is ONLY the beginning. There is the long term of ownership following, during which satisfaction, adjustments, little repairs, and corrections are all very important to you and during which your home dealers save you more than you sometimes realize.

★

They are just as interested as every other Lincoln business in keeping Lincoln earnings in Lincoln, where-ever possible for the good of the community and for the good of everyone's job or business.

★

It isn't simply a matter of loyalty to one's community to Buy at Home, to buy where you earn your living or make your profit; it's basically a matter of sound business and practice.

PIE FILLING RECIPE . . .

2¼ cups canned red sour cherries (drained)
¾ cup sugar
⅜ teaspoon salt
½ cup juice
¼ cup cornstarch
¼ cup juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter
Coloring if needed
1/16 teaspoon nutmeg

Heat in a saucepan the sugar, salt, and one-half cup juice. Mix together cornstarch and the one-fourth cup juice and stir into the first mixture. Cook until thickened. Remove from heat and add lemon juice, butter, nutmeg, and coloring, if needed. Carefully mix in the well-drained cherries. Let cool while making pastry. Pour into pastry-lined pie pan. Moisten the pastry around the edge with water and arrange pastry strips, lattice fashion, over the top. Trim off surplus pastry and crimp. Bake at 425° for 30 minutes.

IT'S CHERRY PIE TIME at IGA

A real treat!

PIE FILLING RECIPE . . .

2¼ cups canned red sour cherries (drained)
¾ cup sugar
⅜ teaspoon salt
½ cup juice
¼ cup cornstarch
¼ cup juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter
Coloring if needed
1/16 teaspoon nutmeg

Heat in a saucepan the sugar, salt, and one-half cup juice. Mix together cornstarch and the one-fourth cup juice and stir into the first mixture. Cook until thickened. Remove from heat and add lemon juice, butter, nutmeg, and coloring, if needed. Carefully mix in the well-drained cherries. Let cool while making pastry. Pour into pastry-lined pie pan. Moisten the pastry around the edge with water and arrange pastry strips, lattice fashion, over the top. Trim off surplus pastry and crimp. Bake at 425° for 30 minutes.

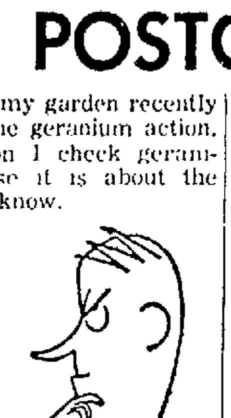
STAN DELAPLANE'S

POSTCARD

Sitting about my garden recently and checking the geranium action. And the reason I check geraniums is because it is about the only flower I know.



I am a Nature boy and, as a matter of fact, I am Nature's boy. Nature has had me over a natural barrel most of my natural life.

Nature to me is the bill for top soil. One hundred and fifty hard-won skins.

"Sweet Jupiter! A $150 for dirt"

Well, then there is a good deal of explanation. This dirt is very special. It has been cozied and sifted and loved and nurtured for many, many years. By whom, pray? By Nature. Nature should send me a bill. WOW!

☆ ☆

This is not the way I read about Nature. Nature is Jack London stories. The Law of the Fang and Claw. Eat or be eaten. I eat a lot. But Nature's mosquitoes eat more. I am barely a pound ahead.

Nature is ants in the pantry. Nature is birds and bees. The birds wake up at dawn's early light and start cutting up touches with each other. They wrestle with worms and raise all manner of noise.

There is little sleep when Nature's birds are up and about.

The bees are another matter. As I understand, wise old Nature made the flowers.

"Now," she said, "we gotta get a way so these pretty flowers can have dates and hold hands and other such natural items."

She thereupon invented the bee. The bee rubs from one flower to another. He carries the messages of affection.

☆ ☆ ☆

This shows how mixed up Mother Nature is. If the whole thing had been on the level, why didn't she give the geraniums a pair of hands so they could hold hands And a couple of feet so they could walk around the park.

No, it all has to be done with bees.

The bees do not know their business. They think their business is to hover around my head. Naturally, this makes me nervous. For a bee carries a very sharp bayonet and is apt to ram it into you if he gets nervous.

To me, a bee always looks nervous.

I am opposed to bees and am of the opinion that honey could be made cheaper in synthetics anyway.

☆ ☆ ☆

Nature is supposed to provide me with an overflowing garden of posies. That is the way I read the books on Nature.

Nature takes every piece of unoccupied real estate in the country and covers it with flowers.

What happens to my pitiful piece of real estate. She will cover it with nothing unless I cover it first with highpriced top soil.

I must fill my pinkies with shovel splinters. I must break my aching back with a wheel barrow. I must take all manner of scoffing advice from my neighbor. And in the end I must hire a landscape architect, buy flowers from the florist and hire a wealthy gardener to keep the blooming things alive.

☆ ☆ ☆

That is why I check the geranium action. Geraniums are my friends. They grow practically wild and with no encouragement. They do not require expensive top soil or Vitamin B injections.

When I look at geraniums I feel that we have put Nature in her place. Nature's step-children. The two of us. Me and the geranium.

Drop Of Chadron, Rapid City Rail Trains Approved

The State Railway Commission approved discontinuance of what was described as the last rail line passenger link between Chadron, Neb., and Rapid City, S. D.

The commission approved of the request of the Chicago and North Western to drop passenger trains 13 and 14 between Chadron and the South Dakota border.

The South Dakota Commission had approved discontinuance of the service between the state line and Rapid City.

Wayside was the only point between Chadron and the state line affected by the move.

Credit Now Essential Farm Tool, State PCA Conference Told

Credit has become an essential farm tool, Harold Miles, deputy governor of the Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C., told members of the Nebraska Production Credit Associations Thursday night.

The group is holding a two-day conference in Lincoln for directors and officers of 11 state PCAs. About 125 persons were at the banquet.

Miles told them that farmers and stockmen are finding it desirable to develop and maintain their own facilities in order to have "a dependable credit home."

Kansas State College, he said, has found that a farmer has to have an "investment in land, buildings, equipment and livestock of $29,000 to $61,000, or an average of $43,000 to provide a full time job for each man on a farm."

Miles said that when Congress made $120 million available for investment in the production Credit System in 1933 it was hoped that farmers and stockmen would eventually be able to provide capital to maintain their own association and repay the government investment.

He congratulated the Nebraska group as being one of 17 states where all credit co-operatives have retired all of the government-owned stock.

Guest speaker at the morning session was E. J. Petrik, president of the Production Credit Corporation of Omaha.

Other speakers included Dr. J. B. Fuller, Torrington, Wyo., chairman of Omaha Farm Credit Board; Richard G. Ford, extension economist, University of Nebraska College of Agriculture; Stewart Roberts, publishing company representative, Des Moines, Ia.; H. L. Gayer, Omaha; Lee R. Wells, Axtell; H. H. Schroder, Grant; and Richard Spangler, Plattsmouth.

Mrs. C. J. Warner was in charge of a ladies luncheon and tour Thursday. The men will conclude their meeting Friday morning.

AFL Fires Newsman For 'Not Labeling Opinions'

NEW YORK (AP) — AFL President George Meany said Thursday the federation has fired Frank Edwards as its radio news reporter because he disagreed with AFL directives that "opinions should be clearly labeled as opinion and interpretation."

Meany said at a news conference that Edwards submitted his resignation effective Dec. 31 but the Executive Council exercised its option under its contract and terminated Edwards' services Wednesday.

Although Edwards had agreed verbally that opinion and news should be separated, Meany said, he disagreed with the policy after it was put in writing and issued as an AFL directive on Aug. 2.

"Strict Censorship'

In Washington, Edwards said Meany imposed "without my agreement a strict censorship of my selection and use of news material."

"It was both a violation and variation of the terms of my written contract with the AFL," Edwards said.

He also said he had been ordered to "channel" all news and information for his broadcast through "the AFL censor."

This, he said, "in practice amounted to a direction to slant the news to fit his (Meany's) personal ambitions, animosities and prejudices."

'Time Being'

Edwards had been the news reporter and commentator on the AFL radio news program since its inception four years ago. The program was heard on 160 Mutual Broadcasting System stations five nights a week. Meany said Harry Flannery had replaced Edwards "for the time being."

Philip Pearl, AFL public relations director, said the federation "couldn't be put in a position of putting on a colored presentation of the news."

Reappointments Made To Scholarship Group

Gov. Robert Crosby Thursday re-appointed Mrs. Don Wightman of Wayne and George Pardee of Omaha to the Nebraska Committee on Fulbright Scholarships for three year terms.

Floyd Lackaff of Bassett was re-appointed to the State Brand Committee for a four year term.

Sen. W. J. Williams In November Race

Through a transmission error it was shown in the Thursday Star that Sen. W. J. "Lefty" Williams had been eliminated in Tuesday's primary as representative from the 34th district. The report showed he received 785 votes instead of the 1,785 actually cast for him.

The veteran Kearney legislator thus was in second place in total votes and will be one of the two contesting in November.

Late return indicate that Sen. Herbert Duis, Gothenburg, was the only senator failing to gain renomination.

A recheck of totals in the 23rd district show that Sen. C. C. Lillibrodge of Crete was high among the three candidates. The early reports showed him in second place. He has served the district for four terms.

The recheck showed Sen. Lillibridge received 2,300 votes to 2,258 for Mervin H. Bedford of Geneva and 1,536 for Harry E. Miller of Tobias.

Landowners, Renters Differ Over School Reorganization

More than 400 persons attended a meeting of the state committee on school district reorganization Thursday as county plans were considered.

Chief difference of opinion seemed to be between owners of land without children of school age, who opposed reorganization for fear taxes would be increased, and renters with children seeking better educational opportunities for their children.

Clashes between proponents of redistricting and opponents often became heated. After the hearing the board held an executive session and took the following action:

Approved

Kearney County—Proposal to merge rural district No. 40 to the Minden district and dissolve No. 47 and attach that territory to the Minden and Heartwell districts.

Nuckolls-Thayer Counties — Proposal to attach Nos. 62 and 83 of Nuckolls County to the Byron rural high school district in Thayer County.

Banner-Scotts Bluff Counties — Proposal to divide joint district No. 9-26 to form two separate districts, one in each county.

Cheyenne County—Proposal to attach part of No. 70J to No. 91.

Kearney-Buffalo Counties—Proposal to merge No. 2 of Kearney County and No. 72 in Buffalo County to form new district.

Seward County—Proposal to merge part of No. 59 to Utica and part of No. 28 to Seward.

Thayer County—Proposal to merge Nos. 19, 49 and 72 to Bruning.

Knox County—Proposal to attach part of No. 94 to No. 87

Frontier County—Proposal to merge Nos. 49, 91 and 100.

Logan County—Proposal to dissolve No. 21 and to attach it to No. 1, and dissolve Nos. 29 and 30 and form new district No. 59.

Dixon County—Proposal to attach part of No. 68 to No. 70.

Rejected

Gage County—Proposal to attach No. 142 with 152 and with Odell District were both rejected and referred to county superintendent for dissolution of No. 142 and the addition of parts of it to No. 152 and parts to Odell. Proposal to merge No. 67 to No. 145.

Seward County—Proposal to merge No. 86 with Nos. 6 and 7.

Otoe County—Proposal to merge Nos. 45 and 95

Postponed

Thayer County—Proposal to merge Nos. 9 and 70 with Hubbell, at request of petitioners

Cass County—Proposal to merge five districts around Nehawka because one of the petitions necessary has not been presented to the state committee.

Fisher Is Now City Engineer

Deputy City Engineer Carl Fisher, in the city's engineering department since 1915, has been named full city engineer.

Fisher

Present city engineer D. L. Erickson will remain director of the department of parks, public property and improvements. He will now give special attention to the two city utilities under his direction and other departments besides engineering.

Fisher went to work for the city directly after completing his education at the University of Nebraska. After two years in the Army in World War I, Fisher returned as a city employee in 1919 and was elevated to deputy shortly thereafter.

In approving the change, the City Council also raised Fisher's salary from $7,200 to $8,000 a year.

Woman Is Injured Slightly In Mishap

Mary Bell Ring, 22, of 2124 O was treated for a scratched arm following a two-car collision at the intersection of U.S. Highway 6 and the Lincoln Air Force Base road.

She was treated at the base dispensary after the car she was driving was in collision with another car early Thursday morning.

The other driver was John Webster, 21, LAFB. Investigating officers said Webster's car was stopped at a stop sign. Collision impact drove both cars onto the highway, they said.

Chicoine Vote 8,889

The Lincoln Star erroneously listed the vote total of Joe Chicoine of Valentine in the Sixth District State Board of Education race as 889. The figure should have been 8,889.

Power Request Is Turned Down

OMAHA (AP)—The Omoha Public Power District will not get power from the federal government's Missouri Basin hydroelectric projects.

That word, which came out of a board of directors meeting, means OPPD must increase its own generating facilities.

"The board of directors will take early action to consider installing another generating unit at the new North Omaha power station to be ready in 1957," President J. M. Harding said.

The utility had negotiated for more than six years for Missouri Basin power.

The Bureau of Reclamation turned down the OPPD bid on the contention that the utility had adequate efficient generating capacity to carry its 1958 load. It has reported that firm power available through 1958 was oversubscribed.

Architectural Change Hits Elevator Circles

COZAD, Neb. (AP)—Low-style architecture has reached the grain elevator business here.

The Cozad Elevator Co. has just begun to store wheat in a new horizontal type all-metal elevator. The structure measures nearly 150 feet in length. It is 56 feet deep and 21 feet high and provides storage for 150,000 bushels of wheat.

AFL Fires Newsman For 'Not Labeling Opinions'

NEW YORK (AP) — AFL President George Meany said Thursday the federation has fired Frank Edwards as its radio news reporter because he disagreed with AFL directives that "opinions should be clearly labeled as opinion and interpretation."

Meany said at a news conference that Edwards submitted his resignation effective Dec. 31 but the Executive Council exercised its option under its contract and terminated Edwards' services Wednesday.

Although Edwards had agreed verbally that opinion and news should be separated, Meany said, he disagreed with the policy after it was put in writing and issued as an AFL directive on Aug. 2.

"Strict Censorship'

In Washington, Edwards said Meany imposed "without my agreement a strict censorship of my selection and use of news material."

"It was both a violation and variation of the terms of my written contract with the AFL," Edwards said.

He also said he had been ordered to "channel" all news and information for his broadcast through "the AFL censor."

This, he said, "in practice amounted to a direction to slant the news to fit his (Meany's) personal ambitions, animosities and prejudices."

'Time Being'

Edwards had been the news reporter and commentator on the AFL radio news program since its inception four years ago. The program was heard on 160 Mutual Broadcasting System stations five nights a week. Meany said Harry Flannery had replaced Edwards "for the time being."

Philip Pearl, AFL public relations director, said the federation "couldn't be put in a position of putting on a colored presentation of the news."

Reappointments Made To Scholarship Group

Gov. Robert Crosby Thursday re-appointed Mrs. Don Wightman of Wayne and George Pardee of Omaha to the Nebraska Committee on Fulbright Scholarships for three year terms.

Floyd Lackaff of Bassett was re-appointed to the State Brand Committee for a four year term.

Sen. W. J. Williams In November Race

Through a transmission error it was shown in the Thursday Star that Sen. W. J. "Lefty" Williams had been eliminated in Tuesday's primary as representative from the 34th district. The report showed he received 785 votes instead of the 1,785 actually cast for him.

The veteran Kearney legislator thus was in second place in total votes and will be one of the two contesting in November.

Late return indicate that Sen. Herbert Duis, Gothenburg, was the only senator failing to gain renomination.

A recheck of totals in the 23rd district show that Sen. C. C. Lillibrodge of Crete was high among the three candidates. The early reports showed him in second place. He has served the district for four terms.

The recheck showed Sen. Lillibridge received 2,300 votes to 2,258 for Mervin H. Bedford of Geneva and 1,536 for Harry E. Miller of Tobias.

Ike Prods Conferees To Kill Objectionable Farm Bill Provisions

Some Minor Differences Are Settled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees Thursday began hammering out a compromise farm bill under prodding by President Eisenhower to kill dairy and wheat provisions objectionable to the administration.

At the end of the first day of closed-door sessions, the conferees had settled nearly a dozen minor differences.

"We haven't tackled the tough questions yet," said Rep. Hope (R-Kan), chairman of the House Agriculture Committee and chairman of the conference group.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, told newsmen there was a "possibility we can get through Friday night, although at noon I didn't think we would ever get done."

As the conferees started work, President Eisenhower wrote Aiken and Hope asking for changes more along the line of the kind of bill he wants.

He asked for continued authority for Secretary of Agriculture Benson to suppot dairy prices between 75 and 90 per cent of parity. Supports now are 75 per cent. This is in line with the Senate bill, but the House provided a minimum of 80 per cent. Parity is a standard designed to reflect a fair price for farmers in relation to their costs.

The President also asked for elimination of a provision of the House bill for a two-price plan for wheat, under which the domestic price would be higher than the export price.

He asked, too, that the two-year limit the House voted to put on the administration program to encourage wool production be dropped. He asked removal of a Senate provision restricting the secretary of agriculture's authority to limit the number of terms a county committeeman could serve under the farm program.

Neither Aiken nor Hope had any comment on the President's letter.

On dairy supports, Eisenhower wrote:

"To me it is inescapable that an increase in this level (75-90 per cent) would be injurious, not helpful, to the dairy industry, for it would diminish the consumption of dairy products, increase the accumulation of surplus stocks and add needlessly and therefore wastefully to the cost of this program to the public. This would also result in excessive windfall profits to the handlers of dairy products."

The conferees accepted a Senate provision permitting the growers of long staple cotton to accept minimum-level price supports at 75 per cent of parity. The practical effect would be to allow growers of extra-long staple Egyptian cotton to sell more freely in the open market. Principal areas affected would be the deep Southwest, Arizona and California.

Boy, 12, Has Good Cry As Fishhook Taken From Eye

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Young Roman Trzcinski could cry Thursday for the first time in nearly two months—and did.

Roman, 12, is the lad who's had a piece of fishhook in his eye since June 20. It was removed Thursday during an operation which lasted more than two hours at St. Luke's Hospital.

The hook, cast by another boy during a vacation trip to Fish Creek, Wis., curved around the back of Roman's eyeball and buried its barb in soft tissue at the back of the eye socket. An operation three days later failed and Roman was sent home.

Dr. Clemens Kwapy, working with a local anesthetic, lost the hook several times during Thursday's operation, but each time Roman encouraged him to keep trying, saying: "You promised me you'd take it out today."

The lad's mother, Mrs. Roman Trzcinski, said after the operation was over that he "had his first cry since it happened in June." She said he was in no pain and that he had been able to see out of the eye even with the fishhook in it.

50,000th Phone Installed

Next to Waters is Mayor Clark Jeary. At far right is Dale Bruggeman, engineer with the State Highway Department. (Star Photo.)

Ceremony Accompanies LT&T's 50,000th Telephone Installation

The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co. has installed the 50,000th telephone in Lincoln in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale V. Bruggeman, 4724 M.

Following a special installation ceremony, Mrs. Bruggeman placed the first call to her mother, Mrs. Robert E. Harry of York.

A. B. Waters, district commercial manager for LT&T, stated that the number of telephones in Lincoln has doubled since 1936 and that 10,000 phones have been added here in the last five years. Lincoln is the largest of the company's 124 exchanges in 22 southeast Nebraska counties.

The Lincoln system is distinctive in that it was the first one in Nebraska to have a successful dial service. It was also the first independent exchange in the United States to offer mobile radio telephone service.

The first LT&T exchange was started in Lincoln in 1904 at 231 So. 14th.

Attending the special installation ceremonies besides Waters were Mayor Clark Jeary, John Curtiss, president of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; Richard H. Larson, Nebraska Railway Commission; Merle M. Hale, company vice president; K. L. Lawson, company general commercial superintendent; A. B. Gorman, company advertising manager; and Joe Hartley, editor of the company's employee publication.

Airmen's Club Bid $107,298

Wilson Construction Co. of Lincoln submitted the apparent low bid of $107,298 on two additions to the Airmen's Club at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

The bid was approximately $19,802 less than the government's estimate of $127,100. The Corps of Engineers said low bid approval and contract award would probably be made Friday.

Other bidders were George Cook Construction Co., Lincoln, $118,144; Korshoj Construction Co., Blair, $110,211.50; Olson Construction Co., Lincoln, $113-726, and Kingery Construction Co., Lincoln, $124,376.

The additions will consist of two one-story structures to the present airmen's club. One will be 128 by 96 feet and the other 60 by 40 feet.

Other work includes miscellaneous items of relocation of sewer and power lines and top soil and seeding.

Completion date for the work is set for 210 days after the contract is awarded.

Employers Pay

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce of the United States estimated that employers pay between 20 and 25 billion dollars a year to workers in pension and insurance and other non-wage "fringe benefits."

The chamber said the value of such benefits, as showed in a biannual survey of 940 employers, had grown to $720 per worker a year in 1953, up $76 per year from 1951.

Franco-Cambodia Treaty Meeting May Start Aug. 20

PARIS (INS) — A spokesman for the Indochinese Associated States announced that Franco-Cambodian treaty negotiations will open in Paris about Aug. 20.

Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam states all have been promised independence by the French.

Gen. Paul Ely, commander-in-chief in Indochina, is enroute to Paris to report on conditions in south Viet-Nam, which the Associated States spokesman, Andre Saint-Mleux, described as "chaotic."

One Survivor Of Jet Crash Picked Up

TOKYO (Friday) (INS)—Far East Air Force headquarters in Tokyo announced Thursday that one flyer has been picked up and rescue planes have abandoned search for three others who bailed out of two jet aircraft which collided over the open sea near Okinawa.

The collision involved two F-94 Starfires flying a training mission southeast of the strategic island fortress.

Teamwork between an Air Force SA-16 amphibian plane and a rescue boat resulted in the saving of one of the pilots less than an hour after he had bailed out. He was apparently uninjured.

No trace of the other three airmen was found despite an all-night search by Air Force and Navy planes.

No Objection Seen

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — Rear Adm. Lorenzo Sabin, commander of U. S. Amphibious Forces in the Western Pacific, said Thursday he forsees no possible Communist objections to the American Navy's participation in evacuation of some 100,000 Vietnamese from North Viet Nam.

Ike Prods Conferees To Kill Objectionable Farm Bill Provisions

Some Minor Differences Are Settled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees Thursday began hammering out a compromise farm bill under prodding by President Eisenhower to kill dairy and wheat provisions objectionable to the administration.

At the end of the first day of closed-door sessions, the conferees had settled nearly a dozen minor differences.

"We haven't tackled the tough questions yet," said Rep. Hope (R-Kan), chairman of the House Agriculture Committee and chairman of the conference group.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, told newsmen there was a "possibility we can get through Friday night, although at noon I didn't think we would ever get done."

As the conferees started work, President Eisenhower wrote Aiken and Hope asking for changes more along the line of the kind of bill he wants.

He asked for continued authority for Secretary of Agiculture Benson to suppot dairy prices between 75 and 90 per cent of parity. Supports now are 75 per cent. This is in line with the Senate bill, but the House provided a minimum of 80 per cent. Parity is a standard designed to reflect a fair price for farmers in relation to their costs.

The President also asked for elimination of a provision of the House bill for a two-price plan for wheat, under which the domestic price would be higher than the export price.

He asked, too, that the two-year limit the House voted to put on the administration program to encourage wool production be dropped. He asked removal of a Senate provision restricting the secretary of agriculture's authority to limit the number of terms a county committeeman could serve under the farm program.

Neither Aiken nor Hope had any comment on the President's letter.

On dairy supports, Eisenhower wrote:

"To me it is inescapable that an increase in this level (75-90 per cent) would be injurious, not helpful, to the dairy industry, for it would diminish the consumption of dairy products, increase the accumulation of surplus stocks and add needlessly and therefore wastefully to the cost of this program to the public. This would also result in excessive windfall profits to the handlers of dairy products."

The conferees accepted a Senate provision permitting the growers of long staple cotton to accept minimum-level price supports at 75 per cent of parity. The practical effect would be to allow growers of extra-long staple Egyptian cotton to sell more freely in the open market. Principal areas affected would be the deep Southwest, Arizona and California.

Boy, 12, Has Good Cry As Fishhook Taken From Eye

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Young Roman Trzcinski could cry Thursday for the first time in nearly two months—and did.

Roman, 12, is the lad who's had a piece of fishhook in his eye since June 20. It was removed Thursday during an operation which lasted more than two hours at St. Luke's Hospital.

The hook, cast by another boy during a vacation trip to Fish Creek, Wis., curved around the back of Roman's eyeball and buried its barb in soft tissue at the back of the eye socket. An operation three days later failed and Roman was sent home.

Dr. Clemens Kwapy, working with a local anesthetic, lost the hook several times during Thursday's operation, but each time Roman encouraged him to keep trying, saying: "You promised me you'd take it out today."

The lad's mother, Mrs. Roman Trzcinski, said after the operation was over that he "had his first cry since it happened in June." She said he was in no pain and that he had been able to see out of the eye even with the fishhook in it.

50,000th Phone Installed

Ceremony Accompanies LT&T's 50,000th Telephone Installation

The Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co. has installed the 50,000th telephone in Lincoln in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale V. Bruggeman, 4724 M.

Following a special installation ceremony, Mrs. Bruggeman placed the first call to her mother, Mrs. Robert E. Harry of York.

A. B. Waters, district commercial manager for LT&T, stated that the number of telephones in Lincoln has doubled since 1936 and that 10,000 phones have been added here in the last five years. Lincoln is the largest of the company's 124 exchanges in 22 southeast Nebraska counties.

The Lincoln system is distinctive in that it was the first one in Nebraska to have a successful dial service. It was also the first independent exchange in the United States to offer mobile radio telephone service.

The first LT&T exchange was started in Lincoln in 1904 at 231 So. 14th.

Attending the special installation ceremonies besides Waters were Mayor Clark Jeary, John Curtiss, president of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce; Richard H. Larson, Nebraska Railway Commission; Merle M. Hale, company vice president; K. L. Lawson, company general commercial superintendent; A. B. Gorman, company advertising manager; and Joe Hartley, editor of the company's employee publication.

Airmen's Club Bid $107,298

Wilson Construction Co. of Lincoln submitted the apparent low bid of $107,298 on two additions to the Airmen's Club at the Lincoln Air Force Base.

The bid was approximately $19,802 less than the government's estimate of $127,100. The Corps of Engineers said low bid approval and contract award would probably be made Friday.

Other bidders were George Cook Construction Co., Lincoln, $118,144; Korshoj Construction Co., Blair, $110,211.50; Olson Construction Co., Lincoln, $113-726, and Kingery Construction Co., Lincoln, $124,376.

The additions will consist of two one-story structures to the present airmen's club. One will be 128 by 96 feet and the other 60 by 40 feet.

Other work includes miscellaneous items of relocation of sewer and power lines and top soil and seeding.

Completion date for the work is set for 210 days after the contract is awarded.

Employers Pay

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce of the United States estimated that employers pay between 20 and 25 billion dollars a year to workers in pension and insurance and other non-wage "fringe benefits."

The chamber said the value of such benefits, as showed in a biannual survey of 940 employers, had grown to $720 per worker a year in 1953, up $76 per year from 1951.

Franco-Cambodia Treaty Meeting May Start Aug. 20

PARIS (INS) — A spokesman for the Indochinese Associated States announced that Franco-Cambodian treaty negotiations will open in Paris about Aug. 20.

Cambodia, Laos and Vietnam states all have been promised independence by the French.

Gen. Paul Ely, commander-in-chief in Indochina, is enroute to Paris to report on conditions in south Viet-Nam, which the Associated States spokesman, Andre Saint-Mleux, described as "chaotic."

One Survivor Of Jet Crash Picked Up

TOKYO (Friday) (INS)—Far East Air Force headquarters in Tokyo announced Thursday that one flyer has been picked up and rescue planes have abandoned search for three others who bailed out of two jet aircraft which collided over the open sea near Okinawa.

The collision involved two F-94 Starfires flying a training mission southeast of the strategic island fortress.

Teamwork between an Air Force SA-16 amphibian plane and a rescue boat resulted in the saving of one of the pilots less than an hour after he had bailed out. He was apparently uninjured.

No trace of the other three airmen was found despite an all-night search by Air Force and Navy planes.

No Objection Seen

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — Rear Adm. Lorenzo Sabin, commander of U. S. Amphibious Forces in the Western Pacific, said Thursday he forsees no possible Communist objections to the American Navy's participation in evacuation of some 100,000 Vietnamese from North Viet Nam.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

How do you thing Black Friday got its melancholy monnicker? Because of the pocket that is nearest a man's heart. Money.

☆ ☆ ☆

The eleventh of May, 1866, flipped on a Friday darker than a mule's bedroom. The day before the London firm Overend. Gurney and Company hung up an "out to lunch" sign. The menu was bankruptcy with parsley.

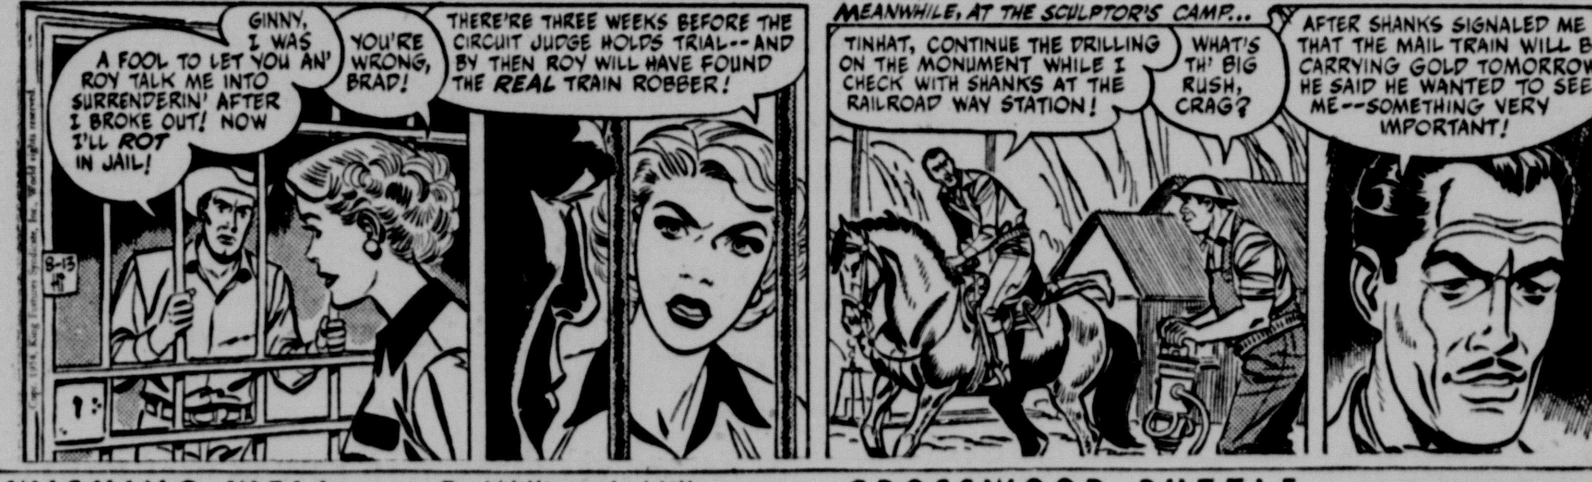
ROY ROGERS, King Of The Cowboys

By Al McKinson



GINNY, I WAS A FOOL TO LET YOU AN' ROY TALK ME INTO SURRENDERIN' AFTER I BROKE OUT! NOW I'LL ROT IN JAIL!
YOU'RE WRONG, BRAD!
THERE'RE THREE WEEKS BEFORE THE CIRCUIT JUDGE HOLDS TRIAL--AND BY THEN ROY WILL HAVE FOUND THE REAL TRAIN ROBBER!
8-13
MEANWHILE, AT THE SCULPTOR'S CAMP...
TINHAT, CONTINUE THE DRILLING ON THE MONUMENT WHILE I CHECK WITH SHANKS AT THE RAILROAD WAY STATION!
WHAT'S TH' BIG RUSH, CRAG?
AFTER SHANKS SIGNALED ME THAT THE MAIL TRAIN WILL BE CARRYING GOLD TOMORROW, HE SAID HE WANTED TO SEE ME--SOMETHING VERY IMPORTANT!

WISHING WELL

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

BAERING DOWN ON THE NEWS

We are no more superstitious than an African voodoo mechanic in a fright wig. Nevertheloose, we are not pulling black cats through freshly honed venetian blinds today.

How do you thing Black Friday got its melancholy monnicker? Because of the pocket that is nearest a man's heart. Money.

☆ ☆ ☆

The eleventh of May, 1866, flipped on a Friday darker than a mule's bedroom. The day before the London firm Overend, Gurney and Company hung up an "out to lunch" sign. The menu was bankruptcy with parsley.

☆ ☆ ☆

The English come to a slow burn like an outdoor barbecue with a magnifying glass. When they realized Overend and Gurney had pulled the badger they threw a well-tailored panic.

☆ ☆ ☆

Gurney and his brother were tried and acquitted of conspiracy to defraud, cum laude.

☆ ☆ ☆

Three years later in New York Jay Gould and his street-corner mob tried the same thing. The street corner was Broad and Wall.

☆ ☆ ☆

Gould pulled the plug on gold on Friday, Sept. 24, 1869. He pegged the price of gold at 162½, ringside. It was an appendectomy on pockets to remove the clink.

Therefore, if you haven't any money you have no more to worry about than a clam at high tide. We have always claimed that no broker was safe and sound who could open one without the other.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Grains Move Up As Wheat Firms

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains moved higher on the board of trade again Thursday, marking the second day of advance following issuance of a surprisingly bullish government crop report.

At the start the market didn't look as if it were going to get anywhere. Most contracts were a little lower and soybeans dropped about 3 cents under Wednesday's finish. Then wheat started to firm. It's strength spread to the rest of the list.

Wheat closed 1¾-2⅜ higher, corn ⅝ to 1 cent higher, oats ⅝-1⅛ higher. Rye 2¼ to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Stock Mart Hits Snag, Lists Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market encountered some rough going Thursday but emerged with only moderate losses on reduuced volume.

Most of the time prices moved irregularly. It was only in the final stages of trading that prices started to turn down all around.

There were many individual points of strength in the market, including a few aircrafts. That division on balance, however, was lower along with the steels, railroads, radio-televisions, motors and utilities.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 50 cents at $133.10 with the industrial component off 40 cents, railroads down 80 cents, and utilities lower by 10 cents.

Volume came to only 2,080,000 shares, compared with 3,440,000 shares traded Wednesday.

Expanding interest on the rise and dwindling enthusiasm on the fall is regarded in Wall Street as very bullish.

Studebaker, whose workers voted to take a pay cut to help keep the company going, was quietly steady and closed unchanged at 17⅝.

The American Stock Exchange was somewhat mixed but with a higher tendency evident in many areas. Trading amounted to 830,000 shares, the same as Wednesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroads pulled the corporate bond market upward Thursday. Selected industrials also improved.

The corporate list inched upward as the trading pace slackened. Volume declined to $3,362,000 par value from $4,340,000 Wednesday. Medium grade carriers were favorites. But a narrow majority of industrials and utilities also made progress.

U.S. government securities were unchanged to up minor fractions. The 30-year 3¼s rose 2/32 at 114 24/32 bid as did Victory Loan 2½s of 1967-72 at 100 12/32 bid.

Mrs. Paulsen, 53, Rites In Lincoln

Mrs. Alma Paulsen, 53, former Lincoln resident, died suddenly Wednesday night of a heart attack at her home in Alhambra, Calif.

A native of Lincoln, she had been employed in the office at Miller and Paine for about 18 years. She left Lincoln about 15 years ago.

She was a member of Vine Camp 3720, Royal Neighbors of America, and Lincoln Chapter 148, Order of the Eastern Star.

Funeral services will be held in Lincoln early next week.

Surviving are her husband, James L.; and two sisters, Mrs. Ruth M. Sieck of Lincoln and Mrs. Agnes M. Erny of Grand Island.

Grains Move Up As Wheat Firms

CHICAGO (AP)—Grains moved higher on the board of trade again Thursday, marking the second day of advance following issuance of a surprisingly bullish government crop report.

At the start the market didn't look as if it were going to get anywhere. Most contracts were a little lower and soybeans dropped about 3 cents under Wednesday's finish. Then wheat started to firm. It's strength spread to the rest of the list.

Wheat closed 1¾-2⅜ higher, corn ⅝ to 1 cent higher, oats ⅝-1⅛ higher. Rye 2¼ to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Stock Mart Hits Snag, Lists Loss

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market encountered some rough going Thursday but emerged with only moderate losses on reduuced volume.

Most of the time prices moved irregularly. It was only in the final stages of trading that prices started to turn down all around.

There were many individual points of strength in the market, including a few aircrafts. That division on balance, however, was lower along with the steels, railroads, radio-televisions, motors and utilities.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 50 cents at $133.10 with the industrial component off 40 cents, railroads down 80 cents, and utilities lower by 10 cents.

Volume came to only 2,680,000 shares, compared with 3,440,000 shares traded Wednesday.

Expanding interest on the rise and dwindling enthusiasm on the fall is regarded in Wall Street as very bullish.

Studebaker, whose workers voted to take a pay cut to help keep the company going, was quiuetly steady and closed unchanged at 17⅞.

The American Stock Exchange was somewhat mixed but with a higher tendency evident in many areas. Trading amounted to 830,000 shares, the same as Wednesday.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)—Railroads pulled the corporate bond market upward Thursday. Selected industrials also improved.

The corporate list inched upward as the trading pace slackened. Volume declined to $3,362,000 par value from $4,340,000 Wednesday. Medium grade carriers were favorites. But a narrow majority of industrials and utilities also made progress.

U.S. government securities were unchcnged to up minor fractions. The 30-year 3¼s rose 2/32 at 114 24/32 bid as did Victory Loan 2½s of 1967-72 at 100 12/32 bid.

A-Workers Obey U.S. Injunction

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — CIO atomic production workers followed the directions of a federal court order Thursday and reported for duty as usual at strike-threatened plants here and in Paducah, Ky.

Some 3,500 workers here and nearly 1,000 more at Paducah had planned to strike Thursday for higher wages. But they were barred from such action by a temporary injunction issued at nearby Knoxville by Judge Robert L. Taylor.

A hearing has been set for next Wednesday to determine whether the injunction, obtained under the Taft-Hartley Act, shall be made permanent. A union leader said he expects the hearing will be "a mere technicality."

The atomic workers are engaged in the production of a vital ingredient for atomic and hydrogen bombs. The nation's entire output is made here and at Paducah.

Present salary scales range from $1.58 to $2.40 an hour. The CIO-United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers Union has asked a 21-cent increase, from Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co., operator of the plants.

The President's atomic energy's labor relations panel on June 15 recommended a 6-cent raise.

Construction Strike

A walkout of some 1,600 AFL electricians and 120 painters on a construction job here continued Thursday but it had no relation to the production workers' dispute.

Meanwhile, Federal Mediator E. F. Hitchcock continued meetings with company and union leaders.

New York Censors Reverse Rule Against Disney Buffalo Birth Scene

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Walt Disney announced he was notified Thursday that the New York State Censor Board has reversed itself and approved a sequence showing a buffalo's birth in his latest film release, "The Vanishing Prairie."

Disney, an advocate of movie realism, described himself as "gratified" by the New York censoring group's change of heart.

The board previously had refused to license the film with inclusion of the scenes showing a buffalo being born and the action brought a sharp blast from the famed film cartoon producer.

Disney, after receiving word that the film would be shown in full in New York state, said:

Family Rating

"The board's decision concurs with that reached by national organizations and leading religious groups who had unanimously given the film a family rating.

"In this enlightened age we expected no less."

The six-time Academy Award winning producer said for the past six years he has tried to show nature in all her stages and in all her moods.

"This approach," he emphasized, "has made the films educational as well as entertaining. To us, the buffalo sequence was just another of the many wondrous natural events we have been fortunate enough to capture on film."

'Just Happened'

Disney said two of his photographers "just happened" to be present when the birth occurred and they recorded the scene "as they would any other incident."

"It is presented as part of the life cycle in the animal kingdom," he added, "and is not dwelt upon unnaturally or sensationally."

Ike Talk Due 'Shortly'

WASHINGTON (INS) — The White House said that President Eisenhower's nation-wide address summarizing the accomplishments of Congress will be delivered "very shortly" after Congress adjourns.

Wife Held In Fatal Shooting Of Husband

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha police are holding Mrs. Andrew Barring, 30, in connection with the shooting and death of her 31-year-old estranged husband.

Barring was pronounced dead at Douglas County Hospital Thursday.

Detectives said Barring was struck in the face by a 20 gauge shotgun blast as he sought to gain entrance to his wife's home through a second story window.

They found Barring half in and half out of a bathroom window. He died without regaining consciousness.

Detectives said Mrs. Barring related she was awakened by a noise in the bathroom, got the shotgun from her closet and then saw a man's figure outlined against the window.

Officers said that in one statement she said she talked with him before firing. Later she denied conversing with him before the shot was fired.

'Must' Foreign Aid Bill Sent To President

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate passed and sent to the White House Thursday night another of President Eisenhower's "must" bills—a measure authorizing a three billion, 54 and a-half million dollar foreign air program for the current fiscal year.

The compromise, worked out by Senate-House conferees, allows $314,040,000 more than the Senate initially provided and only slightly less than the three billion, 100 million dollar overseas miliiary and economic aid program originally submitted by the president.

The bill which won final congressional approval merely authorizes the program. A separate bill actually appropriating funds to carry it out still pends in Congress.

The House approved an appropriation bill allowing the actual expenditure of two billion, 896 million dollars and the Senate Appropriations Committee raised that amount to two billion, 991 millions.

Initially, the Senate cut a half billion dollars from the authorization measure, but shortly after President Eisenhower told his news conference last week that the slash was too deep, the conference committee restored the 314 million dollars.

Wedding Planned

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Academy Award winning movie star Gloria Grahame and television writer-producer Cy Howard obtained a marriage license and said they plan to be wed "within a week."

5 Nebraskans Get Infantry Badges

CAMP RIPLEY, Minn. (AP)—Five Nebraska National Guardsmen will receive expert infantry badges at a retreat parade here Friday.

They qualified for the badges in four days of the Regular Army's most exacting and critical field tests during the 34th Division's annual encampment in progress here.

The five are Second Lieutenants Donald L. Haws, M Company, North Platte; Harold D. Peterson, F Company, Norfolk; Will R. Heyen, Headquarters Company, 2nd Battalion, Milford; Richard G. Hartley, H Company, Grand Island, and Cpl. Donald A. Welsh, Heavy Mortar Company, Ogallala.

It is believed the Nebraska regiment is the only National Guard or organized reserve unit to attempt the tough tests. They were conducted by Capt. Tom Haykin, Omaha.

Col. Elbert Smith, Lexington, regimental commander, will present the badges at Friday's parade.

A-Workers Obey U.S. Injunction

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP) — CIO atomic production workers followed the directions of a federal court order Thursday and reported for duty as usual at strike-threatened plants here and in Paducah, Ky.

Some 3,500 workers here and nearly 1,000 more at Paducah had planned to strike Thursday for higher wages. But they were barred from such action by a temporary injunction issued at nearby Knoxville by Judge Robert L. Taylor.

A hearing has been set for next Wednesday to determine whether the injunction, obtained under the Taft-Hartley Act, shall be made permanent. A union leader said he expects the hearing will be "a mere technicality."

The atomic workers are engaged in the production of a vital ingredient for atomic and hydrogen bombs. The nation's entire output is made here and at Paducah.

Present salary scales range from $1.58 to $2.40 an hour. The CIO-United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers Union has asked a 21-cent increase, from Carbide and Carbon Chemicals Co., operator of the plants.

The President's atomic energy's labor relations panel on June 15 recommended a 6-cent raise.

Construction Strike

A walkout of some 1,600 AFL electricians and 120 painters on a construction job here continued Thursday but it had no relation to the production workers' dispute.

Meanwhile, Federal Mediator E. F. Hitchcock continued meetings with company and union leaders.

New York Censors Reverse Rule Against Disney Buffalo Birth Scene

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Walt Disney announced he was notified Thursday that the New York State Censor Board has reversed itself and approved a sequence showing a buffalo's birth in his latest film release, "The Vanishing Prairie."

Disney, an advocate of movie realism, described himself as "gratified" by the New York censoring group's change of heart.

The board previously had refused to license the film with inclusion of the scenes showing a buffalo being born and the action brought a sharp blast from the famed film cartoon producer.

Disney, after receiving word that the film would be shown in full in New York state, said:

Family Rating

"The board's decision concurs with that reached by national organizations and leading religious groups who had unanimously given the film a family rating.

"In this enlightened age we expected no less."

The six-time Academy Award winning producer said for the past six years he has tried to show nature in all her stages and in all her moods.

"This approach," he emphasized, "has made the films educational as well as entertaining. To us, the buffalo sequence was just another of the many wondrous natural events we have been fortunate enough to capture on film."

'Just Happened'

Disney said two of his photographers "just happened" to be present when the birth occurred and they recorded the scene "as they would any other incident."

"It is presented as part of the life cycle in the animal kingdom," he added, "and is not dwelt upon unnaturally or sensationally."

Ike Talk Due 'Shortly'

WASHINGTON (INS) — The White House said that President Eisenhower's nation-wide address summarizing the accomplishments of Congress will be delivered "very shortly" after Congress adjourns.

Wife Held In Fatal Shooting Of Husband

OMAHA (AP)—Omaha police are holding Mrs. Andrew Barring, 30, in connection with the shooting and death of her 31-year-old estranged husband.

Barring was pronounced dead at Douglas County Hospital Thursday.

Detectives said Barring was struck in the face by a 20 gauge shotgun blast as he sought to gain entrance to his wife's home through a second story window.

They found Barring half in and half out of a bathroom window. He died without regaining consciousness.

Detectives said Mrs. Barring related she was awakened by a noise in the bathroom, got the shotgun from her closet and then saw a man's figure outlined against the window.

Officers said that in one statement she said she talked with him before firing. Later she denied conversing with him before the shot was fired.

'Must' Foreign Aid Bill Sent To President

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Senate passed and sent to the White House Thursday night another of President Eisenhower's "must" bills—a measure authorizing a three billion, 54 and a-half million dollar foreign air program for the current fiscal year.

The compromise, worked out by Senate-House conferees, allows $314,040,000 more than the Senate initially provided and only slightly less than the three billion, 100 million dollar overseas military and economic aid program originally submitted by the president.

The bill which won final congressional approval merely authorizes the program. A separate bill actually appropriating funds to carry it out still pends in Congress.

The House approved an appropriation bill allowing the actual expenditure of two billion, 896 million dollars and the Senate Appropriations Committee raised that amount to two billion, 991 millions.

Initially, the Senate cut a half billion dollars from the authorization measure, but shortly after President Eisenhower told his news conference last week that the slash was too deep, the conference committee restored the 314 million dollars.

Wedding Planned

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—Academy Award winning movie star Gloria Grahame and television writer-producer Cy Howard obtained a marriage license and said they plan to be wed "within a week."

5 Nebraskans Get Infantry Badges

CAMP RIPLEY, Minn. (AP)—Five Nebraska National Guardsmen will receive expert infantry badges at a retreat parade here Friday.

They qualified for the badges in four days of the Regular Army's most exacting and critical field tests during the 34th Division's annual encampment in progress here.

The five are Second Lieutenants Donald L. Haws, M Company, North Platte; Harold D. Peterson, F Company, Norfolk; Will R. Heyen, Headquarters Company, 2nd Battalion, Milford; Richard G. Hartley, H Company, Grand Island, and Cpl. Donald A. Welsh, Heavy Mortar Company, Ogallala.

It is believed the Nebraska regiment is the only National Guard or organized reserve unit to attempt the tough tests. They were conducted by Capt. Tom Haykin, Omaha.

Col. Elbert Smith, Lexington, regimental commander, will present the badges at Friday's parade.

Foreign Student's Condition Is Good

A 38-year-old foreign student, Shafeek Farag of Egypt, was reported in "fairly good" condition Thursday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital with injuries received in a car-pedestrian accident.

He was struck by a car while crossing Q Street, between 10th and 11th, during a light rainfall Wednesday night and received fractures of the left wrist, right leg and pelvis, and shock.

Driver of the car was Pauline B. Weldon, 53, of 1320 No. 41st. Farag, a graduate student at the University of Nebraska, lives at 4603 Bancroft and has been in this country six years.

Economic Decline Halted, President Says In Unusual Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, in an unusual summer report on the economic health of the nation, said Thursday that "the over-all performance of the American economy during this administration has been better than during any earlier time."

"The paramount fact about the economy at midyear is that the recent decline in economic activity has come to a halt," he said.

Eisenhower's report was rosy except for noting that some industries, groups and communities had been hurt by the decline which began last summer. It was an obvious reply to Democratic critics in this election year who have been saying the Republicans are leading the country into depression.

Public Statement

The report, unusual for this time of year, took the form of a statement to the public. The President's annual economic report is sent to Congress early each year.

Thursday's statement amounted to adopting the Democratic slogan of two years ago: "You never had it so good."

Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass) whose state has a high rate of unemployment, didn't agree. He said:

"Over-all statistics, no matter how favorably interpreted, do not reveal the difficulties which certain sections of the country have suffered from the decline of economic activity."

'True'—Ferguson

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), whose car-making constituency has also been hit by unemployment, said he thought, "The President's estimate is true."

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) remarked, "Let the real facts speak for themselves."

Eisenhower also tossed a bouquet to Congress, saying:

"The economic program being enacted by the present Congress marks a milestone in constructive legislation.

"It will help to reduce unemployment and to stimulate enterprise and developments in all directions."

1949-50 Comparison

Noting that unemployment "is now greater than during the time of the Korean War," the President said that in recent months it has not been any larger than during comparable months in 1949 and 1950.

His figures showed that 5.1 per cent of the civilian labor force was unemployed last month, as compared with 2.4 per cent in July 1953, 3 per cent in July 1952, 2.9 per cent in 1951, 5 per cent in 1950 and 6.4 per cent in 1949.

Moreover, he added, the rate of unemployment has shown "some tendency to diminish of late." He called this "one of numerous signs of economic improvement" and listed these others:

"Retail sales have recently been rising again.

Business Expanding

"Business expenditures on capital expansion a improvement are continuing at a high rate.

"New construction contracts are running well above the level of a year ago.

"Inventories have been reduced and are now in better adjustment to current sales.

"The financial markets have been displaying great strength.

"The level of business and consumer confidence in the economic future is high and improving."

Changes Given

He gave these percentage changes from the first half of 1953 to the first half of 1954:

Gross national product — The dollar value of all the nation's output of commodities and services—down 2.7 per cent.

Nonagricultural employment — down 2.6.

Personal income of all families and individuals — Up 0.2.

Disposable personal income — Incomes minus personal income tax payments — Up 1.4.

Bank credits outside New York City — Up 0.9.

He then made comparisons with 1952, showing percentage changes from the first half of 1952 to the first half of 1954:

Industrial production — Up 3.3 per cent.

Gross national product — Up 4.4.

Nonagricultural employment — Up 1.1.

Personal income — Up 7.2.

Disposable personal income — Up 8.8.

Per capita disposable income—Up 5.3.

Bank credits outside New York—Up 10.2.
